

PREPAREDNESS IS THE DUTY OF US ALL

Bishop Williams Tells of the Features of Episcopal Conference at St. Louis.

CLASSES IN RELIGION

Important steps toward the development of a better citizenship were taken at the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal church, which concluded its sessions on last Saturday, according to Bishop Arthur L. Williams, who has returned to Omaha after a three-weeks' visit to St. Louis, in attendance on the convention.

"Americanism in its finest aspects," he said, "was the principal subject of the pastoral letter of the house of bishops, read by Bishop Brest of the Philippines at the final session of the convention. This message, which later will be read from all the pulpits of the faith, stated our belief that preparedness is a duty, but that it will fall short of its desired effect unless all the productive forces of manhood are shaped into social order and righteousness and there is preparedness of character."

"This 'preparedness of character' is involved in the plan of religious education prepared by the commission on religious education as a result of nine years' study. Based on the most modern pedagogical methods, this system of education looks to the development in the church of the best possible type of citizen, through the proper inculcation of spiritual truths."

Perhaps the most inspiring features of the convention, the Nebraska prelate declared, were in the joint sessions of the two houses in their consideration of this subject. "Some of the finest addresses I have ever heard in my life," he stated, "were given in the discussion of this topic."

Modern Education.
As president of the board of trustees of Brownell Hall, the local school for girls, Bishop Williams has for years been in closest touch with modern educational problems. He feels that great progress has been made by the church in its application of pedagogical science to the teaching of religious truths.

"The church's plan of education," he stated, "comprehends classes for adults, as well as instructions for children of all ages. This work for adults was initiated in Omaha last year, and 110 men and women were registered for instruction. Courses are conducted by a faculty consisting of five clergymen, with examinations and tests such as would be given in a curriculum of a secular nature. Already this year, I understand, there have been enrolled as many students as were in attendance during the whole of last year."

Miss Euphemia Johnson, principal of Brownell Hall, was also in attendance on the general convention, and was among the interested listeners at the sessions conducted by the commission on religious education.

Flivver Ride Makes Harper Talk in Sleep

Chief Yeoman Guy Stoner, J. B. Zimmerman and Frank Harper of the local navy recruiting station have just completed a unique tour of Nebraska advertising the navy.

Stoner was advance man, traveling in princely style in his flivver, while the other two came a few days later by train. The government bought the gasoline for the Lizzie and gave the men $1.75 per diem.

While direct results were not very great the tour stirred up widespread interest, says Stoner, and letters are being received daily at the local recruiting office asking further information. A large influx of farmer boys to the navy is predicted as a result of the trip.

Autoists Glad Gretna Cops Quit the Watchful Waiting

Municipal and county officials at Gretna have promised to "lay off." That is, they have tacitly promised not to "pinch" quite so many alleged speeders along the Omaha, Lincoln and Denver highway as they have been nabbing.

So the word has gone out to Omaha people that they may resume travel through Gretna.

Early this fall this campaign of "nipping" the tourist flared so violently all around Gretna that motorists were told to avoid that road. The road officers there arrested from nine to a dozen autoists a day. That was when the autoists from Omaha were going to the state fair at Lincoln.

Randall K. Brown came back from there one day pale with the experience he had had, and still nervous from his narrow escape. In fact, he missed being picked up because there were so many autos ahead of his that had to be picked up first, there were not officers enough to go around.

Nevertheless, Randall brought back the news that hawks of the law were lying in wait along that trail. The Omaha Automobile club and the good roads committee of the Commercial club also took the matter up, and the Lincoln Commercial club got much excited about the matter. Now the road to Gretna is declared safe.

Boston Man Impressed With Wealth of the State

Edgar J. Rich of Boston has been in Omaha for some days visiting with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Tukey. Mr. Rich has visited twenty-eight states in the last month, but found none better than Nebraska. He was greatly impressed with the general prosperity of Nebraska and Omaha, and especially with the abundance of money he found here available for legitimate loaning purposes.

POORER WHISKY IN PROHIBITION STATE

Hanson of Maine Says Licensed Dealer Would Not Dare Sell Such Low Grade Stuff.

