

SUICIDAL LOGIC OF THE DEMOCRATS

Satisfaction is Merely Not Wanting Too Intensely What You Should Have.

MUCH LESS IS ENOUGH

By A. R. GROH. Some people are never satisfied—always grumbling, grumbling.

Now here are these folks, kicking about the high cost of living. They say the democrats didn't keep their pledge in the platform of four years ago to "reduce the cost of living."

"Remember they reduced the tariff on sugar. We used to get twenty pounds for 40 cents in the wicked days of republican high tariff. Now we get thirteen pounds. But, shucks, it isn't good for you to eat too much sugar. It's a good idea to cut down on it. If you didn't eat so much it wouldn't cost you so much.

Take canned goods. Canned tomatoes only cost about twice as much as they did four years ago, and canned corn and peas and beans have only gone up about 60 per cent.

"Spuds and Eggs. Potatoes only cost twice as much as they did last year, and eggs are only about 40 per cent higher than they were four years ago.

Then there's butter. The same quality that used to cost 25 cents a pound only costs 37 today. What's a few cents on a pound of butter? We really eat too much butter. And if we would only eat half as much as we did under republican administration why our butter bill wouldn't be as large as it was then.

Of course, it's true that flour has doubled in price. Costs about $10.45 a barrel. That's more than it cost in civil war times, but we're not living in civil war times, are we? Why go way back into ancient history like that?

Milk has gone up 50 per cent. We really drink too much milk in this country. We would probably be better off without so much. Apt to be microbes and things in it.

Yes, shoes have doubled and tripled in price, but—well, there's no doubt some good reason for that.

Meats have gone up from 50 to 100 per cent, though the packing houses are turning out greater quantities than they did four years ago. But then, probably the people are eating more and that made the price go up. We eat too much meat, anyway.

Nothing to Worry About. You can get dried lima beans, real nice ones, for 10 cents a pound. They're good, nourishing food, too. These haven't gone up, at least not very much. And oatmeal is advertised at six pounds for a quarter. Oatmeal is mighty nourishing and anybody can afford to pay a quarter for six pounds. Cornmeal doesn't cost much, either, and cornmeal mush is very nutritious.

I just have impatience with these kickers—always grumbling just because the democrats raised the cost of living 50 or 60, or at most, 100 per cent.

Speakers at C. E. Meeting In Omaha Pulpits Sunday

The following assignments of speakers have been made from the Christian Endeavor state convention for the Omaha churches Sunday morning.

ECZEMA ON NECK SPREAD OVER HANDS

In Blisters, Itching and Burning Were Intense. Could Not Sleep. Caused Severe Pain.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"Eczema broke out in places on my neck and hands, and later it was clear around my neck and it spread over my hands. It was in the form of blisters and the itching and burning were so intense that I had to scratch all the time and could not sleep well nights. It caused quite severe pain and I could not put my hands in water or do my regular work, and my hands were badly inflamed.

Tabloids of Politics

Little Items About the Progress of the Campaign.

Frank S. Howell, chairman of the republican county central committee, has authorized the following statement of the political situation as viewed by himself:

"From this day, until every voter shall have cast his ballot, each elector will be asking of himself the serious question:

"What of the next four years?" "As usual, the democratic party commenced its national campaign stronger than it finishes. I have failed to witness a campaign in my thirty-three years of observation of politics, wherein democratic issues have been strengthened when the voters understood what they mean.

"Democratic doctrines usually suffer when exposed to light. The only issue upon which they have been consistent is that of tariff for revenue only, or free trade. Every time they have won, it worked their destruction.

"I only see victory for Mr. Hughes. Each day renders his election more certain. The conditions in Nebraska have been rapidly changing in the last two weeks and the changes to Mr. Hughes will be even more pronounced as the solemn hour of election approaches."

Frank C. Best, chairman of the finance committee of the county commissioners, states that election judges and clerks will receive their pay just as soon as the election commissioner has certified the payroll.

Ben S. Baker, republican nominee for congress, spoke Thursday evening at Valley.

John L. Kennedy addressed a meeting of Italian citizens Thursday evening. He received a cordial reception and was promised strong support by these men. Those who arranged the meeting were Joseph Cesto, Joseph Calabria, E. G. Maggi, Sebastian Salerno and Carl Marfisi.

BRYAN WILL HOLD OPEN AIR MEETING

Commoner, for First Time in His Life, Can't Hire a Hall in Nebraska.

HAS "SOMETHING TO SAY"

W. J. Bryan will speak Saturday evening on Capitol avenue, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets, from a temporary platform, to an audience which will stand on the pavement and have the star-studded sky for a canopy.

Mr. Bryan will "have a few things to say" according to the promoters of the meeting. He will voice approval of President Wilson, speak in behalf of the proposed prohibitory amendment and will express his mind on the local situation which makes it necessary for him to speak in Omaha at an outdoor meeting.

"It will be the first time in Mr. Bryan's political career that he will have been required to speak at an outdoor meeting in Omaha, or at least the first time that he could not "hire a hall" in Omaha, so the prohibitionists declare.

Inside information indicate that the meeting will be full of "pep." Lysle I. Abbott will preside and I. J. Dunn will give a preliminary address.

Mr. Bryan will be met at Union depot by a committee of men. Mayor Dahlinman issued a permit for the meeting on Capitol avenue. The north steps of the postoffice will be used by as many as can find seating space.

The committee having the Bryan meeting in charge claim that the "wets" rented every place where a Bryan meeting might be held, except the public streets and the blue sky.

Afraid of the TRUTH

Omaha will repudiate the cowardly tactics of the Prosperity League in trying to prevent W. J. Bryan from speaking in Omaha. There is no other explanation for their having tied up the Auditorium and vacant lots, in order that even a tent may not be erected for him.
