

HENRY FORD WON'T GIVE DEMS MONEY

Manufacturer Says Has Made No Plans to Contribute as Does Not Believe in It.

TO DO ALL CAN FOR WILSON

Long Branch, N. J., Oct. 3.—President Wilson's campaign program up to election day was partly completed today at a conference that he held with Vance McCormick, chairman of the democratic national committee.

Henry Ford remained with the president four hours and assured Mr. Wilson that he was willing to do everything possible to bring about his election. He said he had made no plans for contributing to the democratic campaign fund, because he did not believe in such a course.

Plans Made for Trip. Arrangements were completed for a trip of the president to Cincinnati, making four visits that he will pay to the middle west. He will speak in Cincinnati on October 26, under the auspices of the City club.

The president's speaking program, outlined tonight, includes the following engagements:

Omaha, October 5; Shadow Lawn, October 7; Indianapolis, October 12; Pennsylvania day at Shadow Lawn, October 14; St. Louis and Ohio day at Shadow Lawn, October 17; Chicago, October 19; farmers' day at Shadow Lawn, October 21; Cincinnati, October 26.

Will Speak at Shadow Lawn. In addition to these speaking engagements, the president will deliver an address at Shadow Lawn October 28 and will pay two visits to New York state on dates not yet selected.

PUT POSTMASTERS ON FIRING LINES

Democratic National Committee Sends Out "Wilson Workers' Manual" to the Civil Service Employees.

LOOKS LIKE LAW BREAKING

New York, Oct. 3.—(Special Telegram.)—Postmasters are sought as aides in pro-Wilson campaign by the democratic national organization, apparently in violation of the law and the declaration of the leader of the democratic ticket, as evidenced by material received by William R. Willcox, chairman of the republican national committee.

It is a pamphlet issued by and "with the compliments of the democratic national committee organization bureau." It is entitled, "Wilson Worker's Manual," and is rubber stamped, "sample, additional copies on request." The envelope has "postmaster" printed on it in large letters and the name of his postoffice is typewritten. The envelope is postmarked at the Grand Central Station branch in East Forty-second street.

This is an evidence of direct effort to procure violation of the law by federal employees for the benefit of the democratic national ticket, said Mr. Willcox. "It is not the first we have received. It belies the promises and the public utterances of the man for whose benefit it is done."

School Board Will Watch for Defective Teeth of Children

The board of education last evening approved the use of the following schools for social center purposes under the direction of the recreation board: Dundee, Central Park, Miller Park, Monmouth Park, Kellom, Castelar, West Side and South High.

Favorable action was taken on the proposition that children be examined for defective teeth and referred to the Free Dental Clinic association in cases where the parents are unable to pay for the service. The school nurses will make the examinations.

The superintendent of buildings was authorized to act in connection with a request from many Central High school boys who wish to store their bicycles in the basement of the school during school hours.

Union Chiefs Admit No Sympathy Strike

New York, Oct. 3.—Tacit admission of the failure of the general sympathetic strike in New York in behalf of the striking street car men, was made in a report late today to a conference of labor leaders, which discussed the general situation. The leaders recommended that every union member in the city be assessed $1 for the benefit of the subway, elevated and surface car employees who are on strike in Manhattan, the Bronx and parts of Westchester county.

South Omaha Has Two Lively Fires

Woman's Club Votes To Work for Better Motion Picture Show

A campaign for better motion picture films for children was advocated by the president, Mrs. E. M. Syfert, as the first work of the Omaha Woman's club, at the opening meeting Monday afternoon at the Metropolitan hall.

A constructive policy, as opposed to censorship, was advocated by Mrs. Syfert. "We wish to co-operate with producers, not arouse their antagonism," she said.

Homage was paid to Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles of Los Angeles, president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, who was the guest of the club. Mrs. Cowles talked on club work, urging clubwomen to keep their brains active, to keep their poise and to follow the constructive policy of the General Federation.

Mrs. Harry L. Keeffe of Waltham, former recording secretary for the big organization; Mrs. F. H. Cole, and presidents of the local federated clubs extended greetings to the president.

Twenty new members sought admission to the Woman's club yesterday, two of them daughters of women prominent in club activities. They are Miss Loa Howard, daughter of Mrs. F. A. Howard, and Miss Camilla Edholm, daughter of Mrs. K. R. Edholm. The federation is fostering a movement to enroll daughters of clubwomen.

President Wilson Comes On Special

President Wilson will arrive in Omaha on the first section of Northwestern train Number 7, which will get him in here at 11:40 Thursday morning. Thus the president will have not only a special car but a special section.

The section consists of President and Mrs. Wilson's private car, the "Superb," another Pullman for the attaches of the party, a baggage car and a dining car. The section will be accompanied by operating officials of the Northwestern, including General Passenger Agent J. L. Ferguson of Chicago.

BABY BANDITS TELL AWFUL TALE

Kearney Gets Them After the Youthful Yeggs Yarn About Real Burglar.

