

Nebraska TRIP OF KENNEDY CONTINUOUS OVATION

Candidate for United States Senate on Republican Ticket Gets a Warm Welcome.

NORTH NEBRASKA ALIVE

Madison, Neb., Oct. 23.—(Special.)—Antelope and Madison counties Saturday spent the time in making the visit of John L. Kennedy, republican candidate for United States senator, and William P. Warner, republican candidate for congress from the Sixth district, to this part of the state a memorable one. Although the roads were heavy from recent rain and melting snow and quite impassible in places the senatorial and congressional campaign was continued and the candidates were met with ever-growing enthusiasm on the part of the voters, who gathered in large numbers in the towns along the line of the itinerary of the speakers and cheered the patriotic appeals made by both Messrs. Kennedy and Warner, who reached Madison early in the morning from Elgin and held a well-attended meeting in the opera house here. W. H. Field, republican candidate for clerk of the district court of Madison county, presided.

Ex-Senator W. V. Allen was in the audience and greeted his old friend, J. L. Kennedy. Both Messrs. Kennedy and Warner have been receiving much encouragement from the voters and both have been making a campaign for the whole republican ticket, state and national. They have been accompanied by a large number of citizens and candidates for county offices from one place to the next. They spent the night here and will be in Norfolk tomorrow to spend Sunday and begin next week's campaign from there Monday.

Hughes Sentiment Grows.

Hughes sentiment is growing daily in this section of the state and bets are being made that Hughes will carry Nebraska.

It is generally thought that John L. Kennedy and Judge Sutton will be elected.

The election of W. P. Warner is confidently predicted by many. Saturday's campaign began at Neligh with a morning meeting on the street. The candidates were accompanied from Elgin by Charles H. Stockdale, editor of the Elgin Review, and R. C. Huffman and they reported one of the liveliest rallies at Elgin that has been held during the campaign. Editor Stockdale is doing very active work for the state ticket.

Editors Best of the Neligh Leader and Charles H. Frady of the Oakdale Sentinel also had a part in the reception given the candidates. Former Congressman J. F. Boyd introduced the speakers at Neligh. After the speaking of G. O. P. elephant, the handwork of G. C. Rickman and W. W. Cole, was inspected. This is a monster artificial emblem, on the trunk of which is printed the name Hughes and on one side "Kennedy for United States Senate" and on the other "Warner for Congress."

Stop at Oakdale.

The second stop of the morning was at Oakdale, where the candidates were received by George Sweet and Ford Kuns. A street meeting was held.

From Neligh, Lyle E. Jackson, county attorney, accompanied the party to Oakdale. From Norfolk were M. D. Tyler, candidate for county attorney of Madison county; R. J. Shurtleff, W. R. McFarland and C. O. Swanson, and J. Edson Heath, formerly of Omaha, but now of Norfolk, candidate for county judge. From Madison were W. H. Field, C. S. Smith, sheriff; Guy W. Fitch, candidate for county treasurer, and Paul Dittmar, and they carried great banners declaring for Kennedy for senator and Warner for congress. They acted as pathfinders and were under the direction of Sheriff Smith.

The campaigners stopped at Tilden long enough to eat dinner. The line between Antelope and Madison counties passes through the main street of Tilden, so dinner was eaten in Antelope county, and after dinner all crossed the street into Madison county and held the first meeting of the afternoon there. At all the street meetings today great crowds greeted Mr. Warner and Mr. Kennedy. Both are very popular here and they were greeted with lively applause.

Enthusiasm Everywhere.

The next meeting was at Meadow Grove. Here W. H. Field presided. The speakers found the republicans in Meadow Grove very expressive of their loyalty to and their pride in their republicanism. I. W. McIntosh particularly delighted in the fact that he would have an opportunity to vote this year for John L. Kennedy for United States senator.

From Meadow Grove to Battle Creek, W. B. Fuerst and William Low acted as guides and reception committee, and they had, awaiting the speakers a large and enthusiastic crowd. Fred G. Volk was very active in the interest of the republican ticket.

So much enthusiasm was manifested all along the line and the speakers were compelled to speak longer than their schedules provided, and it was impossible to reach Norfolk in time to hold the meeting scheduled for 5:45. The campaign party stopped in Norfolk for supper and then made a night drive to Madison for a meeting. S. I. Nites, member of congressional committee; Perry H. Peterson, W. W. Cole and G. E. Thornton, all of Neligh, were with the candidates nearly all day, and John W. Lamson was in charge of affairs at Neligh.

