PUNCTURES CLAIMS OF THE DEMOCRATS

John L. Kennedy Lays Bare Some of the Arguments Used by Boosters for Wilson.

USE REPUBLICAN THUNDER

Seward, Neb., Oct. 10.—(Special).—John L. Kennedy, republican candidate for United States senator, addressed an afternoon crowd here. He took occasion to point out that all that the democratic administration claims cannot really be attributed to partisan voting. He examined five principal pieces of legislation for which democratic orators are claiming credit for the democratic congress.

As to the prosperity of the past year Mr. Kennedy said that this was due to a law for which the democratic congress could not claim credit, namely, the law of supply and demand, which is as old as time. He pointed out that it was due to decrease in the number of active producers by taking men from productive occupations and placing them in non-productive war service.

Referring to the child labor legislation and the widows' pension legislation, Mr. Kennedy showed that the only votes against this were those of the southern democrats, for whose women and children the child labor law was proposed. These men, he said, who are unable to care for their own local problems, are now in the saddle and governing the people of the north.

Copy Republican Measure.

The federal reserve bank legislation, Mr. Kennedy asserted, had many good points and that these were taken bodily from the Aldrich-Freeland measure, a republican work. He objected, however, to giving Missouri two banks, when Nebraska, which is not tributary to Missouri, got none.

He asserted that there were many good points in the rural credits legislation, but that the plan was designed for the benefit of the lender, rather than the Nebraska borrower, and on the whole was not very workable because it required too much red tape and too many offices, and encroached upon the privacy of the rural borrower.

Mr. Kennedy was introduced at Seward by George Liggett of Utica, candidate for the legislature. During his speech Mr. Kennedy was frequently interrupted by applause from his hearers, and particularly when he was discussing the rural credits bill, and when proposing a constructive method of dealing with the Mexican problem.

Foreign Birth, But Loyal.

He was applauded when he asserted that, although he was a man of foreign birth, like many of his hearers, he was an American now and true and loyal first to his adopted country as to his native land.

Mr. Kennedy pleaded for humanity and the right of America to lead the van for the good of humanity. He was accompanied here by General J. H. Culver of Milford and from here he was accompanied by George Liggett and L. H. McKillip to Utica, where he spoke later in the afternoon in the opera house.

At both Seward and Utica Mr. Kennedy was warmly applauded when he proposed Charles E. Hughes as the drait choice of the great rank and file of the American people and not merely the candidate of the republican party.

Republican Committee Busy.

Stella, Neb., Oct. 10.—(Special).—The republican county central committee has started a big campaign. The first meeting was at Falls City, with Judge Hilton as speaker. Congressman Hamilton of Michigan spoke at Humboldt. Leslie M. Shaw, will deliver an address at Falls City. Charles E. Hughes is expected to speak Saturday forenoon. Friday evening, October 20, an address will be given at Falls City by Dr. W. A. Hunsberger of New York.

Cure for Cholera Morbus.

"When our little boy, now 7 years old, was a baby he was cured of cholera morbus by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Mrs. Sidney Simmons, Fair Haven, N. Y. "Since then other members of my family have used this valuable medicine for colic and bowel troubles with good satisfaction and I gladly endorse it as a remedy of exceptional merit." Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

Weddings at Stella.

Stella, Neb., Oct. 10.—(Special).—Clarence F. Noa, aged 30 years, and Miss Lola Deweese, aged 24 years, will be married at the home of the bride's parents, between Stella and Humboldt, Wednesday evening.

George Troxell, aged 18, and Miss Nellie Liberty, aged 19, surprised their friends by getting married late Saturday evening.

Try This If You Have Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be luffy, lustreous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.—Advertisement.

GERMAN SUBMERSIBLE NOW RAIDING IN YANKEE WATERS—Photograph showing the U-53 as it appeared in Newport harbor last Saturday, when it suddenly showed up, to startle Americans and deliver a message for the German ambassador, Count von Bernstorff. The U-53 spent several hours at Newport, while its commander exchanged calls with the commanders of the American fleets stationed there. It then put out to sea and began its destructive work early Sunday morning.

KENNEDY CHEERED BY OLD SOLDIERS

Veterans at Milford Applaud Candidate's Reference to Dem Mexican Policy.

APPRECIATE TALK OF WAR

Milford, Neb., Oct. 8.—(Special).—To an audience including nearly a hundred aged, but young spirited veterans of one or more American wars, John L. Kennedy, republican candidate for United States senator, delivered an address here yesterday at the Masonic hall. He stated that the democratic press would like to make this a campaign of persons rather than of principle, but he added that if it could not be a campaign of principle he would like to see it made a campaign of patriotism.

