NEBRASKA POTATOES YIELD GOOD PROFIT

State Crop is Fine and Market
 Booms—General Shortage Elsewhere.

$1.60 BUSHEL TO GROWERS

With the end of the present week, the Nebraska potato harvest will come to an end. While no figures are available on the yield, it is known that it will be fully up to the normal, if not greater. It is asserted that the yield per acre has not been so great as during some past years, but the increased acreage will bring the total yield up to that of any former year. Up in the potato growing section of the state—the northwest portion—farmers have been getting more for their potatoes than ever before. Also, on account of the recognized excellent quality of Nebraska potatoes, they have gone further from home than ever before.

Rushville, Alliance, Hemingford, Chadron, Gordon and Hay Springs have come to be the greatest potato shipping stations in the United States, and this year buyers from nearly every state in the union have been there bidding on the crop and competing sharply for the offerings.

Up to and including October 24, these stations in Nebraska had sent out 1,554 carloads, or around 1,500,000 bushels. Of course there are a good many potatoes yet to move, but the bulk of the crop has gone forward, generally having been bought by commission men.

Net Profits Good.
 This year the potato crop has made the growers some good money. It is estimated that the yield has been in excess of 100 bushels per acre, and that the price has averaged in excess of $1 per bushel, delivered at the loading stations. In addition to this, these potatoes have been grown on land that has been fetching from $50 to $75 per acre.

The early sales on potatoes did not net the growers $1 per bushel, yet there were not many sold at these prices. Soon after digging Nebraska potatoes commenced, it became apparent that generally, outside of this state, the crop was going to be short. This fact stimulated the prices and the Nebraska potatoes commenced to advance, soon reaching $1 and better per bushel.

At this time, at the Nebraska shipping stations in the northwestern part of the state, growers are getting $1.25 to $1.60 per bushel, and are eagerly sought after at even these prices. When the same potatoes get down into the consuming sections of the country, they sell freely at around $2 and $2.25 per bushel, or 30 to 75 cents more per bushel than those from the irrigated sections further west.

Nebraska Soldiers Spend Summer in Breaking the Soil

Harry Brookstein, 1836 North Twenty-first street, well known newsboy here for fourteen years, has returned from Llano Grande camp on the Mexican border, where he spent the last four months breaking land, making roads and serving eleven weeks in a hospital on account of malaria. A fourth Nebraska Volunteer, Mr. Brookstein states that the work of the Young Men's Christian association in the border military camps has been one of great service. He said there are 18,000 soldiers in camp at Llano Grande. The boys spent a pleasant summer breaking in 2,000 acres of wild land.

"We were two weeks pumping the water out of the streets of the camp after the terrific hurricane storm in August," said Mr. Brookstein. He said he has had enough of the border.

Interment will be in Baltimore, where all the other members of Mrs. Byrne's family are buried. Mr. Byrne died there in 1905.

Mrs. Byrne's home was at 401 New Hamilton apartments.

Woman Hit by Car and Police Hold the Driver

August Kline, 4243 Burdette street, is held at the police station on a charge of intoxication and for investigation in connection with an automobile accident in which he and a car he was driving figured last night at Fortieth and Cuming streets. Witnesses say he lost control of his machine and it ran over the sidewalk and into the Walnut Hill pharmacy. Mrs. H. H. Miller, 817 North Fortieth street, was struck and badly bruised. Several other persons narrowly escaped being hit. Kline is held under $1,000 bonds.

Employees of All Liquor Houses Have Organized

The employees of the various liquor establishments in Omaha have organized a Defense association, through which they will put up a fight against the prohibition amendment which will be put to a vote at the November election. It is said there are 3,000 men engaged in the liquor business in Nebraska and the Omaha association will ask for their co-operation in the campaign.

DOLLAR CORN HITS OMAHA EXCHANGE

Highest Mark Ever Attained by Cereal in Actual Cash Sale on This Market.

WHEAT ADVANCES LITTLE

Dollar corn has arrived, not the option, but the real corn. A carload of it sold at $1 per bushel on the floor of the Omaha Grain exchange yesterday. The corn that fetches this record price was No. 2 yellow of last year's crop, grown in Antelope county, Nebraska.

Omaha grain dealers have talked dollar corn, but none of them have ever seen any of it before and few of them have expected the cereal to reach this price. Some of the oldest among the old-time grain men assert that during the war of the rebellion, between 1861 and 1864, corn sold at $1 per bushel, but never before, or since. Now that it has hit the dollar mark, they are not making any predictions relative to future prices.