STORY OF BROKEN PLEDGE

The "baby bandits" are on their way to Kearney.

Two shots fired into the ceiling while they were robbing the home of Henry F. Wyman, real estate man, at Florence, caused the downfall of two runaway boys who escaped from the Riverview home and attempted to start a career of crime.

Lloyd Wallace and Clarence Young, both aged 13, were haled before Juvenile Judge Leslie Monday afternoon and given the punishment promised them before they were confined at Riverview.

Both gave the judge their word that it was "shoot square."

Judge Leslie accepted the promise. After they had spent a couple of days at the home both climbed the fence and disappeared.

According to precepts laid down in juvenile court, promises must be kept. Hence Lloyd and Clarence are on their way to the state industrial school for boys to be taught that the ways of the lawbreaker are unpleasant.

Their Melodrama

"We was robbing the front room of the house to get money to take us out of the country when another burglar came in the back way," confessed Wallace when brought before the judge. "In order to frighten him so that we might get away with the whole swag I fired two shots into the ceiling. He went out one window and we went out the other after I pulled the trigger. Then the marshal pinched us."

The boys were arrested by Constable John McGregor at Florence and after being placed in the custody of Superintendent Thompson of the Riverview home were placed in the care of the matron's department of the city jail for safe-keeping.

Asserts Hughes to Win New York, New Jersey, Connecticut

Chicago, Oct. 3.—A report that Hughes and Fairbanks will carry New York, Connecticut and New Jersey was brought to western republican national headquarters today by Frank H. Hitchcock, a member of the republican national advisory committee, who devoted several weeks to a study of politics in the east before coming to Chicago.

He said that the sentiment in New York state outside of New York City, appeared to be overwhelmingly for Hughes. In New York City, he said, there was considerable doubt as to the situation. Favorable reports also were received from West Virginia, Hitchcock said. Plans for Hughes' third and final trip of the campaign through the west were discussed today at western headquarters.

It is expected that Mr. Hughes will leave New York Monday, October 9 and speak in Maryland, West Virginia, Kentucky, Missouri, Oklahoma, Nebraska, North Dakota and South Dakota, although the itinerary has not been completed.

Additional speaking dates for Charles W. Fairbanks, who is campaigning in the northwest, were announced here as follows: Spokane, Wash., October 9; Hamilton and Missoula, Mont., October 10; Bozeman, Mont., October 11; Bismarck, N. D., October 12, and Aberdeen, S. D., October 13.

New York, October 2.—Charles E. Hughes spent today resting and going over correspondence which had accumulated during his latest speaking campaign. He saw no callers and remained in seclusion. The republican nominee went for an automobile ride this afternoon.

Mr. Hughes will remain here until Wednesday morning, when he will go to Montclair, N. J., to rest until the end of the week. He will begin another speaking tour, next week.

LIGHT CONTRACT APPROVED BY CITY

Prices Set Forth for Ornamental Illuminated Posts in All Parts of Metropolis.

COMPANY TO PAY EXPENSE

The city council formally ratified the action of its committee of the whole by voting to grant to the Omaha Electric Light and Power company a five-year street lighting contract to become effective October 18.

Commissioner Butler voted alone against the contract. He repeated his request that the contract be deferred for a few weeks.

The rates to be charged for electric lamps will be: Single lamps on ornamental posts, supplied by conduits, $31 per year; two-light ornamental posts in conduit district, $68 per year; suspended or crossarm lamps outside of ornamental district, $31 per year.

The present system of electric lighting will be increased by 1,071 lamps and all lamps will be of the 40-candle-power Mazda type, to be located according to a plan furnished by the city to the light company. The company will stand the expense of installing the new equipment.

The city reserves the right to change the locations at any time, but the contract provides that during its life the company shall be paid the full amount the city is authorized to expend each year for electric lighting purposes.

Union Pacific Says "No Smoking" After Fire Scare

Large and prominent placards carrying the edict "no smoking" have been placed in the elevators in the Union Pacific headquarters building. Somebody dropped a lighted cigar down one of the elevator shafts while riding in one of the lifts and a blaze was narrowly averted. "Safety first" quoth Dr. Millener, the building custodian, as he issued the order.

PACKERS RAISE PAY ROLL FOUR MILLION

Sixty Thousand Men Will Be Given Raise Increase of Two and Half Cents an Hour.

EVERY WORKMAN IN ON IT

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Simultaneously with the announcement tonight that 20,000 employes of the wholesale clothiers' association here would receive a reduction in working hours without loss of pay, a voluntary wage increase of 2 1/2 cents an hour for employes of the operating departments all over the United States, was announced by Wilson & Co., Armour & Co., Libby, McNeil company and Norris & Co. tonight.

The increase granted by the packers will affect 60,000 men employed in the big packing centers, while about 20,000 will be benefited by the reduction of hours in the clothing trades, from fifty to forty-eight a week. The packers' increase will mean an additional pay roll of $4,000,000 a year. The action of both garment makers and packers was voluntary, it was announced. In neither case was there threat of labor difficulties.
