ARENDS DISPROVES DEMOCRAT CLAIM

Otoe County Senator From Syracuse Talks About Standing of Reavis.

ASK FIRMNESS IN OFFIC/IR

Lincoln, Oct. 27 .- (Special.) -- The democratic state committee has made special onslaughts on a speech made special onstaughts on a speech made by Mr. Reavis at Syracuse, with re-gard to his support of Hughes. Sena-tor J. H. Arends of that place, who was in Lincoln today, brands the statements of the Maguire politicians as absolutely false.

as absolutely false.

"The statement is maliciously false," said the senator. "I was chairman of the meeting, and, as such, introduced the congressman. The address was one of the most convincing speeches ever delivered in Syracuse, and was enthusiastically received by a crowded congra house.

ever delivered in Syracuse, and was enthusiastically received by a crowded opera house.

"At no place in the speech was reference made to Governor Hughes except in terms of greatest respect and admiration, and any statement to the contrary is without the slightest foundation in fact.

"As chairman of the Otoc county republican committee, I accompanied Mr. Reavis across the county by automobile and heard all of the nine addresses he delivered in the county. What I have said of the Syracuse speech applies to all the others.

"Some idea of the way these addresses were received may be gained from the fact that every town in the county in which Mr. Reavis delivered an address in the day time, has since urgently demanded that Mr. Reavis return for a night meeting.

"Otoe county has grown very tired of a colorless congressman. We have had our fill of a congressman whose virtues are entirely negative, and whose chief claim for election is that his power for evil is very limited. We want a man of ability, independent thought and courage, and having found such a man we are going to keep him in congress. If you want to know what we thought of Mr. J. W. Bperry, and other relatives in the latent of Mr. J. W. Bperry, and other relatives in the latent of Mr. J. W. Bperry, and other relatives in the latent of Mr. J. W. Bperry, and other relatives in the know what ent thought and courage, and having found such a man we are going to keep him in congress. If you want to know what we thought of Mr. Reavis' speeches, just watch our vote on congressmen. If Mr. Maguire accepts Mr. Reavis' suggestion to discuss jointly the questions of the campaign, we want one of the meetings held in our county. Such a debate would be worth going miles to hear."

Barton, Aldrich And Matson Make Visit to Franklin

Franklin, Neb., Oct. 27.—(Special.)

The largest crowd attending a political meeting in this city this year came out Wednesday evening, despite roads that were almost impassable with mud, to attend the big republican rally.

United States Senator George W. Norris had been billed to speak with Hon. Silas R. Barton, republican candidate for congressman from the Fifth district, but was imable to get here, and the state committee sent ex-Governor C. H. Aldrich out to take his place, and Charles E. Matson of Lincoln was also present and addressed the voters.

Mr. Barton made one of the best speeches that has been delivered here this fall, telling of his service in the Sixty-third congress, where he only missed ten roll calls and was defeated by less than 200 votes on account of staying on the job in Washington while his opponent was out over the district making political hay. His speech was well received by the large crowd, which cheered his remarks frequently.

He was followed by Mr. Aldrich, who talked for a sime on pastions.

He was followed by Mr. Aldrich, who talked for a time on national matters, but wound up with an endorsement of the prohibition amendment and the republican candidates for state offices, most of whom he is personally acquainted with. He made a comparison of the records of Judge A. L. Sutton, who has been a man in the public eye for many years, and Keith Neville, who was never in the support of the s

Mr. Barton is touring Harlan county, the home of his democratic opponent, today.

Traveling Man Says Indiana for Hughes

Lincoln, Oct. 27.—(Special.)—That Hughes will carry Nebraska appears on every hand and the republican state committee is kept busy most of the time receiving congratulations from visitors who crowd headquarters at the Lindell hotel.

Last night a traveling man from Indiana found his way to the rooms of the committee and said Indiana could be safely counted for the republican ticket.

"Conditions in Indiana are good for Hughes," said he. "Generally speaking, people are beginning to understand what four years more of democratic control will mean, and especially when this country will face a crisis the most important in its history with the close of the European war. Then the country must depend upon the Underwood bill for the protection of our interests.

"Indiana is safely republican. It may not be a big majority, but it will be sufficient so that the country will whow that the old Hoosier state is up to date and on the right side."

University Debater Convinced Republican Argument Good

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, Oct. 27.—(Special.)—One of the swidences of what investigation of political history will do is given out today, when word came to republican headquarters that one of the aniversity debaters who took the Wilson side of the argument in the dehate between representatives of the university Wilson and Hughes clubs a week ago has acknowledged the force of the Hughes debaters, and is yow for Mr. Hughes.

A poll taken of the Munger office building here today showed strongly for Hughes, the vote being nearly 5 to 1 for the republican candidate.

Kinkaid, Reynolds And Spillman Talk At Anselmo Rally

Anselmo, Neb., Oct. 27.—(Special.)
—Congressman Moses P. Kinkaid, Attorney O. S. Spillman and W. H. Reynolds, candidate for state treasurer, were the speakers at one of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings ever held in Anselmo, Wednesday evening. M. Leonard, precinct committeeman, presided.

Congressman Kinkaid was the first speaker. He drew a picture of the elected congressman, then touched upon the enactment of the "one sec-tion" homestead law and the benefits tion nomestead law and the benefits derived therefrom in the way of increased population, resulting in the rapid increase of wealth until at the present time the Sixth congressional district stands first in wealth per capita when compared with the other congressional districts in the state. He sketched the irrigation methods under the Receivals administration under the Roosevelt administration and the rapid development of the beet sugar industry around Scottsbluff and Gering. He said he had voted for meritorious bills under the present ad-ministration and tried to defeat oth-condition of his constituents in the ers that discriminated against his own "Big Six" at the time he was first state and district—especially was this state and district—especially was this true in regard to the so-called "porkbarrel" legislation.

Attorney O. S. Spillman dwelt largely on the discriminatory features of the "Underwood tariff" as between northern and southern agricultural interests.

Ex-Senator Reynolds gave a sketch of the candidates for the state offices and said amidst great applause, "Sutton will be elected governor by 25,000 majority and the dry amendment will carry by 20,000 majority.

The Anselmo band gave an excellent street concert preceding the even
