A great week was last week, but this week will be much greater.

We are right in the middle of the great annual celebration which good King Ak-Sar-Ben provides for his subjects

And this year the people rejoice not only because King Ak-Sar-Ben lives and is happy and healthy, but also because Nebraska has completed half a century of statehood, during which she has grown in wealth, prosperity, beauty and everything desirable as few states have ever grown.

The people rejoice, further, that this week the president of the United States will visit them, a ruler as puissant in his realm as King Aksar-Ben himself is in the kingdom of

They are to view with us the wonders of our history, as presented in the historical pageant and parade next Thursday. They will dine in state at the Fontenelle hotel, and the president will deliver an address at the Auditorium.

Auditorium.

Last week was sort of getting-ready time. There was plenty "doing." The crowds began surging into the city from all directions and from even hundreds of miles away. It's a good thing, indeed, that Omaha's hotel accommodations have doubled in the last few years. They have plenty of room now.

Streets Are Filled.

Streets Are Filled.

Streets are full of people by day and by night. The King's Highway, which one enters through the mighty arch at Fifteenth and Capitol avenue, arch at Friteenth and Capitol avenue, is a broad highway and a busy highway and a highway flanked by dozens of wonders and thrills. All the streets in the city's business section are festooned and arched with thousands of electric lights.

The people have been disporting themselves by the thousands. Yesterday was specially set aside for children at the carnival, Grown-upsecould come, too, of course, but prices could come, too, of course, but prices were cut in half to suit the caliber of juvenile pocketbooks. There they saw the Panama canal and the Battle of Verdun, the three-legged girl and the strange girl Hattie, the Arabian Nights, and Toyland.

Jerked Around Whip.

Folks are jerked around on The Whip, whirled around in horizontal circles on the merry-go-round, and lifted up and down in vertical circles on the Ferris wheel.

Then it was the Week of Wonderful Windows, too, you know. All the stores have their windows in truly wonderful array. Wednesday

"This plan," he said today, "will be able to supply virtually all the potash needed for the manufacture of explosives for the American army."

Turrentine states that the department had $175,000 at its disposal to start the plant. His mission, he said, has been to ascertain whether the operation of a powder company and other plants now doing what the government proposes to do were likely to exhaust the supply of kelp. He had found, he said, that the kelp beds grow "with almost uncanny speed" after they have been reaped.

President Attacks Republican Party, Declaring It Has Outlived Usefulness.

HE SCORES WALL STREET

Long Branch, N. J., Sept. 30 .- President Wilson declared in a speech here today "that the certainty of a success of the republican party" at the next election is that the United States will enter the European war and will go to war with Mexico.

Officials of foreign governments will watch the coming election carefully, the president said, to know how they can treat the United States in the future. He said special interests with stakes in Mexico are working for the success of the republican party.

The president said that the republiand that the republi-cans say his foreign policy is wrong and that the only alternative to his policy is war. The foreign affairs of the nation, he declared, are being emharassed by the partisan treatment of them by republicans.

The president launched a vigorous attack on the republican party, saying that it had outlived its usefulness. "I think the democratic party will witness the death of another party," declared the president. "It has al-ready seen two great parties come

President Wilson asserted that the republican party was run on the the-ory that a few men shall govern the nation. He indicated he thought the real issue in the present campaign is whether the people shall rule. He declared he had found nothing to interest him in the campaign of the republicans.

The president said he had hoped for a campaign based on real issues, but that he had been disappointed.

Today tourists, not on such little jaunts as Keokuk to Denver, but on tours from Maine to California, don't get more than a passing glance.

Omaha has become one of the greatest transcontinental touring centers. The register at the Omaha Auto mobile club headquarters in the Fontenelle hotel on a single day this sum mer contained the names of touring parties making the following trips:

Los Angeles to New York.
Green Bay, Wis., to San Francisco
Cheyenne to Chicago.
Pasadena to New York.
Los Angeles to South Bend, Ind.
San Diego to Lansing, Mich.
Denver to Chicago.
Kansas City to Milwaukee.

Former President Says it is the Duty of the Executive to Avoid All Reasonable Suspicion.

TALKS AT BATTLE CREEK

Says False Servants of the People Have Betrayed the Soul of Nation.

HE CANNOT KEEP SILENT

Battle Creek, Mich., Sept. 30 .- Former President Theodore Roosevelt put President Wilson and Caesar's wife in the same class when he addressed a large audience here in support of Charles Evans Hughes, the republican candidate for president, here this afternoon.

"It was the president's duty as well as Mrs. Caesar's to escape reasonable suspicion of wrongdoing; should he or any other official tell us: 'If you knew the facts you wouldn't blame me, we have a ready answer: 'Give us the facts and we'll see.'

Mr. Roosevelt said he found it no

"I never uttered one word of criticism of President Wilson until a year and a half after he was elected president. If he had stood by the honor and the interest of the American people, I would have thrown up my hat for him, and would have supported him, heart and soul. I not merely kept silent during the first eighteen months or two years. I tried actively to support him. The only errors I have made in connection with Mr. Wilson were due to incautiously accepting his statements and supporting his policies in the effort to 'stand by the president.' It was with deep reductance that I was forced to the conclusion that the effort to stand by him was incompatible with standing by the interests of mankind, and the honor of this nation. But in my view there was no alternative for an honorable man, when once I became convinced, as I am convinced, that the conscience of this people has been seared, and its moral sense dulled by the leadership of the administration and of congress during the last three years. These false servants of the people have taught us to enjoy soft ease and swollen wealth in the pres-Nowata, Okl., Sept. 30.—Two negroes, accused of being implicated in the killing of Deputy Sheriff James Gibson, during a jail delivery yesterday, were taken from the iail by a mob touiste and leached in the peace and swollen wealth in the present without taking one effective step to ward off ruinous disaster in the future. A first attempt to lynch one of the negroes, immediately after their capture, was frustrated by the Rev. Perry Pierce, a Methodist minister, who pleaded with the mob until the suspended negro was cut down, unconscious but alive. The mob dispersed but public feeling was not allayed and the mob re formed later with the announced intention of lynching the two men who had been returned to jail.

When the prisoners had been taken from the jail, short work was made of putting them to death.

Events culminating in the double lynching moved with dramatic swiftness. Three negro prisoners escaped from the county jail late today. They were discovered in the act by Sheriff James May, who was knocked down and robbed of his pistol. Gibson went to his aid and was shot to death. It was only a few minutes after the negroes had gained their freedom, that a mob bent on vengeance was in close pursuit.
