

GRAND ARMY MEN TO HEAR HUGHES TALK

Only Reserved Section in the Auditorium to Be Set Aside for Civil War Veterans.

SPEAKS IN OMAHA MONDAY

The only reserved section of the Auditorium next Monday evening for the Charles E. Hughes meeting will be for the Grand Army of the Republic, whose members will turn out en masse.

"The old soldiers intend to give Mr. Hughes a rousing welcome to Omaha and we are pleased that the committee has set aside a section for us. The veterans are for Mr. Hughes and will give him a fine demonstration next Monday evening," stated Captain C. E. Adams, who is assisting with this feature of the program for Hughes day in Omaha.

Before the Auditorium meeting is called to order a quartet of old soldiers comprising W. H. Russell, D. M. Haverly, J. H. Staley and E. W. Johnson will sing a repertoire of patriotic songs.

Diets in Charge of Parade.
Gould Dietz has been placed in charge of the parade, which will move from the Union depot to Hotel Fontenelle shortly after the arrival of the Hughes special train at 5:45 p. m. Monday. At the hotel Mr. and Mrs. Hughes will review the parade.

Mrs. C. M. Wilhelm is selecting a committee of women who will sit upon the Auditorium stage and will look after the comforts of the women in the Hughes party. A large committee of representative men of Nebraska and western Iowa is being prepared and will be announced in a day or so.

There are thirty-eight in the visiting party and information has been received that additional newspaper correspondents will join the party at Falls City on Saturday morning and will follow the Nebraska and South Dakota itineraries.

Among the Omaha men who will be with the Hughes party on the Nebraska itinerary will be A. W. Jeffers, Victor Rosewater and National Committeeman Howell.

Considerable interest is being manifested throughout the country over this third western tour of Mr. Hughes. Big preparations are being made at Falls City, Fairbury, Beatrice, York, Columbus, Grand Island, Hastings and Fremont and intermediate points along the way. In some instances school children will be assembled to meet the presidential candidate.

Pioneer Woman, Born in Wagon, is Able to Be Out

Anna Kansas Bowman, "born in a wagon," is able to be out again after her injury which she suffered last spring. She attended the meeting of the Douglas County association of Nebraska Pioneers Thursday afternoon for the first time in many weeks, this being her first venture down town. She is living with Marianne Snowden, 622 South Twenty-fourth street.

Miss Bowman was born in a wagon while her parents were on their way in a prairie schooner en route to Nebraska.

RETAIL BUSINESS SHOWS BIG GROWTH

NEW OFFICERS INSTALLED

Omaha retail business was one-third greater in September than during September a year ago, according to a report made at the meeting of the Associated Retailers of Omaha at the Commercial club rooms. This came out in the report of the The retail stores cashed ninety-five checks which were returned either as forgeries or on account of insufficient funds.

The new officers of the association were installed at this meeting. J. P. Palmer addressed the meeting upon the value of the Provident Loan association to the retail interests. The association endorsed the work of the Provident Loan association.

C. B. Brown, W. S. Stryker, C. C. Belden and Charles E. Black spoke on credit bureau of the association.

There were 2,176 new accounts during the last September, while in September a year ago, there were only 1,607 new accounts opened. This shows 569 more during last September than September, 1915.

The association got 851 more calls for information in September than in the corresponding month a year ago the value of the Associated Retailers to the retail business interests of Omaha. Charles Sykes, representing the Young Men's Christian Association, spoke on salesmanship classes of the Young Men's Christian association.
