THEDA BARA

Three Exceptional Numbers At the Strand This Week

At the Strand, the offering is Wilfred Lucas in "The Rummy," a story of a newspaper man, his trials and tribulations. Manager Thomas has provided a Keystone comedy and Pathé weekly, while the Strand orchestra and Organists Micer and Usher promise a good musical program. Tuesday and Wednesday, Bessie Barriscale and Charles Ray, in "Plain Jane," a story of smiles and tears. Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Theda Bara in a version of Wm. Shakespeare's drama "Romeo and Juliet." While Miss Bara's fame has been won as a portrayal of vampire characters, advance reports proclaim her work in "Romeo and Juliet" to be the best of her career.

Suburban Will Open Organ Recital Next Tuesday Night

The Suburban theater will have the opening recital of its new Bartola pipe organ, Tuesday night. On the screen that night will be Jackie Saunders in "Down to the Sea," also Fritz Brunette in "Out of the Mist," and a Luke comedy. Today the offering is Ethel Clayton and Holbrook Blinn in "Husband and Wife," and a Keystone comedy. Monday Triangle presents Norma Talmadge in "The Devil's Needle." ### "The Chorus Girl," Photoplay Offering at the Empress

At the Empress, "The Chorus Girl and the Kid" is the name of a three-part Knickerbocker feature, with Marie Empress, the little queen of the movies. A glimpse at the real life of the chorus girl, truly emotional and vivid, is presented in this picture. Alogue comedy in two reels, "Her Pedigree," and the Gaumont Weekly, up to date as usual, complete the offering.

Comfort Theater Books "The Franchise" for Today

"The Franchise," featuring Winifred Greenwood and Ed Coxen, will be shown at the Comfort theater as the feature photoplay today. Besides this picture, "A Touch of High Life" will be shown and a comedy, "Reel Life." Monday the program is "Broke, but Ambitious," "The Princely Bandit" and "Laugh of Scorn." Tuesday, "Fantomas," "Those Primitive Days" and weekly.

Vaudeville Besides Regular Show at South Side Orpheum

If variation as well as entertainment is what is wanted the South Side Orpheum's program for today should furnish it. Two acts of vaudeville, "Folly of Fear," "See America," and a comedy, "Feathered Nest," complete the offering. Monday a five-reel photoplay featuring Helen Holmes, "The Manager of the B. & A."

Lytic Features House Peters in "The Closed Road" Today

House Peters in the World film, "The Closed Road," begins with action, based upon a new discovery for the cure of cancer. The plot is interesting, all of the details are carried out with a great degree of accuracy and realism. It will be shown at the Lyric today.

Bluebird Feature Today At the Burt Theater

A Bluebird feature in five reels will be shown at the Burt theater today when Mary MacLaren will be seen in "Wanted a Home," an excellent feature. With this will be shown a good comedy. For the balance of the week good programs are promised.
