Did Not Like Stove—B. F. Spencer. 523 North Nineteenth street, objected to the gas range furnished him by his landlady, Mrs. J. Rubenstein, and, according to Mrs. Rubenstein, attacked her. He is being held for a hearing in police court Friday. Spared for His Bravery—Fred Casyer, Twenty-seventh and Decatur streets, was the only violator of the traffic regulations to be arraigned in police court. Owing to the fact that he braved the snowstorm to receive the mandate of the court, his honor discharged him. Boys' Club Meets—The St. Andrew's Boys' club met at the home of William Stevenson, 4230 Erskine street. A pleasant time was had by all concerned. The next meeting will be held at the home of Arthur Morgan, 123 North Thirty-fifth street, Wednesday evening, October 25. Volunteers for Municipal Judge. Get Cash and Jewelry—Burglars gained entrance to the home of Mrs. Ray Blockney, 1921 Cass street, and made way with $8 in cash and a large quantity of jewelry. In a drawer that was left open and which the burglars evidently didn't search thoroughly, was a purse containing $52. Almost Lands Large Roll—James Jackson, Sioux City, met a siren on Dodge street who, while whispering soft words in his left ear, was taking $300 from his right pocket. Jackson felt himself growing lighter and discovered the fleeting green, and collar-wearing Helen King, who is now awaiting trial on the charge of grand larceny. Hughes' Buttons—Hughes' campaign buttons may be obtained at the Douglas county republican headquarters, 477 Grand street. It is asserted that there would be a big demand for the lapel photos of Mr. Hughes, the republican officials ordered a double supply. Guy Kiddoo announces that there are buttons for all who want them. Trip to Sweden—"A Trip to Sweden" is the title of a serial motion picture entertainment which will be offered in the Swedish auditorium on Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings. Walter Lundquist is the local promoter. It is asserted that these pictures were prepared under the direction of the Swedish government and formed one of the big attractions at the Swedish building Panama-Pacific exposition, San Francisco. The pictures are a review of Swedish life, scenery and customs. Fine Fireplace Goods—Sunderland.

Far West Not Helped By European War

Portland and the Pacific coast cities, except, possibly, San Francisco, have not been benefited by the war conditions," says C. F. Harrison, who has just returned from the coast country. "The lumber interests of the coast were hurt prior to the war by low prices, and since the war by lack of facilities to market the product. Within the last thirty or sixty days contracts have been let for the building of forty-six ships, seven of them of steel and iron, these to cost $1,000,000 each. The steel ones, strange to say, are not being built for the American trade, but for the Norwegian. "While in Portland I had a talk with Alfred Millard, formerly a banker of Omaha and now one of the apple kings of the Hood river valley. He and his family still have large interests in Omaha, and was, of course, pleased to learn that Omaha is doing well. Mr. Harrison went to Portland as a member of the executive committee of the International Realty Associates, to inspect a proposed investment for that company.

Omaha's Wilson Men May Go to Gotham

A delegation of Omaha business men may go to New York City for the big luncheon of the Wilson Business Men's National league, winding up the campaign November 2. W. F. Baxter is the secretary-treasurer of the Nebraska contingent of this national organization. He has received a telegram inviting the members to New York for this affair. Secretary Houston is to speak at the luncheon, and in the evening President Wilson is to speak at Madison Square Garden, as a climax of the campaign. There are 150 members of the league in Nebraska. John E. Miller of Lincoln is president, T. C. Byrne of Omaha first vice president, S. M. Walbach of Grand Island second vice president and W. F. Baxter of Omaha secretary-treasurer.

Insane Man Breaks Screen and Flees

E. W. Waggoner, aged 57 years, an insane patient, escaped from the county hospital yesterday. He was to have been taken to the state asylum at Norfolk today, but a half hour before the time set for departure from the hospital he escaped by breaking through a screen porch fronting the ward in which he was confined. Officials are searching for him. He is five feet ten inches tall, weighs 160 pounds and is dark complexioned. He wore a black cap and light shirt and overalls.

Here's a Man Who Predicts Wilson Will Carry Indiana

On Board President Wilson's Special Train, Goshen, Ind., Oct. 19—President Wilson was up early today to greet crowds at Kendallville, Ligonier and Goshen, Ind. He refused to make speeches, but told the people how glad he was to shake hands with them. "I want to shake hands with a real man," said a farmer at Ligonier. The president laughed. A democratic committee boarded the train at Ligonier and assured the president that he would carry Indiana.

Clerk Finds Referendum Petition is Sufficient

City Clerk O'Connor will certify to the city council that the referendum petition in connection with the five-year electric street lighting contract has 4,674 signatures, which is considerably more than necessary under the law. The next step will be for the council to call an election, of which a thirty-day notice must be published.

