Shotwell, republican candidate for state senator, and Sam Hoff, republican candidate for state representative, were attending the republican rally at Florence last night they were captured by a party of coon hunters under the leadership of E. A. Kaufman, who were on their way into the hills northwest of Florence.

In the party were I. Kaufman, William Ryan, John Ryan, Ray Wilson, William Meneck, Will Simpson, who held on to each three fine coon dogs. When they saw Shotwell and Hoff, the hunters declared it was big game. But a little republican rally was held right there, and they declared themselves for Shotwell and Hoff and the entire republican ticket.

HAPPENINGS IN THE MAGIC CITY

Stockmen Interested in Opening Up of Territory Through Proposed Road.

WYOMING MAN TALKS OF IT. Opening up the 200 miles of territory between Miles City, Mont., and Belle Fourche, S. D., again became a topic of conversation at the yards yesterday when A. N. Hotchkiss, large stock grower of Kendrick, Wyo., in the vicinity of the district to be improved, commented favorably on the matter.

Hotchkiss brought in five cars of cattle, these being but a fifth of the day's shipments from the north-west territory.

A line of railroad connecting the two points has long been a proposition boosted by stockmen of the district and of the local yards. The railroads have announced practically definite plans for the project, according to Hotchkiss, and will begin construction work very soon.

All of the territory in the vicinity to the north and west of this district, including north South Dakota, North Dakota, middle Wyoming and northern Montana, will be brought into immediate touch with the Omaha market.

Will See Game With Ames. Announcement was made yesterday at the Stock Yards company office that the yard's delegation to Lincoln this year would make the trip on the occasion of the Ames-Nebraska football game for the Missouri valley championship, November 4, next Saturday.

General Manager Buckingham will lead his gallant stock rollers from the yards by way of a special train to boost Coach Stewart and Nebraska in the fight for the valley title.

The trip will be made in the early morning, about 9 o'clock, thus allowing time for an inspection of the state farm and accompanying lectures on stock at the university buildings.

One hundred men gathered around the board of the Loyal club, a non-partisan organization of long standing, which last night celebrated its ninth anniversary with a banquet. The Loyal club convenes at Twenty-fourth and Hamilton streets. Besides the viands, its members partook of food for thought from political candidates and a galaxy of entertainers, among whose ranks was a famous delegation from Council Bluffs headed by George Hughes, expert yarn spinner, and a number of equally clever seconds, including William Boyer and ex-Mayor F. Rohrer.

Others who added joy to the occasion were Robert C. Druesedow, John M. Macfarland, Judge Ben Baker, James M. Fitzgerald, County Attorney George Magney, Sheriff Felix McShane, A. C. University of Omaha Is Given an Idea of The Lower Regions

Saturday evening, Redick hall, University of Omaha, was converted into a lower region. The sophomores gave a Halloween party for the school and the affair was an elaborate one, the last school party that will be given in old Redick hall, the university's first school building.

At the cellar door was Mark Lowe, who conducted the visitors across a bundle of sticks, the River Styx, and thence through the spooky compartments. Then the ghostly guide led the party over the scenic route. The Flunkers' room came first, where Frank Crampert studied with head wrapped. Next came the Quitters' room, where Finkenstein pushed a huge boulder up a hill with his nose. The Fussers' room was the last compartment and there were found four hags.

In the uppermost part of the hall sat Satan, chained, and his assistants, Eugene Simmons and Frank Broadwell.

An appropriate program followed. The most spooky event was staged while the refreshments were being served. A group of ghosts came in unexpectedly and danced. Later appeared a departed soul, once a university student, and now an inmate of Hades, to tell a tale of woe to the merrymakers. He came in so quietly and recited such a terrifying poem that not a breath was heard until he had vanished. Apples, doughnuts, coffee, and pop corn were served.

TWO AMERICANS ARE KILLED BY TREVINO

Naturalized German Brings Report to Border of Assassination at Chihuahua City.

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 28.—A report from Nogales current here tonight, that two American mining men, Charles Engel and Fritz Schmitz, were said on the authority of a naturalized German named Richmond von Dohlen to have been put to death in Chihuahua City on September 19 at the order of General Trevino, was received here tonight by army and civil officials with expressions of doubt.

