YOUR OPPORTUNITY

The quickest and easiest money ever made in an airricultural way in the United Sistes, is going to be made in hog and cattle raising in North Central Florida, Climatic conditions, absence of extremes of heat and cold, are peculiarly favorable not only for breeding and fattening and the animals themselves, but for corn, hay and other fattening and forage crops. The business has aiready started with rapid strides. The introduction of Rhodes and Natal grasses (the grasses that made fouth Africa the richest grasing and kay country in the world, has done much toward the new impetus.

The big money will be for those who get in while the good land is still cheap. Our lands are located as far from the over-flow lands of South Florida as Omaka is from the sand hill country of Northwesters Nebraska.

Good towns. Good transportation fa-cilities. Good roads. Fine water at 36 to 40 feet. Artesian water at about 300 feet. A place to live as well as to make money. Only 40 or 50 miles to new stock yards and Armour packing plant at Jackson-ville. Choice of two ratiroads. We after in tracts of 640 acres and up, at very attractive prices and casy terms. Our lands are equally adapted to small farm-ing, dairying and trucking. We have a few datached pleess lying outside of the main body, in tracts of 50 acres and up.

Bellevue Students Start On Plan of Self-Government

The new plan of self-government at Bellevue college went into effect when the men of the college submitted a report to President Kerr Thursday that they had adopted the main outlines of the plan that he had suggested.

Both the men's and the women's efit for the Syrian war sufferers because application to include them was not made in time to arrange it, efforts for the Armenian sufferers will be put torth Saturday and Sunday as well, according to President Wilson's designation.

Both the men's and the women's divisions have elected officers and supposited subordinates. Officers for the women's division were elected Wednesday evening. Frence Leslie was elected president: Ruth Jilson's vice president: Bernice Schlotfeldt, secretary; Katherine Ohman, treasurer, and Mary Alexander, senior member.

Armenians are in destitute straits, driven out of their native land, yet heretotore it has been impossible for Hall. Mattie Cassell of Omaha, America to afford them any relief Chapman Rumsey of Walthill and frances there was no means by which supplies could be assured safe de-

Twenty-two years ago last March Frank A. Franks was placed in the Lincoln home, an infant in swaddling clothes. Today, a big strapping man, he is in Omaha looking for his mother, whom he does not even know by sight and who, so far as he knows, has not been near him since she abandoned him in Lincoln.

Mr. Franks is a carpenter by trade and is married. He lives at 1408 North Sixteenth street. He thinks about the only chance he has to find his mother is to first locate his grandmother, a Mrs. Ball, who came to Omaha from Concordia, Kan., about four years ago.

"My mother's maiden name was Belle Ball. I learned from an uncle of mine, Fred Ball of Sloux Falls, S. D., that my father has long been dead and that my mother married a man by the name of McCarthy."