OMAHA'S OLD HOME WEEK IN NEW YORK

Denizens of World's Biggest City Learn a Few Things from Westerners.

THEY IMPORT OUR ARTISTS

By A. R. GROH.

These stories were told me by the society editor and they're dandies. They show how men and women of Omaha and Nebraska are distinguishing themselves in the world. The greatest living sculptor, a native of Omaha, was here last week visiting his sister. The greatest American orator is a Nebraskan. Our Haywards and Estabrooks go to New York and get to the top of things right away. And the sporting editor says not to forget that Nebraska is the home of the greatest base ball pitcher and the greatest wrestler. But to our stories. The first is about the society editor herself. She was in New York City visiting a friend a while ago and the "country mouse" took the "country mouse" around to see the wonderful sights. To the Metropolitan museum they went where, in a most commanding position, stands the colossal sculpture, "Mares of Diomedes." Before this great work the "city mouse" stopped and bade the "country mouse" worship and wonder. "Oh, yes, this was done by two Omaha men, Gutzon and Solon Borglum," quoth the Omaha girl.

Oh, No. 2

Pretty good, eh? But wait! There's a better one coming. The following was related by a leading Omaha society woman.

Mrs. K— went to visit a friend in New York, a woman very proud of her big city. So she took the woman from the wild and woolly west to see the sights.

"We will go to luncheon to hear May Naudain, who is New York's latest and greatest musical comedy star. You may get to meet her and even speak a few words with her," she said.

"Oh, dear," cried Mrs. K—. "I know May. She's an Omaha girl. I'll introduce you to her." (Stock quotation: New York, 95; Omaha, 5.)

After the luncheon the New York woman took her friend to the Hippodrome.

As the limousine rolled along she explained to Mrs. K— the greatness of this amusement palace.

Gotham Bows Low. "Yes, indeed, it's a wonderful theater," said Mrs. K—. "You know it was built by Nebraska men, Mr. Thompson and Skip Dundy of Omaha."

Then they went to the Ritz to a "the dansant." Maurice was the terpsichorean artist and after he had danced with his partner he came and asked a petite, fashionably dressed girl with hair worn bobbed effect, a la Mrs. Castle, to dance with him.

"Oh, what a cute little girl!" exclaimed Mrs. New York.

"Yes, isn't she?" said Mrs. K—. "She's E. W.— of Omaha." (Stock quotation: New York, 59 1/4; Omaha, 40 1/4.)

By this time the New York hostess was considerably chastened in spirit, so to speak. Every wonder that she exhibited was from Omaha. But she didn't quite despair.

A Minister's Daughter. "We will go to a concert and hear a great singer who has taken the city by storm," she said. When the singer appeared on the stage:

"Why, that is Grace Laird," cried Mrs. K—. "No, you're wrong this time," said

Splendid for Bad Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis. An Inexpensive Home-Made Remedy—Gives Surest, Quickest Relief.

Anyone who tries this pleasant tasting home-made cough syrup, will quickly understand why it is used in more homes in the United States and Canada than any other cough remedy. The way it takes hold of an obstinate cough, giving immediate relief, will make you regret that you never tried it before. It is a truly dependable cough remedy that should be kept handy in every home, to use at the first sign of a cough during the night or day time.

Any druggist can supply you with 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth). Pour this into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. The total cost is about 54 cents and you have a full pint of the most effective remedy you ever used.

The quick, lasting relief you get from this excellent cough syrup will really surprise you. It promptly heals the inflamed membranes that line the throat and air passages, stops the annoying throat tickle, loosens the phlegm, and soon your cough stops entirely. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, combined with guaiacol and is famous the world over for its healing effect on the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Dandruff Surely Destroys The Hair. Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use gently to moisten the scalp and rub it in evenly with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails. —Advertisement.

Mrs. New York, with satisfaction. "This is Belle Storey."

"Yes, of course, that is her stage name," said Mrs. K—. "But her real name is Grace Laird, and she is the daughter of a Presbyterian minister in Omaha."

(Stock quotation: New York, 49 1/2; Omaha, 50 1/2. Market ordered closed because of panic in New York, common.)

Well Known Omahans Marry in Toledo

Two former Omahans now living in Chicago, Will B. Millard and Miss Louise Bennett, were married in Toledo Monday. Mr. Millard is the only son of Senator Joseph H. Millard and the father of Barton Millard. He has three other sons, Joseph, Willard and Ray Millard. Miss Bennett is the only daughter of W. R. Bennett, formerly proprietor of the Bennett department store here. She is an attractive young woman, a decided blonde, and was extremely popular in the high school set a few years ago. She is a niece of L. G. Doup.