SYNOD BOOSTS OMAHA SEMINARY

Presbyterians at Hastings Take Interest in Theological School in This City.

PLAN EDUCATIONAL WORK

Hastings, Neb., Oct. 23.—(Special.)—The forty-third annual session of the Synod of Nebraska of the Presbyterian church closed its meeting last night with a rousing booster meeting for the theological seminary at Omaha. Dr. A. B. Marshall, president of the seminary, presided and introduced several alumni of the school, each of whom spoke for the institution. It was stated that about 30 per cent of the ministers of Nebraska synod were graduates of the Omaha seminary, while some 25 per cent of those of Iowa synod were its graduates.

The Sunday morning session crowded the church, which is the largest of the denomination in Nebraska. The sermon was preached by the moderator of the synod, Rev. W. H. Cooper of Fullerton.

Saturday evening the members of the synod held a street meeting in the interest of the dry amendment, three of the commissioners speaking. The entire synod marched the streets, singing songs and giving temperance yells.

New Educational Plans.

The most progressive piece of legislation of this year's synod was the creation of a new committee which will take under its care the entire work of Christian education within its bounds. Its work will embrace young people's work, educational Sunday school work, the education of young men for the ministry, and college supervision. L. D. Young D.D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Lincoln, was made its chairman, and Rev. H. B. Foster, pastor of Dundee church, Omaha is a member from Omaha Presbytery.

Three field officers were elected whose duties cover the state. W. H. Kearns, D. D., was chosen synodical superintendent of home missions and Sabbath school work, Rev. Ralph H. Houseman was continued as field representative of educational Sabbath school work and religious education, and B. M. Long, D. D., of Lincoln, was re-elected synodical superintendent of evangelism. The two former officers have their headquarters in Omaha.

Growth in All Directions.

With respect to home mission and Sunday school gifts, with respect to evangelistic successes, in lines of Sunday school improvement, teacher training, the every-number canvass and increase in communicant membership, this last was an outstanding year in the history of the synod.

The invitation of the Bellevue church for next year's meeting was accepted.

G. O. P. COMMITTEE SEES VICTORY VISION

Twenty Members of State Organization Hold Session at Lincoln.

HUGHES STEADILY GAINING

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, Oct. 23.—(Special Telegram.)—Over twenty members of the republican state committee met at republican headquarters this afternoon in response to the call sent out by Chairman Beach.

Everybody brought reports of sentiment in their localities changing toward the candidacy of Charles E. Hughes.

The reports circulated by the democratic committee that republicans were supporting Wilson were denied by every man present.

"I know one or two men in my town who claim to be republicans who are going to vote for Wilson," said another one of the many charges against him, "but they are men who voted for him the last time and men who have been jumping around from one party to the other and have never really been classed as republicans."

Never Found the Men.

"I have heard of republicans who it was claimed were going to vote for Wilson, but I never have been able to locate one of them," said another.

Every man reported conditions good for republican victory, not only for the head of the ticket, but for a good big majority for the state ticket as well.

Beckmann on Progressive.

The progressive state committee today recommended that the name of Fred Beckmann, republican candidate for reelection as land commissioner, be made the progressive candidate for the same office. The action was taken by a referendum vote, twenty of the committee voting in favor of the action.

Brandeis Stores

2020 Douglas is the phone number to bring everything you need.

What a Big Store Does for You in Need Time

A DAILY recitation of the remarkable values that this store has to offer is not by any means ALL THAT THIS STORE does for you. As a matter of fact that is in a measure not the greatest thing it does for you.

THE GREATEST THING is that it inspires in you a confidence born of experience. THAT YOU CAN ALWAYS GET JUST WHAT YOU WANT AT THE PRECISE TIME YOU WANT IT. Of course, every store cannot do this, but when an establishment reaches the commanding position that this store occupies and wields the influence that this store does in the wholesale markets of the world—IT IS SAFE AT ALL TIMES TO DEPEND UPON IT FOR THE SERVICE you need, right at the time you need it.

That is why thousands of people come to Brandeis Stores, in the beginning, the middle or the end of the season, always with the perfect faith that they can get just what they seek.
