

What is Going On in Society Circles

Social Affairs Scheduled. Mrs. C. B. Coon will entertain the "1911" Bridge club at her apartments in the Angelus Wednesday afternoon.

Tuesday Night Dancing Club. At the instigation of some of the influential members of the Thursday Subscription and Saturday Dinner-Dance clubs, which had for the most part duplicate memberships, Mr. J. E. Claffin and his partner, Miss Ethel Hill, who are now at the Fontenelle, have organized the two old clubs into a new club, which will meet each Tuesday evening at the Fontenelle.

Some of the prominent names in the list of members will be: Mrs. A. and Madeline Ward Burgess, Luther Kounias, Louis Nash, Charles T. Kounias.

Friday Night Dancing Club. The Friday Night Dancing club held its regular weekly party Friday evening at Druid hall, with over seventy-five couples present. A special feature introduced during the evening proved very popular, the "raffle one step," in which partners were chosen in approved gamblers' fashion.

At the Metropolitan. Miss Grace Sorenson has been asked to give a free story hour for children at the Metropolitan club house Saturday, November 18, at 3 o'clock. Any and all children may come, and if they enjoy the stories and the games which follow they will be given another such treat December 2 and 16.

This week the regular Tuesday evening dancing party at the Metropolitan will not be given because the majority of people will prefer to be downtown to hear election returns. Friday evening the party will be given as usual.

Last Tuesday evening the gray and rose ball room was the scene of several gay parties. Seven members of the Original Cooking club gave dinner parties and afterward went to the Metropolitan for the dance.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bernhard Prinz had at their dinner Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Redick, Mrs. Helen Coppington, Messrs. Earl Gannett and W. Hull. Dining with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kountze were Mr. and Mrs. J. de Forest Richards, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Foye, Mrs. Emma Nash and Mr. Frank Haskell, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Burns had with them Mr. and Mrs. Hosford, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Davis, Miss Daphne Peters and Mr. Robert Burns. Mr. and Mrs. Luther Kountze gave their dinner at the Fontenelle and had Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Kennedy, Mrs. J. T. Stewart, 2d, and Mr. Cuthbert Potter. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barker's party included Miss Louise Dinning, Miss Elizabeth Davis, Miss Mary Burkley, Messrs. Ray Low, Ben Warren and Lawrence Brinker.

After the dance most of the parties went to the Fontenelle for supper. Franco-Belgian Circles. If you feel deeply burdened over the suffering of wounded European soldiers, demonstrate your sympathy in a very practical way by becoming a member of one of the numerous relief societies which the Franco-Belgian relief society is forming for work at its new headquarters downtown. Every day of the week except Saturday has been taken by some group of workers. On Monday morning a company under the direction of Mesdames George Cassels Smith, W. J. Hynes, B. W. Scandrett and the secretary, Miss Young, will work; Monday afternoon a Bemis park circle has engaged; Tuesday, all day, the Dundee circle under the leadership of Mrs. Ezra Millard will continue its good work of last season; Miss Anne Gifford, Miss Daphne Peters and Miss Thummel have organized a circle for Wednesday morning; they will be followed in the afternoon by members of the Woman's club; Thursday, all day, the original Franco-Belgian society will work, and Friday will be given over to the women of Trinity cathedral.

Residence Changes. Mr. and Mrs. Will Coad have taken the W. J. Burgess house on Harney street for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Burgess have gone to the Colonial. Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Rood have given up their suite at the Colonial and have moved to one of the Colonial apartments next door. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Love came in
