

MANY PRESIDENTS WERE EX-SOLDIERS

Battle of Bullets Good Apprenticeship for Battle of Ballots, History Shows.

LINCOLN VS. JEFF DAVIS

By A. R. GROH.

Since we are to elect a president a week from today, a few facts about our presidents are interesting right now.

Though neither of our principal candidates this year was ever a soldier, more than half of our chief executives were soldiers before they were presidents.

You probably don't know that Lincoln was a soldier. He was a captain of volunteers in the Black Hawk war of 1832.

Washington, Monroe and Jackson were soldiers in the Revolution; Jackson, W. H. Harrison, Tyler, Taylor and Buchanan in the war of 1812; Taylor, Pierce and Grant in the Mexican war; Grant, Hayes, Garfield, Arthur, B. Harrison and McKinley in the civil war; and Roosevelt in the Spanish-American war.

Cleveland was the only man elected in the White House. He was a lawyer when elected. So was Buchanan, but Buchanan remained a lawyer. Monroe's daughter, Grant's daughter, Roosevelt's daughter and Wilson's two daughters were married in the White House. The wives of Tyler, Benjamin Harrison and Wilson died in the White House. The only president's child born in the White House was the second daughter of Cleveland.

President John Quincy Adams was the son of President John Adams. And President Harrison was the grandson of President William Henry Harrison.

Lincoln-Davis Likeness.

Remarkable coincidences are noted in the lives of Abraham Lincoln, president of the union, and Jefferson Davis, president of the confederacy. Both were born in Kentucky, Davis in 1808 and Lincoln in 1809. Both removed from that state in their childhood, Lincoln to the northwest, Davis to the southwest. Both were in the Black Hawk war, Lincoln as captain of volunteers and Davis as second lieutenant of regulars. They began their political careers in the same year, 1844, Lincoln as a presidential elector for Clay and Davis for Polk. They were elected to congress in consecutive years, 1845 and 1846. Davis became president of the confederacy February 8, 1862, and Lincoln became president of the union March 4, 1861.

Presidential Term.

The presidential term of four years was fixed by the constitutional convention. The first report of the committee there favored a term of seven years without eligibility for re-election. In debate, various terms from "during good behavior" to twenty years were favored. The limit to four years was finally adopted.

The same convention debated titles for the president, some favoring "His Excellency" and others "His Highness." Finally it was decided that "it is not proper to annex any style or title other than that expressed in the constitution," and therefore the address of the president is simply "The President of the United States."

Fay Templeton Comes To Orpheum Shortly

Word has been received at the Orpheum that Fay Templeton comes to that theater as the stellar attraction for the week of November 12. Miss Templeton will present a repertoire of song sketches written expressly for her by Junie McCree. Her last pronounced success was made in "Forty-Five Minutes from Broadway." Once before Miss Templeton appeared at the Orpheum, but not in regular Orpheum bill. It was with Weber and Fields at a most-season engagement.

Barney is In Again For Selling Dope

Barney Kemmerling is in the federal toils again. Barney, the police say, has shown his disagreement with congress in the enactment of the "dope" law and has insisted on going right ahead selling dope to such as had the price. He is to have a preliminary hearing Wednesday.

Real Mine that Nations at War Use May Be Seen Here

Omahans will have an opportunity to see a real mine within two or three days.

Not a coal mine, or a gold mine, or anything like that. This is a marine mine, the kind they set out in the water and when a ship strikes it, boom! crash! and that's the last of that ship.

Lieutenant Waddell of the recruiting office of the navy has ordered that it will be on exhibition at the branch recruiting station at Fifteenth and Douglas streets. The mine is spherical in shape and about three feet in diameter. It has an automatic anchor, so that it can be anchored automatically in any depth of water.

City Planning Expert Is Now in the City

Mr. Robinson is now in Omaha and will attend a meeting of the planning commission this afternoon. Mr. Robinson will also address the Real Estate exchange at a meeting at the Commercial club Wednesday noon. The annual election of officers will be held by the exchange.

Foster Holds "Mike" Under $15,000 Bonds

Mike Obradovitch, 1214 South Thirtieth street, who on October 18 killed Joe Obradovitch in a fight, was bound over to the district court by Police Judge Foster on a charge of manslaughter. Bonds were placed at $15,000.

Auburn-Haired Wives Do Not Break Into the Local Divorce Courts

Douglas county judges and attaches of the divorce courts agree with Judge Cox of Chicago that husbands don't desert wives with auburn hair (correctly called by some "red hair"). The Chicago judge, who has been sitting on the bench in the Windy City's divorce court for many years, commented on the fact that the auburn-haired women make the best wiv-ers. Now a few local authorities are willing to back Judge Cox up in his assumption.

Miss Charlotte Martin, secretary in the office of County Attorney Magney, has been observing wives who file complaints against husbands charging desertion for the last five years.

"I've noticed every kind of hair on the heads of wives who visit this office to file complaints, but in my five years of observation I can't recall having seen an auburn-haired woman."

Both Judge Day and Judge Leslie agree that, on the face of things, the auburn-haired helpmates must be the truest. Neither could remember of a case where a titian-haired wife appeared in divorce court and alleged desertion.

