Rourkes Defeat All-Star Amateur Team by Overwhelming Score.

PACKERS BEAT MURPHYS

The Omaha Western league cham pions proved to be too fast for Johnny Dennison's All-Star amateur nine in the feature event of the big amateur field day at Rourke park yesterday afternoon. The pros walloped the sandlotters, 9 to 1, in a six-inning game which was stopped by dark-

The Rourkes bumped both Jim Moylan and Bunny Holland, the All-Star hurlers, hard, while the amateurs could not solve the offerings of Otto Merz and Lou North.

Carl Stangel of the Omaha Gas company was the shining light of the All-Star nine. Stangel made three hits out of as many trips to the plate and swiped two bases on Bobby Marshall.

Andy Graves, the 42-year-old veteran, hurled a great game for the Armours. He only allowed the Murphys two hits. But Maxwell of the Class B lads also hurled a good game and the packers narrowly averted disaster.

About 1,000 fans attended the games. The scores:

Is Breaking Into Eastern Limelight

Chicago, Oct. 1.—"Jumbo" Stehm, Indiana's new coach, has developed an open offense that is likely to cause up-sets in Big Nine calculations this fall, according to experts who today reviewed opening battles in central states foot ball.

Indiana may be reckoned now as a dangerous' eleven, always able to slip over a long pass, say critics who base their statements on reports of the Hoosier defeat of Depanw yesterday. In other particulars, Indiana is not up to the form it will have to show to rank high in the conference, but stehm may be expected to strengthen the defense before the Chicago game on October 14. on October 14.

The Michigan Aggies crushed Olivet, as an auspicious debut for Coach Frank Sommers, one-time Pennsylvania. A new player, who, farmer rooters believed, will be seen in hero roles at the Michigan Athletic club, is Jacks, a substitute half-back.

Krug Will Be Able to Play Against Colonels

Marty Krug will be able to play with the Rourkes against the Louisville Colonels in the post-season series, which starts here Wednesday. Marty played in the outfield yesterday afternoon against the All-Stars and found that he could give his leg, which was injured last August, a full workout.

Some changes have been made in the Louisville team. Wade Killifer will not play in centerfield. White-man will occupy the position. Ed Barney, late of Pittsburgh, will also come to Omaha with the Colonels.

Jim Moylan Breaks His Pitching Hand

Jim Moylan, the big Rambler hurler, who pitched the first part of the game between the Rourkes and the amateur All-Stars at Rourkes park yesterday afternoon, broke the first joint on the middle finger of his throwing hand. He pitched an entire inning with the busted digit before he admitted to Manager Dennison that it was hurting him. Then Dennison took him out and inserted Holland to finish the game.

Cleveland's Defeat of Chicago White Sox Leaves Red Sox League Champions.

ERRORS THROW FLAG AWAY

Chicago, Oct. 1 .- The Boston American league club today won the league pennant without playing, the Chicago Americans having lost one of their games to Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 1.—Cleveland eliminated Chicago as a possible American league pennant winner today by winning the first game of the double-header, 2 to 0. By so doing, Cleveland also maintained a percentage of .500. Coumbe pitched brilliantly for Cleveland, altowing but twohits, one by a recruit, the other by a pinch hitter. He walked two, only twenty-nine men facing him during the nine innings. Each of the two Cleveland runs was scored by a batsman who started the inning by being hit, an error helping each on his way to the plate. By a peculiar coincidence, each run was scored by a sacrifice fly.

The second game was a farcial contest and was won easily by Chicago, 8 to 4 Score, first game:
