To the Dry Employers of Omaha: The Christian women of Omaha appeal to the employers to allow their employees who are in sympathy with the dry movement a few hours off Tuesday to assist in the work at the polls and other places where they are needed.

The wets give their employes all the time they want to help them. Why should we be less active? Men of Omaha, we need your help on Tuesday. It will not hurt your business, it will boost it.

An appeal from the women who would give their last drop of blood for their children's welfare.

thorized the use of his name in connection with the letter being sent out to the voters endorsing Senator Hitchcock, and that he had never even been consulted about it. He stated that, on the contrary, he was for John L. Kennedy for United States senator.

Not Connected With Society. Rev. Olaf Lind, pastor of the Swedish church at Holdrege, stated to Alvin F. Johnson, Omaha attorney, over the long-distance telephone yesterday afternoon, that he knew nothing whatever of the Independence Conference, and that he had never been consulted about the use of his name on the letter used in endorsing Senator Hitchcock. He stated that he had with 130 other citizens of Holdrege of Swedish origin formally endorsed John L. Kennedy for United States senator and that he was still for him.

Rev. C. A. Lonnquist, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church at Astell, when called on the long-distance telephone about the use of his name on the letter, also said that he had nothing to do with it, that he knew nothing about it and that he was not a member of the conference.

Oscar Kinman, whose name also appears on the letter, is a farmer at Keene, Neb. His brother, Victor Kinman, when reached by telephone last night, stated that Oscar Kinman was a staunch supporter of John L. Kennedy and that he was not a member of the conference and not familiar with it. He stated this positively for his brother, who was in the field husking corn, and not to be reached.

Swedish People Indignant. Late last night Rev. A. T. Seashore, head of Wahoo college, stated by telephone that he had been deluged with inquiries from all over the state as to this letter. He stated that the Swedish people were wildly indignant, as within the week a recommendation signed by 755 voters of Swedish origin had been issued endorsing John L. Kennedy of Omaha for the United States senate, which recommendation announces that Mr. Kennedy is the nominee of both the republican and progressive parties, and as such stands for the principles and ideals in which a large majority of the Swedish-Americans believe. The recommendation represents voters from more than fifty towns and communities in Nebraska.

Name Not Authorized.

Alvin F. Johnson, attorney, received the following telegram from Carl L. Chimbloom of Chicago, prominent attorney, late last night: "Prof. David Nyvall authorizes me to say that he is not a member of the American Independence Conference and has not authorized the use of his name in any letter or literature supporting Senator Hitchcock in Nebraska, but, on the contrary, Mr. Nyvall repudiates any use of his name in that connection. Mr. Nyvall was requested to support congressional candidates in Illinois run by the American Independence Conference and refused to permit his name to be used also in that connection."

annual report, declared "The last year has been one of the greatest ever seen in the Christian Endeavor world-wide campaign for millions. We are mobilizing, vitalizing and evangelizing our forces as never before."

The "campaign for millions" is a world campaign for 1,000,000 new Christian Endeavor members, 10,000 new societies, $1,000,000 for missions, and so on.

Reports were made also by Vice President B. A. Shively of Calloway, Grace F. Hooper of Crete, superintendent of "Juniors" and field secretary; Rev. E. H. Pontius of Mynard, superintendent of the "quiet hour"; Mrs. Oscar Ward of Minden, superintendent of the good literature and efficiency department.

"Tenth Legion."

The "Tenth legion" among the Christian Endeavor societies of the state has 655 known members, according to the report of the superintendent of this work, Mrs. Viola Miller of Lincoln. All these set aside at least one-tenth of their total incomes for Christian work.

Rev. Thomas Evans of Kearney, formerly of Omaha, superintendent of the good citizenship committee, emphasized the words "humanity" and "citizenship" which, he declared, would eventually be among the greatest words because they would unite men of all denominations, all occupations, all stations in life.

Rev. Charles P. Lang of Tilden, superintendent of the Esperanto, or universal language department, reported a number of additions to those who are now studying this language. He declared it would result in the knitting closer of ties of universal brotherhood through making all men speak one tongue.