Thieves Cut Three Locks to Steal One Large Touring Car

While Dr. and Mrs. I. C. Wood of 3202 Woolworth avenue were peacefully sleeping in their chambers on east side of their home Tuesday morning at 2 o'clock thieves cut through three locks on the garage on the west side of the house and helped themselves to their big new touring car. The marauders experienced some trouble in starting the car, but finally sailed into the stone wall which surrounds the lawn of the Wood home, with the result that one of the heavy stone-cappings was knocked off. Mrs. W. A. Woodard, who lives next door at 3216 Woolworth avenue, was awakened by the noise and telephoned to Dr. and Mrs. Wood as soon as possible, but the car thieves had made their getaway.

Dr. Wood called in the police and chase was given. At 9 o'clock in the morning the car was discovered about a mile from the house. The joyriders had been unfamiliar with the working of the car and when the engine went dead on them they had been unable to mix air and gas in such fashion as to start the car. In spite of its collision with the stone wall the car was very little injured.

Mystery Marks Man's Disappearance, Hat Found On the Bridge

The finding of a hat belonging to John Mitchell, aged 25, night watchman on the New Union Pacific bridge, has led the police to believe that he fell into the river. It is supposed that while Mitchell was making his rounds he stepped into an open space in the bridge, which is only partly completed, lost his footing and fell. Mitchell lives at 1009 Pacific. He had been married for two years. Police are searching for the body.

Drys to Make Four-Day Auto Campaign

The drys will conclude their campaign in Omaha with a flying squadron of twenty automobiles carrying speakers who will appear in relays between 7 p. m. and midnight, beginning Friday evening and continuing to Monday evening. W. E. Phifer has charge of this street campaign. Street meetings will be held in Benson and Florence. G. D. Taylor, Willard Chambers and Dr. J. M. Beard have been speaking in this territory for the prohibitionists. Frank Harrison and party are also out on a "dry clean Nebraska" tour.

Young Forger Held For District Court

Walter A. Barlow, the young man arrested October 28 for forging a $31.20 check over the stamp of the W. B. Van Sant Co., was bound over to district court by Police Judge Foster. Barlow pleaded guilty. Bonds were placed at $750.

A check for a smaller amount passed on the Soborner Cigar company was made good by the defendant's parents.

Street to Be Kept Open All Week for Closed Car Salon

No autos are to be parked on Douglas street between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets for the remainder of the week because of the closed car salon which is to be held for the next four days on the main floor of the Brandeis stores. Chief Dunn has assigned six policemen to keep this street open that it may be used for demonstrations. It will not be closed to traffic, but no one will be permitted to park cars there.

The novelty of having an auto display in one of the big stores seems to have made a decided hit with the dealers and also with the public, judging from the interest which is being manifested.

Admit Ladies Free To Coursing Meet

Ladies will be admitted free the opening day of the greyhound races, which will start at the Douglas county fair grounds for this afternoon, and continue for the remainder of the week. A splendid coursing meet has just closed at Talmadge and all the leading dogs which raced at that point are now in the city and ready to run. The races are to start at 1:30 sharp each day.

Over 100 of the best racing greyhounds in the United States are already here for the races and large crowds are expected to witness the events. Last year a coursing meet was staged for the same place and the attendance increased each day as the crowds found what exciting sport was in store for them.

Dan Gaines and Fred Burlingim have brought their racer from O'Neill, where he has been summering, and have entered him in some of the main events. The big jacks have been brought from Kansas, where they are booked as pests and are ready for the show.

SMALL FRY SHUT OFF FROM OPTION TRADE

Margin of Thirty Cents Bushel Now Required on Deals in Futures.

BUSINESS ALMOST KILLED

They have shut the small fry out of the speculative grain business and now anyone who wants to take a flyer in futures, unless he is a reliable reputable and well known dealer, is forced to put up a margin of 30 cents per bushel if he makes a trade.

Originally trades were made on a margin of one-eighth of a cent per bushel. Then the margin went to a cent; later to 2 cents, then it went to 5, and still later to 10 cents per bushel. Now word comes from Chicago that the Board of Trade is exacting 30 cents, and Omaha has dropped in line. While this has not curtailed the volume of the cash, it has just about killed off the option business. However, when prices again become stable margins are expected to go back.

On the Omaha cash grain market there was little excitement. While prices held firm on high-grade stuff, there was a decided decline in all grades of the lower grades. Wheat was off 2 to 3 cents, corn 1 to 2 cents and oats 1/2 to 3/4 of a cent.

With 124 carloads of wheat on sale the top price was $1.82, with the bulk of it selling between $1.76 and $1.80 per bushel.

Old corn held the former high top.

Revealing Today the Chalmers Sedan

I am revealing today the newest creations in Chalmers cars. The body is different from anything you have seen.

And the lines are different too—very refreshing, like a breath of crisp autumn air drawn deep into the lungs.

The body strikes a new note. It is a compromise between a limousine and an open touring car. A limousine in winter. A touring car in summer.

You simply remove the windows with their supporting frame, put them away in a special compartment back of the rear seat. It's but a few moments work and the transformation is complete.

The top is a permanent roof, built and trimmed as a part of the body—not one of the so-called detachable type tops.

I could go on at length—Bedford cloth upholstery, silk curtain at rear window, reading lamp, a dome lamp, which lights when the door is open. But I prefer to tell you all this and far more when you see the car.

The price I am proud of. I didn't know it could be done. $1780 Detroit.
