WOMEN APPLAUD ROOSEVELT SPEECH

Cheer When He Says He Would Fight to Stop Murder of Americans.

THE SAME TALK AS TO MEN

Chicago, Oct. 26 .- Chicago women cheered Colonel Roosevelt today when he appealed to them not to be inhe appealed to them hot to be in-fluenced by the plea that President Wilson had kept the nation out of war. When he told them that he would fight at the drop of the hat if necessary to stop the murder of women and children, they met the an-nouncement with a long chorus of ap-plause

The colonel closed his western tour here today with two speeches, the first exclusively to women, with not more than a scant score of policemen and reporters in the audience. He had been asked, he said to appeal es-pecially to the women who had been influenced by the peace slogan, but he had decided to make, he declared. exactly the same appeal he would have made to men. "I'm not going to speak," he said, "to what I might call the early Victorian aunt."

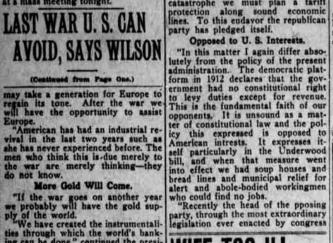

No Attempt to Heckle.

No Attempt to Heckle. No Attempt to Heckle. There was no attempt to heckle the speaker, the only interruption after he had described pictures of women and children killed in Mexico and said he would have gone to war if necessary to avoid that, several voices "Mr. Hughes can be trusted to keep his word," answered Roosevelt. "When he says that he would not submit to the sinking of the Lusitania or the killing of our citizens in Mexico, he means what he says." "You have stood up and listened to the sinking of the Lusitania or the killing of our citizens in Mexico, he means what he says." "You have stood up and listened to the Star Spangled Banner' and to the Star Spangled Banner' and to the strate were written about a gen-proud to fight. Guilty of Moral Treason.

Guilty of Moral Treason. "To divide our citizens along politi-ing racial lines is to be guilty of moral treason to the republic. To held for this country only half an illegiance is in really to be hostile to this country. for in practice when the crisi comes, the man whose loyal-by is on a fifty-fifty basis always hows that his loyality to the other country comes first." Only the brief introduction to the address was devoted to suffrage. Mr. Roosevelt referring to the women as his fellow American citizens and urg-ing them to work for the passage of a manendment to the federal constitu-tion providing for suffrage. He spoke at a mass meeting tonight.

nent in this respect. Dager to Labor. "There confronts labor in the next four years a danger beyond any that American laboring men have been called to face. When this war began over 1,000,000 American workingmen were vainly seeking employment. When the war ends and the developed energies of a new Europe are thrown into commercial production, our na-tion will face a competition such as it never knew. "When the war ends the demands for our products created by the war will end; and the prosperity based upon that demand also will end. One of two things must happen; either millions of men will be seeking work in vain or else there must be sought our the problem of protection to American industry and of commercial organization. France and England and Germany are already at work they the her in abroad are prepar-ing to defend their markets and to organize for the keenest commercial ivalry in time of peace. If we are to save our workingmen from a catastrophe we must plan a tariff protection along sound economic lines. To this cudavor the republican party has pledged itself. "Doposed to U. S. Interests. "In this matter I again differ absointelligent foresight of their govern-ment. "Our national policy requires that our government maintain a strict scrutiny of business organization, but this supervision can be effective and yet leave the government free to en-courage legitimate and wholesome business enterprise. I stand for such supervision and control, but I demand that all business be treated fairly and justly.
