

DENIES CABRERA CRITICISM OF U. S.

No Authority for Story of Displeasure at Way Government Handles Villa Campaign.

ISSUED BY SUBORDINATE

Washington, Oct. 30.—What promised to be a new source of serious friction between the United States and the de facto government of Mexico apparently was cleared away tonight through formal repudiation by Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican ambassador designate of a statement issued here yesterday under the name of Luis Cabrera, assailing the American government for permitting aid to reach Villa and other bandits from its side of the border.

Mr. Arredondo will go to the State department tomorrow with the explanation that the statement was put out by an employe of the Mexican News Bureau, the de facto government's semi-official publicity agency, without the knowledge or consent of either the embassy or Mr. Cabrera. Department officials said tonight this would be regarded as closing the incident.

Other Denials Ready.

Mr. Arredondo says, on special instructions from his government he will deny also the authenticity of what it is understood will purport to be quotations from General Carranza, General Obregon, the Mexican war minister, and General Pablo Gonzales, commander of the forces in Mexico City, reflecting strong anti-American sentiments, which are expected to appear tomorrow in an American weekly magazine. Information reaching the embassy recently concerning the magazine article caused an exchange of messages with Mexico City, and brought the ambassador's authority to repudiate them in advance.

Until word of Mr. Arredondo's action and of Mr. Cabrera's repudiation at New York came to them tonight, the heads of the State department had taken a most serious view of the statement attributed to Cabrera, who besides being Carranza's minister of finance, is chairman of the Mexican group of the joint commission now sitting at Atlantic City, N. J.

Question of Veracity.

How the statement originated has been the subject of much speculation and apparently has narrowed down to a question of veracity between Mr. Cabrera and the members of the news bureau staff who gave it to the press. But the bureau, set up some time ago, with G. F. Weeks, formerly a press censor for the Carranza government at Mexico City, at its head, has been regarded as the semi-official mouthpiece of the embassy. The employe who issued yesterday's statement was George F. Edmunds, publicity representative of the embassy until the bureau was organized. Edmunds asserts that the statement was dictated to him at Atlantic City by Cabrera, who authorized him to make it public. Weeks tonight telegraphed Cabrera disclaiming responsibility for the action.

The appearance of the statement created consternation at the embassy. Mr. Arredondo promptly had a conference with Mr. Cabrera over the long distance telephone. Later he explained that the bureau had prepared and issued without authority the statement as a result of remarks made by Cabrera Friday to a representative of the bureau. He said Cabrera made no unpleasant references to the American government and moreover was not expecting his remarks to be quoted.

"We were speaking," said the ambassador, "about the situation in general and especially in Chihuahua, as to how Villa had been able to cause such alarm. Mr. Cabrera said, not for publication and without expectation that his remarks would be used: 'The American government could help us by increasing its vigilance to prevent ammunition from getting into the hands of Villa and by expelling from the United States a great number of Mexican ruffians who are very well known as enemies of the de facto government in Mexico.'"

"This the American government could do strictly within the province of American neutrality laws."

Frank Hitchcock Claims Election of Hughes by Eighty

Chicago, Oct. 30.—Frank H. Hitchcock, former chairman of the republican national committee and a member of the advisory committee of the present campaign tonight issued a statement regarding the outcome of the election, basing his conclusions on reports received from experienced political leaders in each one of the states concerned. His statement is as follows:

"Hughes will be elected on November 7. He will carry the following states having an aggregate electoral vote of 308, or forty-two in excess of the required 266.

Maine	4	Wisconsin	13
New Hampshire	4	Minnesota	12
Vermont	4	Iowa	12
Massachusetts	10	North Dakota	5
Rhode Island	4	South Dakota	5
Connecticut	7	Kansas	10
New York	40	Wyoming	3
New Jersey	14	Idaho	3
Pennsylvania	23	Utah	4
Delaware	4	New Mexico	3
West Virginia	4	Washington	7
Indiana	11	Oregon	5
Illinois	27	California	13
Michigan	15

"He will probably carry also Ohio, 24; Nebraska, 8, and Colorado, 6, making his total 346, or a majority of eighty."

"He has a good prospect of carrying in addition certain so-called doubtful states with an aggregate vote of forty-nine, as follows: Maryland, 8; Kentucky, 13; Missouri, 18; Montana, 4; Nevada, 3, and Arizona, 3. This would give him a total vote of 395, or a majority of 129."

Things We Never Hear.

"Wife, I believe you need a new gown."
"No, I did not resign. I was fired."
"Your bill is very reasonable, indeed, doctor."

