Chauffeur Held By Omaha Police Says Girl is Wife

M. W. Baker, a chauffeur, and a girl, whom he claims to be his wife, but whom the police know as Florence Greek, were arrested by Officer George Emery. Baker faces the charge of violating the Mann white slave act. The specific allegation which the police make is that he brought the girl from Cheyenne, Wyo., to Omaha for immoral purposes.

I am a republican. That is why I am a republican. Men shouted, clapped their hands, threw their caps and hats in the air at noon as W. J. L. Crank of Denver made this statement before a noonday audience of 600 men near the Armour packing plant in the South Side.

"This country will be pitiably helpless after the war," said the speaker, "unless that abommable Underwood tariff is repealed. Where will your good jobs he when the products of Europe flood our markets."

Mirise, secretary; Mrs. B. I. Ryan, treasurer, and Miss Carrie Louver, superintendent of Wise Memorial hospital, director.

Discussions on professional subjects occupied the morning meeting at the Nurses' club on Harney street, followed by practical nursing demonstrations at the Methodist hospital.

A lecture on "Mental Diseases" by University of Nebraska Medical school this evening closes the convention.

W. R. McKeen Afraid To Leave His Home

Governor Charles E. Hughes Monday evening.

You understand, the resemblance which I bear to the distinguished American is so striking and has caused me so many embarrasing situations that I did not deem it wise to go to the Auditorium nor appear away front my home during the visit of Mr. Hughes here. I was sorely disappointed, because I did want to hear him speak," said Mr. McKeen.
