

Football and life hold so many hard knocks. Most men are kept busy absorbing the shocks.

Another old teacher named Poole, had been a great athlete at school. 'Twould do your heart good to see him now and then whenever he laid down a rule.

There was an old tutor named Strong, who allowed it was foolish and wrong to follow a game. When seeking for fame—That's why he kept tating along.

RABBITS UNABLE TO ESCAPE HOUNDS

Seventeen Kansas Jacks Bite Dust in Opening Program at Coursing Meet.

FLACK IS THE BIG WINNER

Seventeen rabbits bit the dust in the opening event of the second annual coursing meet held under the auspices of the Omaha Coursing club at the Douglas county fair grounds yesterday afternoon.

Sixteen courses were carded for the afternoon's program, but one race was a tie and a second heat run, making the total seventeen. And the hounds batted a thousand in the killing league, nailing every rabbit before it could make the escape.

Ordinarily more rabbits escape than are killed. About 300 persons witnessed the opening program and a lively interest was manifested, although speedy kills in series of the events curtailed the duration of the excitement.

Flack Has Winners. W. B. Flack of Grand Island seemed to have the swiftest dogs. Five of his pups, all he had entered, captured their races. Kuse and Cook had the hard luck, all four of their entries losing.

Two Close Races. The Dancer, owned by Flack, and Titanic, owned by O. L. Life, staged an exciting race, which was captured by the Flack entry, 4 to 3.

No disputes of any kind arose. Ray Edge of Friend, Neb., was the judge and nary a murmur over his decisions was heard. J. Vioxx acted as slipper.

The coursing meet continues at the fair grounds every afternoon this week and Sunday. Results yesterday were:

- First course: Art Clair, owned by O. L. Life, won from Myrtle Gutch, owned by S. S. Mesejadis. Score: 4-0.
Second course: Johnny Moon, owned by Virgins and Shark, won from Harley Cannon, owned by Kuse and Cook. Score: 7-2.
Third course: Credit Wild Bill, owned by W. B. Flack, won from Wild Elks, owned by Kuse and Cook. Score: 3-0.
Fourth course: Lady Clair, owned by W. B. Flack, won from Vaino Boy, owned by V. D. Andrews. Score: 4-2.
Fifth course: The Boob, owned by Virgins and Shark, won from Village Blacksmith, owned by S. S. Mesejadis. Score: 10-4.
Sixth course: Neva Pine, owned by J. E. Wright, won from the Sailor, owned by O. L. Life. Score: 3-6.
Seventh course: Cash Wild Bill, owned by W. B. Flack, won from Wild Buck, owned by Virgins and Shark. Score: 3-1.

Wealthy Farmer Kills Self at Home of His Son

Beatrice, Neb., Nov. 1.—(Special Telegram.)—John Tejecka, a wealthy Bohemian farmer, living three miles west of Wynmore, committed suicide this morning in a cornfield at the home of his son Ernie, by placing the end of a 38 calibre revolver in his mouth and pulling the trigger. Tejecka and his wife recently separated and he visited his son's home this morning, where he conversed with his wife in an attempt to bring about conciliation. Failing in this he disappeared and was later found dead in the field.

Team Hit by Train, Driver Badly Hurt

Bayard, Neb., Nov. 1.—(Special.)—A young man named Hollis Sims was injured at a railroad crossing between here and Minatare. He was driving a beet wagon and must have fallen asleep. His team reached the crossing just as a train came along. The horses were thrown some distance, but were not injured. The man was thrown several feet, striking a fence post. Besides a number of scalp wounds Sims had three ribs broken. He was taken to Minatare on the train, where a stop was made until he was given medical aid, then they took him on to Scott's Bluff to a hospital.

BAN JOHNSON SAYS CHANGE IS COMING

American League Magnates Think Too Many National Men on Commission.

CONFERS WITH HERRMANN

Chicago, Nov. 1.—President B. B. Johnson of the American league, in a statement tonight, admitted that there "probably will be a change in the complexion of the National Base Ball commission."

The statement was issued after two afternoon newspapers had quoted Mr. Johnson as saying that August Herrmann, chairman of the commission, would be deposed. Immediate denial of the statement was made. President Johnson, however, said that certain club owners of the American league were opposed to "too much National league in the composition of the National commission."

Confers with Johnson

Mr. Herrmann is president of the Cincinnati club of the National league and has been chairman of the National commission since the formation of the body, under the agreement of both leagues. He was in conference with President Johnson here last week regarding questions involving the commission.

