Disproportion Between Demand and Supply New York, Oct. 27 .- Dun's review

New York, Oct. 27.—Dun's review tomorrow will say:
Disproportion between demand and supply is more pronounced than at any previous time, and the rise in prices continues. Widely divergent lines exhibit ateadily increasing strength and though most commodities are already at an extreme position, there is no sign that the creat yet has been reached in steel and iron, in textiles and in other branches the eagnerness of buyers is regarded as foreshadowing still further advances, the growing scarcity of materials and products impelling urgent efforts to cover for distant requirements. Evidences of expansion are viable on every hand, but many manufacturers and merchants, with commendable judgment amb prudence, andexor to repress demand rather than encourage it, and credits are closely scanned. Obligations generally, however, are met with greater promptines and returns, if October failures indicate the smallest mortality for the period since 1911, in spite of the increase in new enterprises. CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Wheat Advances Sharply on More Bull News From Argentins.

Chicago, Oct. 27.—In a surprising burst of strength today the wheat market excelled all recent high-price records. Traders were largely infissenced by assertions that experience and foreign governments had chiated ownership of the bulk of deliveries here until January 1. Prices closed buoyant at the topposit point of the session, December at $1.45 to $1.55 %, and May at $1.84 to $1.55 %, and day at $1.84 to $1.55 %, and artive deliveries of previous 10 to $7c.

Right for wheat values were again headed to the sense of the s other cereals, atthough shipments east are restricted by the inability of railroads to furnish cars.

Provisions mounted to a higher level than has been equaled as far back as 1319. Packing interests were active buyers, and there was a notable searcity of offerings, especially of lard.

Hopeful Regarding Coming Events.

NUMEROUS NEW RECORDS

New York, Oct. 27.—There were indications in today's trading, the broadest and most active since Monday, of a revival or public interest, that element having been.

New York, Oct 27.—There were indications in today's trading, the broadest and most active since Monday, of a revival of public interest, that element having been conspicuously lacking for almost a formight Sentiment seemed to be more hopeful rearding coming events, the assured success of the new British loan proving a powerful stimulant.

Professionals dominated the market, however, this being clearly demonstrated by the activity of pools and eliques in the low-priced rails and the specialities embraced in sugar, paper, leather and minor industrial groups.