Mr. Millard and Mr. Bennett are associated in business. Mr. Millard's first wife, daughter of Guy C. Barton, died several years ago.

Mrs. Barton Millard, who is visiting in Toledo, attended the wedding. The bride was last in Omaha about two months ago to attend the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Louis Doup.

Tabloids of Politics

Little Items About the Progress of the Campaign.

Every political campaign has its sadness and its gladness, its joys and sorrows. This campaign is no exception. The latest morsel of humor is the word which is being promulgated from democratic state headquarters to advance the thought that "Wilson is going to carry Nebraska by 40,000." The democratic bosses believe that by repeating this often enough it will give the men in the trenches a spark of courage and keep them working until election day. It is just a campaign catch phrase—the democratic way of whistling off the ghosts that haunt their waking and sleeping hours.

The Socialist party of Omaha has billed a mass meeting for Sunday afternoon in the Auditorium. The speakers advertised include Kate Richards O'Hara, Senator Hitchcock and R. B. Howell as representing, respectively, the socialist, democratic and republican phases of the campaign. Mrs. O'Hara is editor of "The Ripsaw" at St. Louis.

If you are not already registered from your present address "do it now."

"Read the democratic record and then judge for yourself," suggests ex-Governor Eberhart of Minnesota. He adds that he does not believe in rubbing it into the democratic party at this time, when it is down on its knees begging for another chance to "put Columbia's hat on straight."

A nonpartisan meeting will be held Tuesday in Magnolia hall, Twenty-fourth street and Ames avenue, under the auspices of the Saratoga club, at which William H. Norman will preside. Among the speakers will be Ben S. Baker, C. O. Lobeck, Emmet G. Solomon and Frank Dewey.

A. W. Jeffers and W. F. Gurley will speak at a mass meeting in Florence on October 28. E. L. Platz and F. S. Tucker are making arrangements. Democrats are especially urged to attend this meeting.

W. J. Hislop and G. M. Timison have arranged for a meeting in Druid hall, Twenty-fourth and Ames avenue, this evening. The principal speaker will be William J. L. Crank of Denver, a man who has made a favorable impression through this state. He is the type of speaker who wins democratic friends.

"Pawnee Bill" Invades Omaha as "G. W. Lillie"

Pawnee Bill is with us. Gordon W. Lillie, the original owner of the famous sobriquet, came in from Pawnee, Okl. He is the guest of T. O. Warfield of North Twenty-eighth street and intends to stay in Omaha a few days.

Hard Winter Wheat And Durum Eclipse All Previous Records

Wheat records were smashed on the Omaha Grain exchange yesterday. Hard winter wheat, which rose to the pinnacle price of $1.64 Wednesday, soared still higher and brought the phenomenal price of $1.66.

Durum wheat, the cereal which used to sell at discount before the war, reached the record price of $1.70. This was paid in an actual sale by Blesher to the Nye-Schneider-Fowler company.

Yellow corn caught the aviation fever and mounted to 87 1/2 cents, its best record for the year.

The record-smashing wheat is Nebraska's own product, coming from Kimball.

Poor Children Are Supplied With Shoes When Snow Falls

The price of shoes has gone up! But the poor children of Omaha can still go to school. The Liberal Aid society tendered Police Matron Gibbons $50. "See that no child is kept from school for the want of shoes, and to all who apply, supply them."

Five little ones who have been on the matron's list for several days were given brand new "kicks" and trudded in the snow to school proud as a flock of young peacocks.

For Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises

Here in America there is much suffering from Catarrh and head noises. American people would do well to consider the method employed by the English to combat this insidious disease. Everyone knows how damp the English climate is and how dampness affects those suffering from catarrh. In England they treat catarrhal deafness and head noises as a constitutional disease and use an internal remedy for it that is really very efficacious.

Sufferers who could scarcely bear a watch tick tell how they had their hearing restored by this English treatment to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven and eight inches away from either ear.

Therefore, if you know someone who is troubled with catarrh, catarrhal deafness or head noises, cut out this formula and hand it to them and you will have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be easily prepared at home for about 75c and is made as follows:

From your druggist obtain 1 oz. of Perm. (Double Strength), about 75c worth. Take this home and add to it 1/4 pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take a tablespoonful four times a day.

Perm. is used in this way not only to reduce by tonic action the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian Tubes, and thus to equalize the air pressure on the drum, but to correct any excess of secretions in the middle ear, and the results it gives are usually remarkably quick and effective.

Every person who has catarrh in any form should give this recipe a trial and free themselves from this destructive disease. —Advertisement.
