LATENSER READY WITH CLUB PLANS

Architect of Athletic Building Will Submit Sketches to Directors.

MAKES SEVERAL TRIPS

Architect John Latenser for the Athletic club's new building will submit to the directors two plans for the building in the near future, he said last night.

These two plans or sketches will include merely a difference in arrangement of floors and rooms. The board has decided, Mr. Latenser said, that there shall be stores on the main floor of the building, so both plans will include these features. Also, both plans will include a main entrance on the ground floor. The stores will occupy only a portion of the building.

Sketches and drawings are now being worked on in Mr. Latenser's office.

John Latenser, Jr., has been to Milwaukee and Chicago to inspect the two club buildings there. John Latenser, Jr., will go to Minneapolis, starting probably tonight. Frank Latenser, another son, has been to the St. Louis Athletic club to get ideas on the Omaha building.

The club membership is now over 1,100 and the membership sifting committee is now going over the lists. This committee's next meeting will be Tuesday.

"Liberty Girls" at Gayety Put Pep Into Real Lively Show

A rollicking chorus and several really funny comedians combine to make "The Liberty Girls," now at the Gayety, a real show. "The principal comedians are "Tim Riley," "Herman Snitz" and "Tony Gabetto." "Tim Riley" is depicted by Jack Conway, who is also the author of the book, and Arthur Mayer does "Herman Snitz" in excellent style.

A novelty that proved popular is the representation of fourteen fraternal orders by girls of the chorus, entering down stage one by one, reciting a cute little piece to the audience and then giving places all in a row.

A fat lady sitting in a box, overcome with mirth at the appearance of Jack Conway as the king in the burlesque opera, "King in the Bathub," laughed so boisterously as to break up that part of the show. When the orchestra leader called her down she "bawled him out something fierce," and the owner of the show finally came from the back part of the house and settled the trouble. Mebbly this is part of the show, huh?

There is an interesting bit of vaudeville between the first and second parts of the show. The second part, Melrose Inn, as the first act. The show is lively and full of laughs from start to finish.

Bryan of Memphis Talks Against the Dry Amendment

Charles M. Bryan of Memphis, Tenn., spoke against the prohibition amendment before an enthusiastic audience in the Boyd theater. Mr. Bryan, who was city attorney of Memphis for two years and said lack of licensed liquor establishments had made his state and city a victim of poverty and retrogression.

"When my home state was wet, we were paying off our bonded indebtedness at the rate of $500,000 a year. Since it has been dry, we have not paid off one dime. Moreover, it takes all the influence that Senator Luke Lea has with Secretary McAdoo to induce the guardian of the national treasury to go down in Wall street and beg the bankers there to loan money to the state of Tennessee. And even when we get it, we have to pay 7 per cent."

L. F. Crofoot, president of the Nebraska Prosperity league, gave a short talk, telling the conditions in prohibition Maine.

"Why, only recently, the chief of police of Bangor, Me., ordered the 112 saloons in that city to close. And the mayor countermanded the order."

Young Jewish Folks Commemorate Succoth

Succoth, the feast of tabernacles, will be celebrated by the Young Jewish folk of the city by an entertainment to be given Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock at Beth Hamedrosh Hagadol synagogue, Nineteenth and Burt. The Young Judea club, Flowers of Zion and Young Knights of Zion will participate in the program.

Mexican Band Comes as Compliment to Americans

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 14.—A Mexican band of eighty-two pieces arrived here from Mexico City today to play for the international soil products exposition, which opened here today. The band was sent by order of General Alvero Obregon, minister of war, as a compliment to the American people.

HAPPENINGS IN THE MAGIC CITY

Body of Baby Is Found Concealed in a Light Box by Boys While at Play.

A mystery that is baffling the police is the discovery of the decayed body of a little babe, enclosed in a light box, which was accidentally uncovered by two boys, John and Frank Misirvic, 12 and 21 years, yesterday afternoon. The boys, who live at Fifteenth and O streets, were romping in the vicinity of the pumping station on the Missouri river bottoms, at O street, east of the Burlington railroad tracks, when they came across the box partly buried in the earth.

Evening School Opens

South High evening school will open tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock. Classes in the high school and elementary departments will start, the students numbering approximately 300. Principal Edward Huwaldt will be in charge of both schools.

Registration Friday was well above the 250 mark, with students still coming in. The enrollment contains many elders who have been compelled to remain out of school by home necessity. Others are young men and women who have recently emigrated to this country and who have shown a desire for learning.

Twenty-two teachers will first take charge of the work, twelve in the high school and ten in the elementary department. The class study work will deal largely with subjects concerning the national government, English and mathematics. The domestic science and manual training classes were filled soon after the first announcement that the school would be stationed here.

Republican Meetings

The week formally opens the republican campaign on the South Side. Henry Murphy and Judge Reed are actively canvassing the South Side in preparation for the speaking tour that will make of the city. President Martin of the South Side Republican club has not announced the first meeting of the club, but will do so soon. President Beal of the Hughes and Fairbanks club plans to call a meeting the early part of the week.

The Hughes meeting will be largely attended by South Siders. Although republican leaders have done practically no work out in the city, the

AK-SAR-BEN LIGHT MADE METER SPIN

City Electrician Curran Figures That Illumination Cost $125 a Night.

SOME OF THE DETAILS

It cost just $125 per eight-hour night to illuminate the downtown district of Omaha during the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities.

City Electrician Curran has just completed his record relative to the installation of the strings of incandescents which illuminated Omaha for several weeks, and it reveals some interesting facts.

To rope off the streets 100,000 feet of rope was used.

To install the lights 100,000 feet of copper wire was required, 7,000 pounds of iron wire, 2,500 insulators, 12,000 sockets, 100 pulleys, 1,500 cross-irons, 600 pounds or three miles of tape, 2,000 feet of lead cable, 12,000 lamps and 1,500 circuit breakers.

The work of lighting up Omaha was carried on by George Keeler of the electric light company and a force of about fifty men, who worked under the supervision of the city electrician.

"The figure I gave regarding the nightly cost of operation and maintenance is an approximate one," said Mr. Curran.

Stahls Entertain Omahans.

Mr. and Mrs. Florence Stahl of Elkhorn entertained a number of friends at their home at a house party this week. Those from Omaha who were present were Mrs. A. S. Risley, Mrs. G. A. Pearson, Mrs. F. S. Prince, Mrs. Frank Masick, Mrs. Warner Fisk and Mrs. John H. Burns. The women enjoyed themselves during the afternoon automobiling in the countryside.

St. Martin's Auxiliary will hold a rummage sale Thursday at Twenty-fourth and I streets.

The King's Daughters of the Wheeler Memorial church met Friday afternoon at the church at Twenty-third and J streets. The Ladies Aid society of the Clifton Hill Presbyterian church will hold a rummage sale at Twenty-fourth and Q streets Tuesday.

The wardens of the Kansas state penitentiary spoke at the corner of Twenty-fourth and M streets yesterday in the interests of prohibition.

Grace Methodist Episcopal church will give a reception to Dr. C. C. Wilson and family Thursday evening, October 13, in the church auditorium at Twenty-fifth and E streets.

A high five and bridge card party will be given Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Century club rooms at Twenty-sixth and F streets. Several nice prizes will be given at the door.
