

LOBECK HELD UP AS DEBT EVADER

A. W. Jeffers Denounces Democrat Congressman for His Acts.

BIG MEETING AT FLORENCE

A. W. Jeffers knocked the ball over the fence last evening at a republican mass meeting held in Eagle hall, Florence, where he arraigned Congressman Lobeck for alleged shirking of debts, according to a letter read by the speaker and written by C. E. Markham of North Bend, Neb.

No Sense of Obligation. Mr. Jeffers added this charge: "He has no sense of obligation of his debts, nor has he ever taken a leading stand on any proposition."

Mr. Jeffers landed on Secretary Baker of the War department for having referred to George Washington's continental soldiers as akin to Villa's bandits.

Mr. Jeffers gave a brief talk in which was a concise explanation of the advantages of the republican protective tariff, the Mexican policy and the importance of electing a republican house and senate to support Charles E. Hughes as president.

The letter read by Mr. Jeffers relating to judgment rendered in district court against Congressman Lobeck follows:

Should Congressmen Pay Debts. North Bend, Neb., Oct. 22.—To the Editor of The Bee: As you no doubt know, both the state and national banks are holding some advantages, denied to ordinary citizens, notable among these being exemption from paying their bills.

There are on file in the district court of Douglas county the following judgments against him:

Robert Wells Veach, D. D., Philadelphia, who will address Presbyterians on religious education at the Young Men's Christian association today.

WILSON ATTACKS THE REPUBLICANS

President, in Address, Asserts Opposition Is "Scrupling at Nothing."

FORGET "THEIR MANNERS"

Long Branch, N. J., Oct. 28.—That the opposition to his election is "scrupling at nothing" in statement of fact and policy was the charge made by President Wilson in a speech at Shadow Lawn this afternoon to a throng that assembled for a joint celebration of New York day and Woodrow Wilson day.

Renewing his discussion of the foreign policies of the United States and speaking of the "vocal element" of the republican party, the president declared: "They prefer a peace that is produced by the methods of those who defy, of those who brag, of those who threaten, in order to establish their prowess. They have forgotten their manners. They want a peace, indeed, but they do not want a peace obtained as gentlemen obtain it."

Brownell Hall Principal at Church Conference on Schools

Present-day school problems received through discussion and review at a conference of the heads of church schools, held in connection with the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal church, which closed at St. Louis yesterday.

Miss Euphemia Johnson, principal of Brownell hall, went from Omaha to the conference. Other educators in attendance on the various sessions included: Dr. Endicott Peabody, head master of the Groton school, Groton, Mass.; Miss Gray, principal of St. Helen Sophia Peabody, principal of All Saints' school, Sioux Falls, and Dr. Walter R. Marsh, head master of St. Paul's Cathedral school, Garden City, L. I.

Another was Dr. C. W. Leffingwell, well known to many Nebraska people as the one-time rector of St. Mary's school, Knoxville, Ill. Numerous other schools, notably those of the southern states, were also represented.

Called by Dr. William E. Gardner, chairman of the General Board of Religious Education, the conference was given over to a discussion of the modern church school. Like every other educational agency, these schools are confronted just now by a number of difficult problems, which must be solved in the near future.

Most of these questions came before the gathering at St. Louis.

Dean Halsey addressed the teachers' convention in Cedar county last Friday. He spoke on "The History of Nebraska."

The students in a body attended "The Mission Play" last Friday evening.

President-elect Jordan has purchased an automobile. After taking a few lessons in how to manage a car, he will be going from place to place and from house to house securing addresses to the growing endowment.

Rev. Dr. M. Z. Hatten gave the chapel address last Wednesday morning on the subject of temperance. He aroused a good deal of feeling in favor of abstaining from the use of alcohol.

The Young Men's Christian association of the college meets regularly each Tuesday evening. They are taking up important, practical subjects for study and investigation.

Mr. Reed of Hagen has moved to Grand Island with his family. Several of the children have entered college. Mr. Reed himself is acting as janitor of the institution.

J. H. Leisher, one of the college trustees, has undertaken to lay a cement sidewalk along the whole east side of the college campus. Mr. Leisher has spent considerable time and money in beautifying the campus.

A good many tickets for the lecture course have been sold among the students. This course has continued for about six years, and has won its way successfully among the young people's organizations of the different churches.

American Girl Goes to Marry a Japanese Dentist

San Francisco, Oct. 28.—Miss Pearl P. Cox of Evanston, Ill., sailed today on the Pacific Mail liner Venezuela to become the bride, she says, of Dr. Tuyo Yamada, a dentist in Osaka, Japan, whom she met while both were students at Northwestern university a year and a half ago.

Miss Cox, who is 21 years old, arrived here several days ago with Mrs. Missaki Shimadzu, wife of the secretary of the Chicago Japanese Young Men's Christian association, who will be her traveling companion.

IS YOUR HEALTH WORTH $5.00?

Woman Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Health.

Lima, Ohio.—"I was all broken down in health from a displacement. One of my lady friends came to see me and she advised me to commence taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I began taking your remedies and took $5.00 worth and in two months and after three doctors said I never would stand up straight again. I was a midwife for seven years and I recommended the Vegetable Compound to every woman to take before birth and afterwards, and they all got along so nicely that it surely is a godsend to suffering women. If women wish to write to me I will be delighted to answer them."

—Mrs. JENNIE MOYER, 942 E. North St., Lima, Ohio.

Women who suffer from displacements, weakness, irregularities, nervousness, backache or bearing-down pains, need the tonic-strengthening properties of the roots and herbs contained in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you want special advice, write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.

Two elections were held last week. The Utopian society met in Dean Halsey's room and chose the following officers: Fern Gilbert, president; Clara Lindley, vice president; Olga Anderson, secretary and treasurer. About twenty basket ball enthusiasts held a meeting in the gym and elected the following officers: William Thompson, manager; Edgar Ernst, captain.

The university had three speakers last week. R. Macdonald, author of "The Mission Play," addressed the students and faculty in chapel, Wednesday. Thursday, Rev. John Baptist spoke to the boys of the Young Men's Christian Association. While he was speaking, Mrs. Lockwood of the Young Women's Christian Association talked to the co-eds in the gym. She spoke on "The Girl of India," and in concluding

Michigan Aggies Defeat North Dakota Farmers

East Lansing, Mich., Oct. 29.—Effective use of the forward pass when close to the visitor's goal, enabled the foot ball eleven of the Michigan Agricultural college to defeat the North Dakota Aggies, 30 to 0, here today. Straight foot ball could accomplish little against Michigan Agricultural college's veteran line.
