

What is Going On in Society Circles

Vail-Jaquith Wedding Party. Sharing in social interest with Ak-Sar-Ben festivities is the marriage of Miss Alice Jaquith, daughter of Mrs. A. B. Jaquith, and Mr. Elias Vail of Poughkeepsie, which takes place Saturday evening at St. Barnabas church.

The wedding party, however, has two more important members in the flower girl and the ring bearer. The former will be Miss Elinor Kountze. In the society "movie" given last June for the Child Saving institute Miss Jaquith was the heroine and little Miss Kountze acted as flower girl in the movie wedding of Miss Jaquith and Robert Burns.

Beginning Monday with a luncheon at Miss Vinsonhaler's home there will be one and two entertainments daily for Miss Jaquith and Mr. Vail. Mrs. Jaquith gives a luncheon Tuesday for the out-of-town members of the wedding party and that evening there will be a dinner for all of the wedding party at the home of Miss Meliora Davis, followed by an Orpheum party.

Thursday Mrs. Charles Kountze gives a breakfast at noon at her home, and the same evening there will be the wedding rehearsal at St. Barnabas and a dinner at the Omaha club given by Mrs. Jaquith. John Caldwell will entertain the wedding party at dinner Friday evening at the Omaha club.

Smith-Bradford Wedding. The wedding of Miss Lucy Semple, Bradford and former Lieutenant Raymond Durno Smith last Tuesday in Springfield, Ill., was the culmination of a romance begun here over three years ago, when Lieutenant Smith, son of General Frederick Smith, was stationed with the Fourth infantry at Fort Crook and Miss Bradford was associated with Miss Isabel Lowden in the latter's studio as the instructor in dancing. Miss Bradford came to Omaha with Miss Lowden and remained only a year, since which time she has been teaching dancing in St. Louis and Chicago. Lieutenant Smith

Ophelia roses, palms and ferns were the house decorations. The bride wore a gown of ivory satin and chantly lace trimmed with pearls and made with a court train. Her tulle veil was held in place by a band of silver. Her bouquet was a shower of lilies of the valley and bride roses. Mrs. Edward Kelly, matron of honor, wore her wedding gown of ivory satin and chantly lace. In her hair she wore a bird of paradise and she carried white chrysanthemums. Miss Claire McCaffrey, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Mary-Kline were the bridesmaids. Miss Claire wore a gown of pink chiffon and silver lace and carried pink chrysanthemums. Miss Mary's gown was of orchid faille and her bouquet of pink chrysanthemums. Both wore pink picture hats. After a wedding trip to the east Mr. and Mrs. McCaffrey will be at home on November 15 at 620 South Thirty-first street, Omaha.
