the right combination with Captain Racely, Johns, Picotte and Mincer in the backfield, Erwin and Williams at the ends, Ebersole and Gustafson at the tackles, Allen and Daugherty at the guards and Kinnier at center.

But to be on the safe side, the suburban mentor has been drilling another backfield composed of Dunlap and Stewart at the halves, Shainholtz at full and Evans at quarter. This set of backs has been working out with the regular varsity line for half the time at practice every evening, and they are now ready to take their places in the lineup. It is still an open question whether Benjamin will start the sub backfield and save the varsity backs for the second half, or whether he will start the regular backfield and use the others only when he needs them.
