

Council Bluffs Social Notes

Mr. William Waite, brother of Mrs. Henry Cutler, former Council Bluffs man, is spending a short time in this city, transacting business and visiting friends and relatives. Mr. Waite lives on a large ranch in Montana, 100 miles from Miles City, and has extensive business interests in that state.

Mrs. Edward Canning, formerly of this city, now of Canada, is the guest of Mrs. J. B. Atkins for a few days.

Mrs. Thomas Metcalf, sr., is in Chicago spending a few weeks as the guest of her son, Dr. Frank Metcalf.

Mrs. Charles M. Hart, left Saturday for Little Rock, Ark., where she will join Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Gregory as their guest on a special train, "Arkansas on Wheels," which will make an extensive tour advertising the resources of that state. The train will carry five display cars, besides diner, eight Pullman's and Mr. Gregory's private car. They will make stops at Memphis, Birmingham, Atlanta, Charlotte, Richmond, Washington, Pittsburgh, Columbus, Indianapolis and St. Louis, and then back to Little Rock. Mr. Gregory is a former Council Bluffs man, son of the late Millard F. Gregory. From Little Rock Mrs. Hart plans to go to Hot Springs, Ark., for a month's stay and then to Miami, Fla., to spend the winter.

Mr. Albert Beck left Tuesday for New York, where he will continue his study of music.

Mr. W. F. Maloney left Tuesday for Little Rock, Ark.

Mrs. Charles Test Stewart plans to go east about the middle of the month of November with her daughter, Mrs. Donald McFerrer, and Mr. McFerrer of Hoopston, Ill. They plan to go in the McFerrer car and attend the big foot ball games during their trip.

Miss Winifred Peterson of Pocatello, Idaho, who has been the guest of Mrs. Chris Borwick for the last week, left for a short visit with relatives at Bennett, Neb.

The Picnic Dinner club was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. George G. Clark on Wednesday evening at their home on Glen avenue. The club has sixteen members. Dinner was followed by an informal game of "500."

Mrs. J. G. Hollenbeck entertained the members of the University club at her home Wednesday afternoon. On account of conflicting engagements the attendance was small and it was decided to defer the beginning of the study program until Wednesday of next week. The club will meet at that time at the home of Mrs. H. G. Redfern, 240 North First street.

The initial meeting of the Home Economics department of the Council Bluffs Woman's club was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. L. Noy. Mrs. J. J. Sullivan, the leader, tendered her resignation on account of ill health and it was reluctantly accepted by the department. Mrs. Henry Duell, the associate leader, was unanimously elected the leader and empowered to choose her own assistant. Mrs. Stymest Stevens gave a most interesting talk on the obligation of the members to the general organization and to the community in which the members live. She spoke of the desirability of devoting one day in the club year to the study of the work of the general federation and the altruistic work being done by woman's clubs in the state. Mrs. Will Rich gave a demonstration of an eggless, milkless, butterless cake, which proved delicious and of great interest to all the women present. Two committees were appointed to call on members of the department when ill. The committees are Mrs. Paul Kodweiss and Mrs. William Koehler and Mrs. H. W. Anthony and Mrs. L. C. Besley. Dainty refreshments were served late in the afternoon, assistant hostesses being Mrs. W. E. Millsbaugh, Mrs. Rich and Mrs. K. S. Palmer. Thirty members and two guests were present.

Miss Maude Graham Bell presented two of her pupils, the Misses Gertrude and Maude Hinkel, in a piano recital Friday evening at her study. The program was a most delightful one and greatly enjoyed by those present.

Mrs. T. G. Turner donated the prize for the nine-hole match played Wednesday morning at the Boat club for which Mrs. William Coppock and Mrs. John Davis tied with the low net score of fifty. The prize for putts was won by Miss Besley with a score of fifteen. There will be the usual play next Wednesday morning, at 10:30 o'clock, followed by a picnic luncheon.

Mrs. J. J. Taylor, assisted by her daughter, Crystal, and Miss Neoma Hansen, entertained a dozen little girl friends in honor of the seventeenth birthday of Grandma Goshen, who has been an invalid for twenty-one years. Kodak pictures were taken of the party and games and victrola music was enjoyed after which the hostesses served light refreshments.

Mrs. W. W. Spaulding had a guests Tuesday afternoon to enjoy progressive high five the G. G. M. club. Mrs. Tuller was a guest. Mrs. L. J. Antoine was awarded the first prize, Mrs. C. Colburn the second. Mrs. Roy Schellinger the consolation and Mrs. Judd Lowrey the "cut-for-all." A three-course luncheon was served. Mrs. William Werner will be hostess next Tuesday afternoon.

Pupils of Miss Margaret Fisher's room at the Eighth Street school enjoyed a picnic Saturday, the reward for perfect attendance during the month. The picnic was held on Morningside hill and was attended by forty-five children. The day was an ideal one for an outing, which was hugely enjoyed by each child. Guests were Mrs. G. W. E. Sauer, president of the Eight Street Mother's club, Mrs. J. Fisher, Mrs. A. H. Warner, Miss Elnora Shea and Miss Fisher.

The art department of the Council Bluffs Woman's club met Monday evening at the library, Miss Pile acting as leader. The initial meeting was of much interest. Mrs. Belle Sanford, in giving the history of art in England, previous to the eighteenth century, spoke briefly of the traces of decorative art previous to the Roman occupation, and described the different stages of art. Mrs. G. E. Walker gave a general idea of the development of the classic movement in English art. Mrs. A. B. Sipher referred to the romantic movement in painting as an expression of poetic feeling and imagination. Miss Pile gave a most interesting talk on the effort of the Italian painters to give secular effect to pictures. The next meeting of the department will be held October 30.

members of the Happy Thought "500" club at her home Tuesday afternoon. At cards Mrs. Frank Cassell won first prize and Mrs. C. L. Whitney second and Mrs. A. L. Jones the "cut-for-all." Club guests were Mrs. J. B. Russell, Mrs. Fred Clausen and Mrs. A. Wright. The club will be entertained October 24 at the home of Mrs. J. T. Beach, 19 South First street.

Miss Virginia Stubbs, who entered Drake university at Des Moines this fall, is pledged to the Iota Alpha Omega sorority. Miss Stubbs was graduated from the Council Bluffs High school two years ago. The sorority rushing season at Drake came to an end Sunday with a series of informal afternoon teas at the home of sorority mothers.

The Ideal club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. S. Terwilliger. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Thomas Metcalf, Mrs. Bonham presided. The program opened with a discussion of current events, led by Mrs. G. F. Spooner. The club continued the study of Russia. Mrs. Robert Moth told of the characteristics of the Russian people and Mrs. Lewis Cutler had as her topic, "The Land and the People." Mrs. George Damon told interestingly of the Russian peasantry. The club will meet with Mrs. Terwilliger again next Tuesday.

The regular meeting of the Garden club was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. P. Schoentgen, who was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Drayton Bushnell. Mrs. Louis Squire read a paper on "Wild Flowers of Autumn." Mrs. Henry Cutler read an account brought by Mrs. Bushnell of the amateur flower show recently held in Kansas City and attended by Mrs. Bushnell. The next meeting of the club will be held October 31. Mrs. Louie Squire will be hostess and will be assisted by Mrs. Cutler.

Every Cent Taken In at Concert Is To Go for Charity

Will you part with a lonesome dime to aid in helping 3,316 families? Or will you let go of the 10-cent piece if you get a dollar's worth of good music for it?

The Omaha Letter Carriers' band, whose musical abilities have established for them a favorable reputation, will give a concert Sunday afternoon in the Omaha Auditorium. The musicians are giving their time and their services free. The owners of the building are contributing without a penny of remuneration the use of the Auditorium.

The concert, twelve numbers, will start at 3 o'clock. Then cents will be the admission charge and the proceeds will go to the Associated Charities, who cared for more than 3,300 needy families last year.

Bishop Hartry Sails Soon To Take Up Duties Here

Manila, Oct. 13.—The most Reverend Jeremiah J. Hartry, archbishop of the Philippines, will leave November 1 for the United States to become bishop of Omaha. He has terminated thirteen years of service as the first American archbishop of the islands. There is, so far, no intimation as to his successor, but there is an extensive movement among native churchmen to secure the appointment of a Filipino.