On the whole, corn was $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to $\frac{3}{4}$ ¢ cents higher, the bulk of it selling around 96¢ to 98¢ cents per bushel. Receipts were twenty-two carloads.

Wheat Advances.
 Wheat prices failed to score a new top price, but they reacted and advanced $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢ to $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ cents over the slump of Wednesday and Thursday. They firmed up during the early hours of the session of the exchange and continued hard up to the close, advancing near to the top of the early days of the week.

Receipts again were fairly heavy, there being 191 carloads on the market. Prices for cash were \$1.77 $\frac{1}{2}$ to \$1.81 and the demand strong from both millers and exporters. Continued reports of a short crop in Argentina, it was asserted, in a large measure was responsible for the sharp advance in the market.

Durum made another advance and came close to the top price, selling at $1.82 per bushel. The top is about a cent better than this price and was reached early in the week.

Oats is Strong.
 Oats, like all other kinds of grain, was strong, the advance being $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢ to $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ cents per bushel, the sales being made at 49 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to 51 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ cents. Receipts were sixty-two carloads, a large quantity of the grain being taken for shipment south for feeding and to the Iowa cereal mills for grinding.

Coroner's Jury Finds Mike is Not Guilty

Mike Obradovich, 1214 South Thirtieth street, was exonerated by a coroner's jury for shooting Joe Obradovich October 18 when the latter created a disturbance in Mike's home.

Brownell Hall Girls Engage in Political Campaign Preparatory to Their Election

Upper group, republican committee: Elizabeth Williams, Douglas, Wyo.; Esther Battical, chairman, St. Joseph, Mo.; Kathryn Gardner, 3707 Jones street, Omaha; Betty Mitchell, Fort Leavenworth Kan. Lower Group, Democratic Committee—Left to right: Josephine Marple, Omaha; Sarah Molony, St. Joseph; Elizabeth Beecher, Hastings; Nevada Graham, chairman, Malvern, Ia.

"Hughes by a wide margin," says Miss Esther Battical, chairman of the republican campaign committee at Brownell Hall, where the students are to vote for president on November 7.

Miss Battical and the members of her committee of three for the last few weeks have been among the hardest workers in political circles in Nebraska, and they believe that their efforts will result in Brownell going republican a week from next Tuesday.

Other members of this committee are Elizabeth Williams of Douglas, Wyo.; Kathryn Gardner of 3707 Jones street, Omaha, and Betty Mitchell of Fort Leavenworth, Kan. Miss Battical's home is in St. Joseph, Mo.

That the Brownell Hall electorate is in dead earnest is shown by the manner in which the girls have prepared for the balloting. Platforms have been read and discussed, party records carefully studied, and chosen speakers from the student body have presented the case of the opposing organizations.

Miss Mildred Rhodes, Miss Gretchen Swoboda and Miss Charlotte Rosewater spoke for the republicans, delivering the G. O. P. attack on the present administration and demanding a change to republican policies. Democracy received able defense from Misses Nevada Graham, Helen Howells and Sarah Molony.

Americanism, hyphenism, freedom of the seas, Mexico, rural credits, the eight-hour law, federal reserve, child labor—these questions and many more found their way into the argument. After-the-war policies received a large share of the speakers' attention, with preparedness playing another important part. Suffrage had special emphasis from the republican speakers.

Hope Almost Abandoned When She Found Remedy

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin Relieves Chronic Case of Long Standing.

After a long period of suffering with liver and bowel trouble that brought on piles, during which she had tried many remedies without obtaining relief, Mrs. Mary J. Jewell of Berrien Springs, Mich., learned of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and obtained a bottle from her druggist. This simple, inexpensive laxative compound brought almost immediate relief and Mrs. Jewell wrote to Dr. Caldwell about her case.

In her letter, Mrs. Jewell says, "I had tried so many things for the piles, without being helped at all. I had almost given up hope of ever being any better. I knew it was the condition of my bowels that caused them, and after I had taken a bottle of your Syrup Pepsin I knew it was just the medicine I needed. I am very grateful to you for sending me the little book—the advice and instructions it gives would teach anyone how to get well and how to keep well."

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, free from opiate or narcotic drugs, and is mild and gentle in its action, bringing relief in an easy, natural way, without griping or other pain or discomfort.

Druggists everywhere sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for 50 cents a bottle. To void imitations and ineffective substitutes be sure you get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. See that a facsimile of Dr. Caldwell's signature and his portrait appear on the yellow carton in which the bottle is packed. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 455 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.
