NEW YORK STOCKS

Approach of Presidential Election Accepted as Reason for Irregularity of Market. PRICES DOWN TWO POINTS

New York, Oct. 24.—The approach of the presidential election and attention paid to political considerations were accepted as the most plausible reasons for the irregularity of today's later dealings after a forenoon of decided advance.

Notes on market conditions: The market declined before the afternoon session, but rallied substantially before the end.

Notes on market conditions: Bethlehem Steel was the outstanding feature of the morning, rising 44 points to 170.

Notes on market conditions: Equipment and munition issues were less prominent than usual and transactions in the market were made at moderate conditions.

Notes on market conditions: Aside from its wanted leadership as to activity, United States Steel pursued a comparatively normal and narrow course.

Notes on market conditions: Continued irregularity of the bond market was traceable to further selling of international securities.