Must Must Agree on Third

New York, Nov. 1.—The chairman of the National commission is elected annually by the votes of the two major league presidents, which means that both Johnson and Tener must agree upon the third member, since a difference of opinion would result in a deadlock. As both league presidents are automatically members of the commission, as at present constituted, the only way in which the complexion of the body could be changed would be the election of a third member not affiliated with either league in place of the present chairman, who also is the president and chief stockholder of the Cincinnati National league club.

Taxpayers Resent Paving Assessment

The city council, sitting as a board of equalization, received numerous protests against special taxes assessed to pay cost of paving Center street, Thirty-sixth street west to city limits.

The protestors contend that the special assessments do not compare with the benefits accruing to the property which is taxed. They further state that they did not sign a petition for this improvement; that the council invoked a new law pertaining to "main thoroughfares."

Boulevard Theater Gives Big Hallowe'en Party

Hallowe'en festivities reigned supreme Tuesday night at the Boulevard theater. The innovation of a midnight Hallowe'en matinee established another step in suburban movie picturedom for Omaha. With keen interest old and young joined into the spirit of the midnight frolic. The theater was dressed most appropriately for this midnight entertainment. Decorations in keeping with Hallowe'en were in evidence everywhere, both out and inside. The regular evening shows were held on schedule time. A half hour, from 11 to 11:30, gave ample time for the few changes necessary for the matinee. The music aided in producing the right atmosphere, being of light frolicsome nature. Besides the regular pictures, "Dancing Davy," a successful Orpheum circuit dancer, gave a combination of comedy, eccentric dancing and singing much to the audience's liking.

LANNIN ANNOUNCES DEAL

Boston, Nov. 1.—The Boston American league baseball team has been sold to Harry H. Frazer of New York and Hugh Ward of Philadelphia. Joseph Lannin of this city, the former owner, made the announcement tonight.

WILSON OBJECTS TO ATTACKS ON POLICY

and governmental activities," he continued. He spoke of the shipping bill, saying it was intended to pave the way for private activity. "Out of a mixed collection of people," he continued, "we have got to establish a unit. 'I want to register my solemn protest here against the use of our foreign relations for political purposes. I cannot, I will not consider any man a patriot who does this. They bring in questions, the details of which they are ignorant. Some times lives are involved.'"

The president urged co-operation. "When this war is over," he concluded, "we will get down to business."

Speech at Johnson

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 1.—After shaking hands with crowds at fifteen cities and towns in New York state, President Wilson arrived here at 1:20 o'clock this afternoon on his final trip of the campaign. His train was twenty minutes late, because of the frequent stops en route.

Greeted With Cheers

Johnson City, N. Y., Nov. 1.—When President Wilson's special train passed through here today, the executive was greeted by thousands of the employes of a shoe company, which recently established the eight-hour day. The workmen and their families repeatedly applauded the president, who shook hands with many.

Alluding to the shoe company's action in effecting an eight-hour day as an indication of a spirit which diminished feeling between capital and labor, the president said:

"I want to express my regret that I was not able to be here last Saturday to celebrate what I think was a very significant thing, the action of the firm of Endicott, Johnson & Co. in giving its employes eight hours, not only for the reasons that are generally given, but also for better reasons, because they regard men and all their employes as members of the same business family with them. If that sort of feeling existed everywhere there would be no question between capital and labor. I want to congratulate you upon living under such auspices and tell you how very much obliged to you I am for this real welcome."

STIEHM LONGS FOR MIX WITH HUSKERS

Possibility He May Be Accommodated by Nebraska Next Fall.

NO CHANCE THIS SEASON

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

Lincoln, Nov. 1.—(Special Telegram.)—"Jumbo" Stiehm is hankering for a game with his old love, Nebraska, according to word brought back to Lincoln by one of Stiehm's friends.

The Hoosier pilot is convinced he can trim the Huskers. There is no chance for a battle with the Hoosiers this season, but it is possible that the Nebraska athletic board will accommodate Stiehm next fall.

Another ragged practice has caused real alarm in the Husker camp on the eve of the big battle with Ames next Saturday for the Missouri valley title. Four men were out of practice last night because of injuries and the same number tonight. The scrubs toyed with the varsity.

Stewart plans to call in the alumni Thursday and Friday nights to assist in whipping a little fighting spirit into the Huskers. The practices have been dispiriting and Dr. Stewart believes some of the old stars can inject a little pep into it.

Illinois Falls Down. The University of Illinois eleven, which has been in the championship class for several years, is proving somewhat softer for their opponents than in previous seasons.

Jurors Rejoice When Dismissed from Court

Because of the difficulty of getting cases ready for trial, Presiding Judge Sears of the district court dismissed all the jurors with the exception of those in Judge Estelle's court. When the presiding judge announced that they were dismissed the jurors heaved a big sigh of relief, one of them, Robert B. Carter, presenting Judge Sears with a red carnation with "his compliments and thanks."
