

HAVE ROSY CHEEKS
AND FEEL FRESH AS A DAISY—TRY THIS!

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

To see the tinge of healthy bloom in your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up without a headache, backache, coated tongue or a nasty breath, in fact to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside-bathing every morning for one week.

Before breakfast each day, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on blood and internal organs. Those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatic twinges, also those whose skin is sallow and complexion pallid, are assured that one week of inside-bathing will have them both looking and feeling better in every way.—Advertisement.

The Treatment of Influenza or La Grippe

It is quite refreshing these days to read of a clearly defined treatment for influenza or La Grippe. In an article in the "Lancet-Clinic," Dr. James Bell, of New York City, says he is convinced that too much medication is both unnecessary and injurious.

When called to a case of influenza, the patient is usually seen when the fever is present, as the chill which occasionally ushers in the disease, has practically passed away. Dr. Bell then orders that the bowels be opened freely with salts, "Acidol" or citrate of magnesia. For the high fever, severe headache, pain and general soreness, one anti-kammit tablet every three hours followed quickly by complete relief. Ask for A-K Tablets. They are also unexcelled for headache, neuralgia and all pains.

FELL FROM LOFT;
HURT; THEN WELL

How a Man Who Landed On Wood Pile And Was Sore From Head To Foot Found Quick Relief.

Once upon a time Edwin Putnam, who lives in the quiet, pretty hamlet of Wendell Depot, Mass., climbed up into a loft to get some building material, just as many another man living in the country must often do. Suddenly he slipped and fell. Ten feet below was a pile of wood, knotted and gnarled. It was a nasty tumble, and Mr. Putnam was injured painfully in the back, he was covered with bruises, and was sore from head to foot.

The next day he bought a bottle of Sloan's Liniment, which had been recommended to him. Within a very few hours the soreness had vanished and the lameness had disappeared. He was an active man once more.

Sloan's Liniment can be obtained at all drug stores, 25c, 50c and $1.00.

OMAHA WELCOMES ITS NEW FAMILIES

Appeal of City Proves Irresistible to 866 Persons in Five Months.

COME FROM ALL PLACES

By A. R. GROH.

Two new families were added to Omaha's population every weekday during the last five months. Y'betchah! Two hundred and sixty-five families, consisting of 866 people, of whom 171 were children, moved in, to grow with growing Omaha.

This does not include single individuals who came here and took up their residence at boarding houses or hotels.

It consists entirely of families with household goods, who rent or buy houses and buy groceries and dry goods and coal and milk and ice and shoes and millinery and—and everything.

All this was discovered by E. V. Parrish, the Sherlock of the bureau of publicity. How did he do it? That's what I wondered. Did he go and stand around the freight depots and watch for bunches of household goods? No. He's got all the furniture moving companies "lined up" and as soon as they get an order to move someone's household goods from a freight depot they let Sherlock Parrish know and he sends a man around with a card to fill out. Nothing can be simpler, Watson.

These wise people moved to Omaha from almost all the states in the union and from the District of Columbia and Canada. Other families came in from foreign countries, but as they had no household goods, they are not included.

Why They Came?

Why did they come here? That sounds like a "foolish question" to Omahans. But outsiders generally have some special reason and here are some that they gave.

For business and economic reasons 139 families came and the rest came simply because of Omaha's charm as a place to live.

Eighteen, coming from small towns, came because they preferred a city to a town. On the other hand, one family arrived from Chicago "because there are better opportunities for home life here than in a whole of a city like Chi."

The Big Magnet.

Twenty-eight came here because they "had lived here before." That's some compliment! Tried living somewhere else and just couldn't stand it away from dear old Omaha.

Twenty-four came because they have relatives here who had urged the beauties and attractions of Omaha.

Three families came "because of the healthfulness of the climate."

Of the heads of these families, twenty-three are traveling salesmen. Omaha is a very important center out of which salesmen travel.

Twenty-one of them are railroad men. Six put themselves down as merchants. Then there are carpenters, insurance men, real estate dealers, theatrical men, automobile men and so on.

Welcome to our city!

Drives Owners Out
Of Their Home and Remains All Night

Armed with three revolvers and a shotgun, Steve Gailleni, an Austrian who is believed demented, last night drove Mr. and Mrs. John Orosz from their home at First and Nicholas streets and barricaded himself in the house until morning when police officers placed him under arrest. In police court Gailleni was bound over to the district court under $1,000 bail, charged with assault with intent to rob.

Gailleni, it is alleged, appeared at the Orosz home last night and demanded $55 which was hidden in a trunk. He was driven away, but returned again in a few minutes loaded to the guards with artillery. He forced Mr. and Mrs. Orosz to leave and threatened to kill anyone who molested him. Mr. and Mrs. Orosz besieged their home until morning. When Gailleni failed to depart they notified the police and Officers Dunn and Kennelly broke down the door and placed Gailleni under arrest.

Gailleni also lives in that district, known as "the bottoms."

Switchtender Goes to Jail for Stealing Watch

William Feeney, 3021 R street, a switch tender for the Union Pacific at Summit, was found guilty of petit larceny in police court and was sentenced to thirty days in jail. It was alleged that Feeney stole a watch from John Jones, an itinerant.

