

PRESIDENT WILSON INVADES INDIANA

Journeys Into Middle West and is Down for a Couple of Speeches Today.

REVIEWS A BIG PARADE

On Board President Wilson's Special, Richmond, Ind., Oct. 12.—President Wilson passed through Ohio today on his way to Indianapolis on his second middle western trip of the campaign. Although the two speeches the president is due to make in Indianapolis are classified as non-partisan by his advisers, his visit to Ohio and Indiana today was considered a political event.

The president was greeted by crowds of cheering people at Dayton, O., and here. He refused to make political speeches, but at Dayton asserted it did his heart good to receive such welcomes.

Leaving over the observation platform of his private car at Dayton the president was almost mobbed by a good-natured crowd of several thousand people who sought to shake hands with him. Sometimes four or five people had hold of each of his hands at one time. In the usual shouts from the crowd the railway eight-hour law was must frequently mentioned.

The president made the trip on a private car attached to a regular train. With him were Mrs. Wilson, Secretary Tumulty and Dr. Gary T. Grayson, the White House physician.

Reception in Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 12.—Plans for the reception of President and Mrs. Wilson when they arrive in Indianapolis today have been made. They will be met by a reception committee named by Governor Ralston and composed of persons from various sections of the state.

From the train the president will be escorted to the soldiers' and sailors' monument, where he is to review an automobile parade, which will be part of Indiana's centennial celebration. Space in the reviewing stand has been reserved for the president, Mrs. Wilson and the governors of Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky, Tennessee and Michigan.

Estimates have placed the length of the combined parades at as high as sixty miles. The parades will proceed past the reviewing stand to the fair grounds, where the president is to speak at 3 o'clock. At 4:30 will address a meeting of farmers in the city on the rural credit bill.

WILSONITES SEEK FOR GERMAN VOTES

and emissary of President Wilson appeared in New York City to accomplish what Senator Stone had failed to do. This time the messenger appeared in the person of a cabinet minister, no less a personage than Albert Bursleson, postmaster general, who divides the honors with Senator Stone and Colonel House, in the intimate advisorship of the president.

Bursleson Begs for Hearing.

"Mr. Bursleson arranged through Mr. Viereck, the editor of the Fatherland, for a conference at the offices of the democratic national committee headquarters. He said to the credit of the gentlemen invited that they declined to have any dealings in the subterranean political diplomacy which was being engineered by the Wilson group. Mr. Viereck was the only one to welcome Mr. Bursleson. What occurred between Mr. Bursleson and Mr. Viereck may safely be left to the imagination until such time as either one of the gentlemen is willing to take the public into his confidence.

"So much for the campaign of Kellor, Stone, Bursleson and Wilson. What they have done in New York they have done in the west. They have been hypocritical to the limit, and we have been in the best position to observe their hypocrisy. I should like to be present at the next interview between Messrs. Haggood, Stone, Bursleson and Wilson. Perhaps I shall not be invited."

Omaha Man, Dying, Crawls Many Miles In Search of Aid

new house together at Fifty-first and Hillsdale avenue in Omaha when she heard of the incident.

She took the train for Crookston, Neb., thence she was taken across country forty-five miles to the home-stead. Blood poisoning had set in with her husband's wound, and yet she decided to move him to Omaha. She harnessed the very team of heavy horses that had dragged her husband about the meadows. In the lumber wagon she piled a few armfuls of new hay. She placed her husband upon this hay and on this improvised ambulance he rode the forty-five miles to Crookston.

Two days they were on the road. The big team pulled on the bit until Mrs. Beals were great blood blisters on her hands trying to hold them.

Mr. Beals is at the little home in Omaha now, still in a very critical condition. Several physicians are looking after the case.

Mrs. Beals is caring for him and at the same time trying to keep up the activity of building the little house, where the couple expect to winter. They are at present living in what is to be their barn when the little house is completed.

There are checks in the wall large enough to stick a hand through. The family has no money. Mr. Beals is a member of the Ancient Order of United Workmen lodge and his lodge brothers are said to be helping some. Meantime Mrs. Beals is looking the world in the face, and with her hammer and saw just as though the still stiles drawn over the backs of the great horses had not blistered her hands on that terrible two-day drive over the prairie.

