WORLD SERIES TO MAKE NEW RECORDS

If Seven Games Are Played Mark of 1912 May Even Be Shattered.

WEATHER WILL NOT HURT

By FRANK G. MENKE.

New York, Sept. 30 .- The appetite of the base ball fans, sharpened by the great pennant races in both circuits, makes it certain that capacity crowds will lam their way into the parks for every game of the world series to

It is within the range of possibility that attendance records will be smashed at the ensuing frolic, provided, of course, that the Red Sox and the Dodgers are the warriors. The Dodger park will seat 30,000 and may be stretched to 31,000. The Red Sox park could pack in close to 38,000, but it is likely they will use the 45,000 ca-pacity lot of the Braves.

Chicago Takes Two From the Indians

Cleveland, Sept. 30.—Chicago took both games from Cleveland today, 7 to 2 and 7 to 3, the second game going to twelve innings, when Felsch litt for four bases with the sacks filled. Felsch not only drove in five runs, but robbed Cleveland of four runs with sensational catches of drives that looked good for two or three bases. Errors by Wambsganss, who made two high throws to the plate allowed two runs. Errors also were responsible for six of the seven runs scored by Chicago in the first game, the other being scored on a triple steal by E. Collins, Jackson and Felsch. Score. first game:

began to change, and now at the end of the season the voice is almost unanimous in favor of the system.

While at first some of the umpires were green it did not take long until all were proving satisfactory. This satisfaction is due probably to the high character of the men who were hired, and in no less degree to the efficient service of Supervisor George Clark, who labored with the men throughout the entire season. It is a well known fact that any man that wanted a tryout was given the opportunity, and among those who were selected were salesmen, clerks, lawyers, a credit man and a civil ensite of Heebe,

New York, Sept. 30 .- Packey McFarring-for just one more fight. He says he will condescend to consider offers for another "battle" with Mike Gib-

Packey says he realizes the error of his ways in tricking Gibbons into making an unreasonably low weight

Packey Is Wise. Packey Is Wise.

Here is a fact that may not be known to the general fight public. At the present moment McFarland weighs in the neighborhood of 168 pounds. Yes, 168 pounds If Gibbons agrees to give Packey another chance, the latter will enter the ring at 160 pounds at best, which would give him a pull of at least five pounds in the weights.

Leave it to Packey to enter the ring with one thing or another in his favor.

A breath of scandal was attached to the last meeting between McFar-land and Gibbons. The bout savored of an "understanding," but no one had the courage to make a definite charge, and the parties connected with that affair have not yet taken to "souealing."

'squealing."
When Welsh and White were about When Welsh and White were about to enter the ring for their recent championship fight, on Labor day, an unnamed party made the startling accusation that the fight was "fixed" for Welsh to get the decision on points, if the bout went the limit. As the contest eventuated this allegation was based on fact, for Referee Roche gave Welsh the decision, although 90 per cent of the spectators thought that White had won fairly.

This same well-informed party, three weeks before Gibbons and McFarland had their tete-a-tete down Brighton way, made known the fact that the bout was prearranged and that Gibbons was "handcuffed" not to knock out McFarland. Also that Gibbons had posted $10,000 as a guarantee that he would not "double-cross" Packey, the money to be forfeited to McFarland in the event of such a happening.