"We just permitted you to call, Mr. Spender, because you bring so many presents."
"I did not marry him for love; I wanted a position in society."
"It was not hard luck. We were defeated because they were the better players."
"I did not run because so many friends urged me to; I wanted the office."
"I cannot answer. I never talk with customers while shaving them."
"None of our children ever say cute things."
"The plumbers have always been very fair with us."
"Our car has cost less than we expected."

ATTEMPT TO MURDER SHERAZZO AND WIFE

Police Arrest Two Italians on Accusation of Victims in Hospital.

CASTRO CASE IS INVOLVED

Just as Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sherazzo were about to enter their home at 2013 Pierce street last night, returning from a theater with Joe Vendura, two men stepped from the protecting shadow of a nearby house and with automatic pistols opened fire. Not a word did they utter. When they saw Mrs. Sherazzo and her husband fall, each a victim of the deadly fusillade, they fled. They did not offer to molest Vendura.

At St. Joseph's hospital, both Sherazzo and his wife at first maintained stoutly that they did not recognize their assailants. Vendura, who stood within a few feet of the flame-spitting pistols, gave an accurate description of the two Italians, which might have fitted hundreds of Italian laborers anywhere.

Search Starts at Once.

Everywhere the detectives went in search of clues leading to the unravelling of the mysterious attempted assassination they met with stolid silence.

Finally when Police Surgeon Myers told the Sherazzos they would probably die, Sherazzo and his wife told Policeman Frank Damato that Camilo La Bianco, 2029 South Twentieth street and Sam Trapini, fired the shots. Vendura, who knows both men well, still maintained that he failed to recognize them.

La Bianco and Trapini, who were arrested at midnight with Andrea Trapini, father of Sam Trapini, said they had an alibi.

Police declare that the attempted assassination of the Sherazzos is a development of the alleged forced marriage last week of 13-year-old Christina Trapini to Rosario Castro, aged 23.

The Trapinis occupy the second floor of the Sherazzo home. Castro and Vendura roomed together in the Sherazzo part of the house, and Castro became familiar with the 13-year-old daughter of Andrea Trapini. Last Sunday they eloped to Council Bluffs. When they were brought back to Omaha, the girl's parents demanded that Castro marry the girl. This was done last week, Justice Britt performing the ceremony.

Police say that from private sources they learn that the Sherazzos have been the object of Italian hatred since the affair.

Held By Police

La Bianco and Trapini were arraigned before the police magistrate this morning charged with shooting with intent to kill. They waived preliminary examination and were bound over to the district court.

When Asquith Laughed.

It is said that Mr. Asquith has only once been known to laugh outright when on a public platform. The record-making occasion was at a political meeting in Scotland. The premier was constantly being interrupted, one of the chief hecklers being a farmer wearing a large straw hat. Suddenly from someone in the audience came a very personal remark concerning Mrs. Asquith.

"Who said that?" he demanded quickly. There was a sudden silence. Then a man in the audience stood up, and, pointing to the farmer with the straw hat, shouted: "It was him, wif the cow's breakfast on his head!"

The reply was altogether too much for Mr. Asquith and he had to join in the general roar of laughter.—Baltimore American.

WOMAN INJURED BY HALLOWE'EN PRANK

Wire Stretched Across Sidewalk Trips Mrs. Virgil Sampson.

POLICE SEEK MISCREANTS

The life of Mrs. Virgil Sampson, wife of Virgil Sampson, teamster, living at 111 South Twenty-eighth street, may prove the cost of vicious premature Halloween pranks of youths last night at Twenty-eighth and Douglas.

Wires had been stretched across the sidewalks and streets, every few feet in the neighborhood and on Douglas street, half a dozen barrels, stolen from a nearby grocery store, were built into a barricade entirely blocking the thoroughfare in a place where unwary autoists would be apt to run into it.

Mrs. Sampson was walking home when she tripped over the wires and fell flat on her face, striking her forehead with such force as to cause concussion of the brain.

EAT LESS MEAT AND TAKE SALTS IF KIDNEYS HURT

Says a tablespoonful of Salts flushes Kidneys, stopping Backache.

Meat forms Uric Acid, which excites Kidneys and Weakens Bladder.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and primary irritation.

"The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.—Advertisement.

An Oklahoma young man devoted to the material affairs of life, Senator Robert L. Owen, of that state, related, separated himself from business to attend a reception one evening. In the course of which he was introduced to a pretty girl, felt the sting of admiration and set out to do his best for a favorable impression. "I scarcely have a moment to play or read," said he. "nor to apply myself to