PUSH CHURCH WORK REGARDLESS OF WAR

Episcopal Convention Hears
What is Being Done in Way of Spreading Gospel.

MOTHER CHURCH GREETED

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 12.—Greetings expressing the good will of the mother church for the Protestant Episcopal church of the United States were presented by representatives of the Church of England with impressive ceremonies at a joint meeting of the two houses of the convention of the American church in triennial session here today.

Right Rev. Huyshe Wolcott Yeatman-Biggs, bishop of Worcester, England, said that even with the shadow of war hanging over England, members of his church are intensely interested in the work of the American church. Similar expressions were made by Bishop H. H. Montgomery, secretary of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel of the Church of England; by Archbishop George Thornloe, Algoma, Ont., and Bishop David Williams, Huron, Ont., fraternal delegates from the Episcopal church of Canada.

Funds from Mite Boxes.

Funds, saved in mite boxes by thousands of American Episcopalians in the last three years, to be devoted to the support of women missionaries, were collected today at the united offerings service of the Woman's auxiliary, holding sessions simultaneously with those of the general convention. Following a communion service the money was presented at the altar in a golden alms basin. The amount obtained is to be announced at a mass meeting this afternoon, to be presided over by Right Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, St. Louis, presiding bishop of the church. The amount was awaited with much interest, it being generally predicted that the sum would exceed $25,000.

Stories of the work of the women in the mission fields will be told at the mass meeting by Right Rev. Paul Jones, bishop of Utah, and other prominent mission workers.

Meetings of the several committees appointed to investigate religious, social and economic problems and report to this year's convention were held today, preparatory to presenting their reports, which may be presented at any of the regular business sessions, which begin today and will continue for about three weeks.

Tonight the members of the house of bishops, the upper house of the convention, are to be the guests of Bishop Tuttle at a reception.

Proceedings of Yesterday.

Yesterday Right Rev. Thomas F. Gailor of Memphis, bishop of Tennessee, was elected chairman of the house of bishops. Bishop Gailor succeeds Bishop Boyd Vincent of Southern Ohio, who has served the prescribed six years. Rev. Samuel Hart of Middletown, Conn., was re-elected secretary and Rev. George T. Nelson of New York was chosen assistant secretary. Rev. Henry Armitage of New York was elected secretary of the house of deputies, the lower house of the convention, while Rev. C. M. Davis of St. Louis, Rev. W. C. Prout of Herkimer, N. Y., and Rev. James G. Flass of Anniston, Ala., were chosen assistants.

Following the organization of the two houses they met late today in the first joint session. Henry I. Kiel, mayor of St. Louis, welcomed them on behalf of the city. George M. W. Pepper of Philadelphia and Rev. Reginald H. Weller, bishop of Fond du Lac, replied for the convention. It was announced that tomorrow the two houses will take up the regular business of the convention.

War in Europe.

Delivering the president's address, Dr. Mann spoke of "the shadow cast upon the church by the war between Christian nations," and pointed out that "nothing we may do or say here can bring peace to those war-torn people of Europe."

In the house of bishops, meeting behind closed doors, resolutions of sympathy for the families of bishops who have died during the year, and for Rev. Frank R. Millagough, bishop of Kansas, who is confined to his home with illness, were adopted.

A resolution, drafted today by Robert H. Gardiner of Gardiner, Me., to be presented to the general convention, would lift the bar against women sitting as delegates on the floor of the convention, provided they are chosen by the dioceses or missionary districts.

Four Alleged Members of "Blackmail" Ring Give Bail

Chicago, Oct. 11.—Four of the six persons held here as members of a so-called blackmail syndicate, waived examinations before a United States court commissioner today and gave bonds to appear for trial. They were Mrs. Helen Evers, Edward Donahue, Henry Russell and T. French.

New Hughes Clubs

Dewitt, Neb., Oct. 12.—A Hughes and Fairbanks club was launched here yesterday by M. B. Russell of Heward. The following officers were named: C. A. Towler, president; J. W. Prentiss, secretary-treasurer. A vigorous campaign will be made for an increased membership.