MORE IS USED IN MAINE

"No licensed saloon keeper would dare sell the grade of liquors which are shipped into dry territory by bootleggers, because the saloon man does not want his customers dying in his place of business," was one of the arguments offered by Edgar F. Hanson of Belfast, Me., speaking Monday evening in the Auditorium under the auspices of the Nebraska Prosperity league.

Mr. Hanson, who has been elected mayor of his home town nine times and twice to the state senate, spoke of the effects of prohibition in Maine since it was adopted seventy years ago.

"It is a mistake to believe that when you vote for prohibition you are voting to protect your son. Prohibition opens the kitchen bars and closes the public licensed bars, and remember, there are women in the kitchen bars, and don't forget the temptations these women will place before your son," was another statement by the man from Maine.

Consumption Doubles.

He stated that prohibition closed twelve saloons in his town, but the consumption of liquor was doubled and the tax rate increased 248 per cent. He quoted figures to show that prohibition in Maine was followed by an increase of insanity caused by excessive use of alcoholics and drugs.

He declared that the use of drugs follows the use of bootleg whisky. During the last ten years 25,000 persons have been convicted in Maine for selling liquor, he said.

"The authorities cannot enforce the penalties prescribed by the law because the law is unpopular with the people," was another anti-prohibition argument offered by Mr. Hanson for consideration of Omaha people.

Harkness Trophy Race a Carnival for Goodyear Cords

Aitken Distances All Rivals By 105.86 Miles an Hour Pace In 100-Mile Event At Sheepshead Bay

Galvin, Wilcox, Henderson and Devore, all on Goodyear Cords, Capture Second, Third, Fourth and Fifth Places.

Saturday, on the Sheepshead Bay Speedway, the audacious skill of Johnny Aitken and the meteoric speed of the Peugeot he drove captured the Harkness Trophy, established a new American record, and wrote another brilliant chapter into the racing history of Goodyear Cord Tires.

Saturday, the speed, the spring, the athletic vitality and stubborn stamina of these tires successfully fought off every punishment and out-gamed every ordeal that sustained speed can provide.

Saturday, another hundred miles of proof of Goodyear Cords' superiority was piled upon the impressive structure already established.

The qualities in Goodyear Cord Tires that triumphed over competition and hardship in the Harkness Race and in similarly severe and spectacular contests that have gone before, led to the adoption of these tires as standard equipment on the Franklin, the Packard Twin-Six, the Locomobile, the Peerless, the White, the Haynes Twelve, the Stutz, the McFarlan, the Roamer and the Lexington "Thoroughbred Six."

They should lead to the adoption of these tires as exclusive equipment on your car.

Have You Read the So-Called Prohibition Amendment?

We find that mighty few of the people who talk about it know what it provides for—haven't even read it.

Here it is—
"On and after May first, 1917, the manufacture, the sale, the keeping for sale or barter, the sale or barter under any pretext of malt, spirituous, vinous or other intoxicating liquors, are forever prohibited in this state, except for medicinal, scientific or mechanical or sacramental purposes."

IT'S A FRAUD—it isn't a REAL prohibition measure. It doesn't attempt to prohibit the USE of liquors or beer—the men who framed it, themselves say that IT WASN'T INTENDED TO.

If this "joker" Prohibition Amendment carries—
YOU MAY DRINK ALL YOU WANT, but you must BUY from a dealer or manufacturer OUTSIDE OF NEBRASKA.

Our NEBRASKA manufacturers and dealers must QUIT BUSINESS, and all the THOUSANDS of us EMPLOYEES of these business establishments and THOUSANDS MORE dependent upon us, will be without a means of livelihood.

WHERE IS THE SENSE OR LOGIC IN SUCH A SCHEME?

If they wanted REAL PROHIBITION why didn't they submit to you a REAL PROHIBITION AMENDMENT?

DON'T be imposed upon by a "JOKER."
DON'T DISCRIMINATE against NEBRASKA WORKING PEOPLE and NEBRASKA BUSINESS INSTITUTIONS.
DON'T VOTE US OUT OF WORK.

Vote "No" on the Prohibition Amendment.

No 301 * X

Shall the above and foregoing amendment to the Constitution be adopted?
