FIGHT OVER CUT OF GATE

THE FINISH Louisville ...

Completely smothering the Rourklets in both sections of a double bill, the Louisville Colonels yesterday captured the post-season series from Omaha to the tune of four games out of five. The Distillers won the first fray, 6 to 5 after an exciting combat, and walked away with the second one 8 to 2 in five rounds.

About 5,000 fans turned out for the Sabbath attraction. It was fairly comfortable during the front section of the bargain matinee, but it turned cold at the start of the second, and the fans started to hike for home. The few who remained for the massacre were almost congealed.

sacre were almost congealed.

The second contest was staged only after a mighty wrangle between the players of the two teams. The Louisville bunch wanted more money. It seems after their expenses are paid the Colonels will have about thirty cents left. The Rourkes haven't any expenses and they get the long end of the cut. They'll make a hundred or so bucks apiece. The Colonels thought the Rourkes ought to divvy a little, but the locals couldn't see it that way and it was only after much wrangling that the visitors consented to play the second game.

Cecil Thompson and Rube Schauer hooked up in a battle in the first fray. Both hit fairly hard. The Rourkes made the most hits, but the enemy made theirs at the right time.
Lou North was easy pickings in the second event. He was hammered for three hits, two of which were home runs, and he issued five bases on balls in a couple of frames, thus giving the Colonels eight runs. The Rourkes failed to bother Northrup. The second game was called at the end of the fifth on account of the cold.

Brooklyn, nothing daunted by its 6 to 5 defeat of Saturday, is preparing to reverse the decision in Monday's game and thus return to their home park on even terms with Boston.

The weather forecast for tomorrow is for a clear day.

Those who witnessed the opening play claim to have seen nothing that aroused fear that the record of unbroken victories for Boston teams in past world's series is to be upset this season. They are willing to concede that the Brooklyn team is a game, hard-working group of players, but contend that there is lacking the smooth, machine-like effectiveness of Boston. They strengthened their opinions by willingness to wager two to one on the outcome of the series.

Both Teams Rest.

Both Teams Rest. Neither team practiced today, the players resting at their homes, or at the hotels.

The chief topic of conversation and

The chief topic of conversation and argument among fans was based upon the choice of pitchers for tomorrow's 'game. It was the consensus of opinion that Carrigan would send either Ruth or Leonard to the mound for Boston, while Robinson would counter with either Coombs or Pfeffer. In either case Boston will have a southpaw in the box, against the Superbas, while Boston will be called upon to face a right hander, since Brooklyn played its best left handed twirler when Marquard was worked on Saturday.

There is a wide difference of opinion among base ball magnates here regarding the reason for the falling off in attendance at Saturday's contest as compared with the games played here a year ago, there being 6,000 less than the opening game here last fall and 5,000 less than the second contest.

No Longer a Novelty.

One explanation is that many fans made no attempt to attend, upon the supposition that there would be no chance of getting inside the park owing to the huge crowds that were believed to be storming the grounds. Another is that the world's series is tack which Missouri exhibited in the game with Central, and the decisive defeat of Kansas in that team's adventure into Big Nine territory to meet Illinois, gave southwestern foot ball fans food for thought today in considering the 1916 race for gridiron honors.

Nebraska made fifty-three points yesterday whiel holding Drake scoreless, a fact which would seem to point to a continuation of the monotonous jess, a fact which would seem to point to a continuation of the monotonous strong Cornhusker championships.

Missouri's showing justified expectations and added a pleasing surprise in the forty points accred by the combination of old and new foot ball tactics.

Ames won from Highland Park, 19 to 0. Washington had a vigerous opponent in Rose Polytechnic, but the far southwest, the only notable feature was Oklahoma's score of 148 to 0 against Southwestern Normal. Texas won from Rice, 11 to 2, as compared with last year's score of 59 to 0, and Arkansas defeated Hendrix, 58 to 0.

It was explained that everything learned by government stations must first be transmitted to the Navy de-partment before being made public. Particulars of the attack, however, continued to come from merchant vessels to commercial wireless plants and through marine observers on shore.

At daylight today the U-35, turned up southeast of Nantucket, and got in the way of the American steamer Kansas of the American-Hawaii company, bound from New York to Genoa by way of Boston with freight. The Kansan was flying the American flag. It was stopped by the submarine at 5:30 o'clock. Assured that the Kansan was an American-owned vessel, the submarine later allowed it to proceed.

The fate of the British freighter was told in the following wireless dispatch from her commander. Captain Harden to the naval radio station:

"British steamer Westpoint, stopped by submarine and fired upon; getting boats ready. Position 40:25 north, 69m west. Get cutter."

Later messages gave further details. One stated that the steamer was being shelled by the submarine when the message was sent at 11:15 a. m. A third message said that the vessel was attacked at 10:45, ten miles south of Nantucket. The steamer Kansan, picked up the distress signals and proceeded to its assistance. The Boston navy yard at 1:30 o'clock received a message from the Kansan stating that the Kansan was going to her aid. The disabled vessel was then fifty-five miles distant and the Kansan was going to her aid. The disabled vessel was then fifty-five miles distant and the Kansan was makin twelve knots.—

Later a private dispatch added the information that the submarine, after stopping the Westpoint ,ordered the crew into their small boats. The crew abandoned the ship, which was then torpedoed.

Meanwhile the American line steamship Philadelphia, which left New York yesterday for Liverpool, had gotten within the war zone, and an S. O. S. wireless message was received by her commander. He held his course for the east.

A subsecting the submarine encountered the Strathdene, commanded by Captain Wilson, and under chater by the French line. A subsecting the submarine and the submarine and the submarine and the sequent message from the Nantucket lightship, stated that the Strathdene had been sunk at six o'clock this morning and that the crew of 'twenty men' were on the lightship. The steamer carried a crew of thirty-four.

There was no doubt as to whether the lightship had picked them all up. The Strathdene sailed from New York for Bordeaux yesterday afternoon. It was of 4,321 tons and 375 feet in lengtht. It, was built in Greenwich in 1909, and was owned in Glasgow.

Republican Speakers' Bureau Assigns Talkers to All Principal Towns in State.

HAIL COMING OF HUGHES

Lincoln, Oct. 8.—(Special.) — This week will be a busy one with republican speakers in Nebraska. J. V. Craig, manager of the speakers' bureau of the republican state committee has been kept busy assigning them to different parts of the state so as to give meetings to all parts of the state where it is possible to do so.

Probably the most important one Another speculation was that supply ships were co-operating with the U-53. It was pointed out that the submarine, after ostensibly cruising the Atlantic unassisted, arrived at Newport fully provisioned for three months and not requiring fuel or so much as jug of water.