The meeting was presided over by General J. H. Culver, retired, the hero of three wars, and his well-chosen remarks of introduction and the speech of Mr. Kennedy were interrupted by repeated applause and cheers from an enthusiastic audience. John Stultz of Milford, republican candidate for the state senate and J. C. Pietri of Germantown, republican candidate for county treasurer, spoke briefly on local questions.

Keeping Out of War.

"They tell us that Wilson kept us out of war," Mr. Kennedy remarked. Thereupon a ripple of laughter ran over the audience and a number of the veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic laughed outright. Others called "How about Vera Cruz?" "Who caught Villa?" and similar expressions. Mr. Kennedy stated that no European power or group of powers had wanted to go to war with the United States and the United States surely had not desired war with any European power, and that it was hard to see how any president could have done less. After the speech, old soldiers in great numbers remarked that if we had not been having useless war with Mexico it was really hard to define war.

How Democrats Voted.

Mr. Kennedy examined the list of claims made by the democratic congress and showed that of the votes cast against beneficial bits of legislation had all been cast by democrats, and that the last congress had been of the south, of which the committees are under the control of the south, and the legislation peculiarly for the benefit of the south and at the expense of the north and northwest.

HUGHES' ELECTION IS CERTAIN NOW

Shaw Tells Business Men of Lincoln that Victory is in Sight for Republicans.

SIZES UP THE SITUATION

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, Oct. 10.—(Special).—That Hughes will certainly be elected was the opinion of Leslie M. Shaw made this morning to a group of business men who called on him at the Terry hotel, before leaving for a continuation of his trip over the state.

Mr. Shaw has been traveling extensively over the country and has had a chance to size up the situation from all its angles and is not at all backward in giving his opinion of the result of the election.

Dodge county is looking good from a republican standpoint, according to those in touch with the situation here. Some democrats are willing to admit that the thing does not have nearly as rosy a hue for democratic victory as it showed two weeks ago, and this, coupled with the fact that the people

Senator Harding Speaks To Dempster Mill Men

Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 10.—(Special Telegram).—Senator Warren G. Harding of Ohio addressed the employees of the Dempster Mill Manufacturing company in front of the plant at noon today. Nearly 500 of the men, including others, heard the address.

Mr. Harding spoke on the tariff, the Adamson bill and Wilson's waiting policy in the Mexican trouble. He thought there should be a change in the administration and believed there would be after the votes were counted on election day.

He referred to the character of Charles E. Hughes, as a man and an official, and stated that his record as governor of New York was unequalled by any man who had held a similar position.

Hughes and Fairbanks Club at Dorchester

Dorchester, Neb., Oct. 10.—(Special).—A Hughes and Fairbanks club with a membership of 143, was organized here last night by M. B. Russell, of Seward. W. R. Stewart was elected president; Fred Steinhilber, vice president; J. H. Burgess, secretary-treasurer. Many members were enrolled who were not present, but had sent in their names to be placed on the roster of the club.

Jerry Wilhelm and Zach Dillon, two old survivors of the civil war, furnished martial music for the club and gave the meeting a real political start off. With its present membership, which will be increased by at least one hundred, this club promises to become one of the largest political organizations in the state for a town of the size of Dorchester. John L. Kennedy is strong here in the senatorial race.

have begun to study the situation and are comparing past records of the democratic party with what might be expected if it should be continued in power, is having the effect of bringing about a change in sentiment, which, according to local politicians who should know, will mean great changes before November rolls around.

Not Much Enthusiasm.

At Columbus, while Platte county is strongly democratic, the speech of Vice President Marshall yesterday, it is asserted, did not indicate that there was much enthusiasm for the ticket. The vice president did not appear to be able to convince his hearers that he was very sanguine on anything, and his repeated admissions that "I do not know," when discussing different phases of the democratic congressional work, it is said, indicated that he was about as much up in the air as a man could well be.

When discussing the proposition claimed by the democrats that the present congress was responsible, and not the war, for the high prices of grain and hogs, the vice president admitted that he did not know and could not tell the people really what was responsible.

Garage and Auto Burns.

Milford, Neb., Oct. 10.—(Special).—George Stotz, living two miles east of town, lost his automobile and garage by fire last night. He was carrying a lantern, and as he approached the machine the blaze from it ignited gasoline that had come in contact with the lantern in some mysterious way. Mr. Stotz and his son barely escaped. The loss amount to about $2,500.