Feeney's arrest grew out of information to the police by Jones and Dan Bresley, yesterday sentenced to ten days in jail. Jones and Bresley asserted that Feeney permitted them to break into a car at Summit so that they might get out of the cold and that while they were asleep he robbed Jones of his watch.

It was for having broken into the car that Jones and Bresley were arrested. Feeney is said to have had the watch in his possession when arrested.

Judge Allows Contestants
To Settle Out of Court

Alleging that her husband had thrown dishes at her and otherwise treated her in a cruel manner, Mrs. Rebecca Alperson was granted a divorce decree from John Alperson, a Sixteenth street cigar store proprietor, in Judge Leslie's court.

This was the third or fourth time that similar proceedings had been started, but heretofore they were always settled out of court.

In awarding the decree the judge consented that the question of alimony and property be settled out of court.

The Alperson's four grown children—Edward, John, Jr., Marion and Samuel—were in court when the decree was granted.

Old Soldier Puts Lobeck's Secretary
To Rout On the War

The democratic he-kept-us-out-of-war campaign catch phrase is dying a hard death. The republicans have punctured it so hard that it cannot stand up by its own strength any longer. Evidence of this was offered at a bipartisan meeting held in Magnolia hall, Twenty-fourth street and Ames avenue Tuesday evening. Congressman Lobeck was represented at the meeting by his secretary, Jim Hanley, who did the best he could under the circumstances, being interested because he wants to return to Washington with his boss. "And Wilson kept us out of war!" exclaimed Mr. Hanley, just as if he meant it and just as if he thought others would believe what he said. An old soldier immediately arose and asked:

"How can you say Wilson has kept us out of war? Are not we at war with Mexico? What is Pershing's army in Mexico at this time for? Don't you call that war? If you don't call it war, please tell us what you do call it. We would like to know."

Mr. Hanley was completely confused, his face turned red and his mind was in a quandary for words with which to answer the veteran. The best he could say was "No, that is not war." The crowd expressed its collective mind with laughter for Congressman Lobeck's secretary and cheers for the old soldier. Mr. Hanley sat down.

Gust Hamburg is Run Over by Train
And Instantly Killed

Gust Hamburg, an assistant section foreman of the Union Pacific railroad, was run over and instantly killed at 7 o'clock yesterday morning in the railroad yards just north of the Douglas street bridge.

A string of boxcars being shifted struck him. He leaves a widow and two sons. His home was at 1620 North Twenty-second street.

Hamburg is survived by his widow and two sons. His body was taken in charge by Coroner Crosby.

Motorcycle Club
Has a Split-Up

The question of new club room locations resulted in a split-up of the local motorcycle club at the regular meeting last night. The side consisting of mostly Harley-Davidson riders had such an overwhelming majority and the other side consisting of riders of other makes, refusing to let majority rule, caused the meeting to come to a deadlock until it was suggested that if the minority refused to let the majority rule that they split up and the property be sold at auction at the meeting in session and the proceeds divided between the two factions.

This was put in form of a motion, voted on and carried. Archie Sorenson was the highest bidder.

A meeting of the riders will be held at the store of Victor H. Roos next Friday evening to formulate a new club.

Wants Scaffold for Thieves of Autos

Will somebody please hang a couple of auto thieves just to satisfy the Omaha Automobile Club?

"Not so many years ago," says S. F. Smyth in the official paper, "right here in Nebraska men were hung for stealing a horse. Today the same men could steal automobiles and all the present-day judges would say is 'Naughty, Naughty.'"

Then the auto club's editor indulges in comparative arithmetic.

"The best horse ever swiped around Omaha wasn't worth over $600. But an automobile worth $2,000 or $3,000 isn't as valuable as the old skates of yore."

Autopsy Shows L. Meyers
Died from Heart Failure

All doubt as to the cause of the death of Louis Meyers of the tailoring firm of Meyers & Benson, who was found dead in bed in his room in the Paxton hotel Tuesday morning, was removed yesterday when an autopsy, performed at the Hulse & Rippen undertaking establishment by Dr. S. McCleneghan, disclosed that he had died of heart failure. An empty glass on the dresser at first led officials to believe Meyers had committed suicide.

Mr. Meyers, who was 59 years of age, had resided in Omaha for thirty-five years and is survived by several relatives. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon from Hulse & Rippen's Hill cemetery. Relatives will act as pallbearers.

Music, Orators and Crowds
At Republican Meeting

Norris Brown, colleague of Senator A. J. Beveridge in the United States senate, will preside at the Beveridge meeting in the Auditorium Friday evening.

The senator, who will come here under auspices of the republican national committee, is a widely read author, a statesman of broad experience and recognized as one of the nation's most finished public speakers.

Loud Costume is Stolen
From Grand Opera Company

If you should see at large on the streets of Omaha some man, woman or child arrayed in short green trousers, a white shirt, long silk stockings and a green hat with a white feather, do not be alarmed. It will be neither a bullfighter nor a grand opera singer, but a plain ordinary thief, bound, perhaps, for a fancy dress ball.

Articles such as described were stolen from the Ellis Grand Opera company at the Auditorium. The loss was immediately reported to the police and officers are on the lookout for the thief.