Tobias, Neb., Oct. 12.—The first political movement started in this section so far this campaign was made today when a Hughes and Fairbanks club was organized and officers named. T. E. Hoehner is president; P. O. Kucera, secretary-treasurer. The club was organized by M. B. Russell of Heward.

ON YOUR FEET ALL DAY? TRY THIS HOME EASER

Thousands of people who are on their feet all day suffer terrible tortures because their feet ache, burn, chafe and grow tender. This is the way a saleswoman in a big department store has solved the problem of keeping her feet always in good condition. She buys a 25-cent package of Wa-Nu-Ta and is the winner on arriving home. It removes all shoes and stockings and for a few delightful minutes allows them to soak in a pan of warm water in which two or three Wa-Nu-Ta tablets have been dissolved. Then she puts on fresh hosiery and shoes and her feet are comfortable. All the burning, throbbing, aching sensations are gone out of her feet. If you are troubled with tired, aching, burning, chafing, and itching feet, get Wa-Nu-Ta at all drug stores for 25 cents, or we will mail you a sample package free to your address if you will send 10 cents to cover cost of packing and shipping. Tabloids of Politics

Little Items About the Progress of the Campaign.

The republican county headquarters in the Brandeis Theater building is assuming a busy aspect, with workers coming and going, calls for information and literature and other matters of the campaign. Secretary Kiddoo states he has a supply of Hughes' lithographs which may be had by those interested. The central committee is anxious that citizens generally take an interest in Mr. Hughes' visit here next Monday.

A. A. Rodway, advance representative of Charles E. Hughes, makes this statement: "It is significant the interest the farmers are taking in Mr. Hughes. All along the way Mr. Hughes has impressed the farmers with the soundness of his logic on the tariff, the Adamson bill and other issues of the campaign. There is no question that he will receive the support of a large majority of the agriculturalists."

W. H. Reynolds of Chadron, republican candidate for state treasurer, states that during his travels over the state he is impressed with the strength of the state ticket. He feels confident Hughes and the whole state ticket will be endorsed by the voters next month.

A meeting of the republican county committee and precinct workers will be held Saturday afternoon in court room No. 1 of the county court house.

COLLEGE PRESIDENTS CALLED IN TO CONFER

Heads of Institutions Asked by Army Department to Figure for Training of Officers.

SUGGEST MILITARY COURSE

Washington, Oct. 12.—Presidents of nineteen colleges and universities have been called in conference by the War department, preparatory to establishment of systematic methods of training reserve officers for the United States army in those institutions. They will meet at the Army War college here Tuesday, October 17, for discussion with the army general staff of military courses to be organized in institutions desiring to take advantage of provisions of the army reorganization law.

It has been estimated that the army must maintain a corps of 50,000 partially trained junior officers to facilitate organization of an adequate military force should the nation have war with a power capable of attempting invasion. The main source of supply for these officers would be institutions with military courses where military training under army officers is part of a student's work.

Those Who Attend.

National Guard organizations composed entirely of college students have been mustered out of federal service, so those men may compose the first increment of reserve officers to be drawn under the new plan. Officials expected to attend the conference include:

Dr. J. E. Raycroft, Princeton; A. Lawrence, Lowell, Harvard; Arthur T. Hadley, Yale; John H. Finley, University State of New York; H. B. Hutchins, University of Michigan; George H. Denny, University of Alabama; E. W. Nichols, Virginia Military Institute; Benjamin Ide Wheeler, University of California; J. G. Schurman, Cornell; Edmund J. James, University of Illinois; J. H. Kirkland, Vanderbilt university; A. C. Humphreys, Stevens Institute of Technology; H. A. Garfield, Williams college; Rev. Edward A. Pace, Catholic University of America; Henry S. Drinker, Lehigh university; W. O. Thompson, Ohio State university; Brown Ayres, University of Tennessee; W. M. Riggs, Clemson Agricultural college, South Carolina; George E. Vincent, University of Minnesota.

Dr. Grenville Clark, J. Lloyd Derby and De Lancey K. Jay, officials of the Military Training Camps' Association of the United States, also will attend.