General Bell said he had heard of no such report, federal officials also claimed the report was news to them and that they had heard of no Americans suffering such a penalty.

Mexican Consul Soriano Bravo stated that he had no knowledge of such a report.

Following Villa's raid on Chihuahua City on September 16 hundreds of refugees arrived in El Paso.

Among them were Americans and other foreigners as well as Mexicans opposed to Carranza. They all brought stories of the execution of great numbers of Mexicans accused of supporting Villa, yet they were thoroughly interviewed by government agents and by the press without bringing any charges of this nature to light.

DO YOU ONE-STEP? GIRL SOLVES A FOOT PROBLEM. Dancing is hard on the feet. After one-stepping and tangoing, your feet ache and burn, they are tender and inflamed, and a good night's sleep is generally out of the question, no matter how tired you may be. A society girl who is a confirmed lover of dancing has found a way to enjoy all the dancing she wants without the attendant foot troubles. Here is her secret: She buys a package of Wa-Ne-Ta at the drug store for a quarter. When she gets home she bathes her feet a few minutes in warm water in which have been dissolved two or three tablets of this wonderful preparation. Then she goes to bed and sleeps like a healthy baby. Wa-Ne-Ta takes all the soreness, burning, sweaty unpleasantness from the feet and leaves them cool and comfortable. Wa-Ne-Ta added to the bath water is cleansing and purifying, removing impurities and banishing body odors. If your druggist hasn't Wa-Ne-Ta, send us 10 cents to cover packing and shipping charges and we will send you a sample package to your address prepaid. L. C. Prohibition Destroys Property Values, Increases Taxes and Hangs "For Rent" Signs on Business and Residence Property. A Warning From Nashville. (Tennessee has had prohibition since 1909). C. C. Waggoner, L. F. Waggoner. Special Attention Given to Mail Orders. C. C. WAGGONER & BRO. Dealers in GARDEN AND FIELD SEEDS, GROCERIES. 217 Second Avenue, North. Phone Main 994. Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 23, 1916. Douglas County Property Owners' and Taxpayers' League, 335 Rose Building, Omaha, Neb., Mr. M. J. Greevy, Secy.

Dear Sir:—I am taking the liberty to write you in regard to an article published in one of our newspapers in Nashville, regarding the property values and the prohibition question here. Being a taxpayer and in business in Nashville, I feel that I am competent to give you some facts about the conditions here. It is an indisputable fact that prohibition has hurt Nashville. It has caused many business and residence houses to be vacated, which still have "For Rent" signs on them. It has caused a great number of people to leave Nashville, and caused merchants from near points—that should buy their goods in Nashville—to go elsewhere, and it is always a wet city that they go to, such as Louisville, Cincinnati or St. Louis. I have had the opportunity to find out on several occasions why these merchants do not come here and their answer is that they like to go to wet towns to trade, because the town is alive. We have had in Nashville lots of trouble concerning our municipal and county governments, but that did not deprive us of the great revenue lost by prohibition, which caused property to depreciate in value and loss of business. Feeling that the lost revenue has caused taxes to be higher to meet the needed deficit, I among others made complaint, but the taxes were higher just the same. Nashville being my native city I think a great deal of it and all my interests being here, of course, I want to see it prosper, but we cannot develop as we should, hampered with prohibition and fanaticism, and your city and state will have to face the same conditions that exist here and that we are now undergoing if statewide prohibition should be adopted. Our police records show an increase from one hundred to three hundred per cent per month in arrests since prohibition laws were enacted. I sincerely hope the voters there will consider seriously before casting their vote. Respectfully, (Signed) C. C. WAGGONER.

Nashville is a metropolitan jobbing city similar to Omaha. Prohibition would bring the same results to Omaha as it has brought to Nashville. A vast amount of trade now coming to Omaha would go to our commercial rivals in St. Joseph and Kansas City. In addition, prohibition would bring a decrease in property values and a heavy increase in taxes and in crime. Think it over. Douglas County Property Owners' and Taxpayers' League, M. J. GREEVY, Secretary.