For Better Understanding.

"It will result in a better understanding among men and nations," he said, "and we will stop caricaturing the Jew, jeering at the Irishman, mocking the German, sneering at the colored man." Esperanto, he said, is such a simple language that it can be mastered in but a few hours of study.

William Ralph Hall of Philadelphia, speaking of the necessity of living up to the Christian life, said: "You wouldn't try to run your automobile by saying you didn't believe it was necessary to use oil and gasoline, and you didn't see the use of inflating the tires. It would be just as foolish to try to live the Christian life without engaging in prayer and Bible study, not spasmodically, but regularly and faithfully."

The Friday afternoon session included a missionary playlet, "Sunlight or Candlelight," showing the raising of the "people who sit in darkness to the full light of the sun of righteousness."

The school of methods, with conferences on missionary, intermediate and junior work, was also a feature of the afternoon session.

Exhibits of various kinds are shown in the theater and the lobby. An interesting one is the missionary exhibit. It includes picture post cards from scores of different countries and in dozens of different languages.

T. R. SAYS WILSON COVERS NATION'S FACE WITH SHAME

guided by the spirit of the lesson taught by the careers of Washington and Lincoln, though methods in present industrial life must differ, from those that obtained in the time of these men.

Can't Cripple Business.

"We must recognize as modern Germany has recognized," said Mr. Roosevelt, "that it is folly to try to cripple business by making it ineffective or to fail to insist that the wage earner and consumer must be given their full share of prosperity that comes from successful application of modern industrial instrumentalities."

Colonel Roosevelt charged that though President Wilson had said that when he "started in one direction he would never turn back" his whole record has consisted in turning back at every point where he was bidden to do so either by fear or self interests.

He has been claiming credit because in the cause of Belgium, he has preserved a neutrality that would make Pontius Pilate quiver with envy and yet, in his speech last Thursday he said that never again must we be neutral. He has kept us unprepared, yet he now says we must enter the next war.

"He has looked on without a single throb of his cold heart, without the least quickening of his tepid pulse, while gallant Belgium was trampled in the bloody mire, while the Turk inflicted on the Armenian and Syrian Christians wrongs that would have blacked the memory of Attila, and he has claimed credit for his neutral indifference to their sufferings; and yet, ten days before election he says the United States must hereafter refuse to allow small nations to be mishandled by big powerful nations. "Do it now Mr. Wilson! If you mean what you say, Mr. Wilson, show that you mean it by your action in the present."

VOTE AGAINST PROHIBITION and Grow With Growing Omaha. A large diamond-shaped graphic with text inside, set against a silhouette of a city skyline.

BEFORE you cast your vote for governor, inquire whether the "gang" fighting Judge Sutton is doing so because they want a better governor or because they want a man to help them keep control of the "underworld." If elected governor, Judge Sutton has promised the people of Omaha to use his untiring activities to break up the "gang" now operating in our city and will bring all the lawful resources at his command to prevent commercialization of vice and to keep any man or set of men from making a profit off the weaknesses and frailties of humanity. Judge Sutton was an early homesteader of this state and has served more than eleven years as district judge, and pledges the people of Nebraska as follows: Strict enforcement of law. Economy in public affairs. A higher standard of character and efficiency in appointive officials. Constant improvement in administration of the affairs of public institutions. Encouragement of all educational institutions along progressive rather than political lines. A better chance everywhere for the boys and girls of Nebraska. A square deal between business institutions and the people—between corporations and the public.

Cartoon illustration of a large man in a top hat carrying a sack of money labeled 'THE PROFITS'. He is surrounded by smaller men. One says 'THIS POOR FELLOW WILL LOSE HIS JOB IF YOU VOTE PROHIBITION'. Another says 'I'LL GIVE HIM A JOB SELLING GROCERIES INSTEAD OF BOOZE WHEN PEOPLE QUIT SPENDING THEIR MONEY WITH YOU'. A sign above says 'BREWERS' PROSPERITY LEAGUE'. A sign on the man says 'BARTENDER'. At the bottom right, it says 'Dry Campaign Committee.'