War Summary

General Cadorna's reported success in the breaking the Austrian line at several points southeast of Gorizia, in the sudden removal of the Italian drive toward Trieste is declared by entire correspondents as the front to have been effected in the face of strengthened Austrian lines, to which fresh troops recently were sent. Vienna, in its latest statement, claims that the Italians have been driven out of many trenches they had penetrated and that fighting is being continued for possession of others. The Austrians took 1,000 men of the attacking forces. Rome has reported the capture of more than 5,000 prisoners in the course of the advance. Latest reports on the situation in Greece are that the Greek authorities have yielded to the extent demands for the turning over virtually the entire Greek navy and the dismantling or surrender of forts on the sea coast. Control by the extent of all material for naval operations and of railroad, mail and telegraph services so as to render impossible the use to the detriment of the extent forces is reported to have been included in the demands.

NO WEDDING BELLS FOR THE DIVORCED

Episcopalian Commission Puts Ban Upon Those Who Would Wed After Separation.

REASON FOR THE ACTION

St. Louis, Oct. 12.—A church law forbidding clergymen to solemnize a marriage for a person divorced for any cause arising after the marriage, while the divorced partner lives, was recommended in the report of the joint commission on legislation on matters relating to holy matrimony, submitted today to the triennial convention of the Protestant Episcopal church.

The commission recommended, however, that where it is claimed a divorce has been granted for causes arising before marriage, and satisfactory evidence, including a copy of the court's decree and record, is presented, the bishop of the diocese shall have the power to declare that such a decree, "being in fact a decree of annulment," is no bar to the marriage of either party.

Definition of Marriage.

The present canon of the church permits a minister to perform the ceremony in the case of the marriage of the innocent party to a divorce granted on statutory grounds, providing the clergyman has received the consent of his bishop.

The report defined marriage, "according to God's design," as "the life-long union of one man with one woman to the exclusion of all others on either side."

In its report the commission pointed out that the whole subject of marriage, "with its responsibilities and obligations, should be made a matter for careful instruction by the clergy much more frequently than is now common." It asserted that "the teaching of true marriage is one of the best defenses against divorce and other evils which now afflict and threaten the nation."

As to Instruction.

"In such instruction the distinction must be made clear between marriages which are allowed by the civil law, representing all that can be imposed upon people of varying or no religious beliefs and marriages which can be sanctioned and blessed by the church as comfortable to God's will and teaching of Our Lord, Jesus Christ."

"At the same time care must be taken to insist on the fact that true marriage is not a peculiar institution of the Christian church. The teaching of our Lord recalls men and women to God's design, and His grace will enable them to rise up thereto, but marriage contracted without Christian rites must be regarded as sacred and the contracting parties led to recognize the dignity and obligations of the estate into which they have entered."

Power of Discretion.

The commission recommended also the refusal of the church to bless and solemnize a marriage need not be followed by a permanent exclusion from the sacraments, saying on this point: "Consideration must be had of the good faith in which a marriage may have been entered upon, in ignorance of the church's law and while not subject to the church's discipline, and of the practical impossibility in many cases without greater wrong, of the breaking up of a family. In some such cases there must be a power of discretion, very carefully exercised, to admit or readmit persons to the sacraments."

The findings of the commission, which must be ratified by two houses of the convention, bishops and deputies, was presented by Joseph B. Chesbire of Raleigh, bishop of North Carolina, chairman of the joint commission.

Dysentery in Alabama.

"My little 4-year-old boy had a severe attack of dysentery. We gave him Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and believe it saved his life," says Wm. H. Stribling, Carbon Hill, Ala. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

Washing Won't Rid Head Of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and here or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and tingling of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.—Advertisement.

Are you obliged constantly to guard your health against the consequences of working indoors all day without sufficient exercise?

Perhaps you have contracted the habit of taking a laxative pill every now and then as a means of keeping free from constipation. But this constant drugging of the system with habit-forming bowel stimulants is dangerous, as any physician will tell you.

The use of Nujol as an internal lubricant is a far more satisfactory answer to the office worker's health problem because it relieves constipation without upsetting the system or forming a habit.
