A PHOTOGRAPHIC REPRODUCTION OF THE ORIGINAL NEWSPAPER

PAMOUS AUTHORS HAVE WRITTEN THE STAR THE REASONS WHY THEY ARE GOING TO VOTE FOR PRESIDENT WILSON'S REELECTION. THE FIRST AUTHOR GUOTED IS RAY STANNARD BAK-ER. HIS REASON IS AT THE TOP OF PAGE S.

The Seattle Star

: THE ONLY PAPER IN SEATTLE THAT DARES TO PRINT THE NEWS :

SEATTLE, WASH, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1916. ONE CENT

ON TRAINS AND

IT'S GETTING PRETTY WARM FOR SOME OF THE FELLOWS WHO HAVE BEEN BUSILY BOOT LEGGING. BUT WEATHERMAN SALISBURY PREDICTS COOLER TIMES, AND THUSLY HE VOCIFIERATES: "TONIGHT AND THURSDAY. FAIR; COOLER THIS AFTERNOON."

Police Know About 300 Joints, Says Putnam, Head of City's Dry

HODGE BOOZE CASE TO GO TO GRAND JURORS

A grand jury investigation of the disappearance of large quantities or liquor held by Sheriff Hodge and said by him to have been destroyed without a court order, was being planned Wednesday by Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Palmer.

An investigation started by Deputy Prosecutor Palmer of the alleged destruction of 116 cases and eight barrels of whisky brought out a failure on the part of members of the sheriff's office to account for the liquor before Justice Brinker, who late Tuesday recommended

Palmer scoured the tide flats where the liquor was supposed to have been destroyed and instead of 1,392 bottle tops and eight barrels, less than 200 bottle tops. were found.

Justice Brinker said that it was evident that the case was so serious as to demand further investigation. "This court can do nothing." Palmer was the only witness in Brinker said. "so I believe that it the case. He explained to the should be turned over to the grand court the finding of the broken pury, which meets early in November."

It was intimated that the Mil-

Palmer said immediately after wankee railroad would bring suit the hearing that he would push the case to the end
Prosecutor Lundin, however, said that he didn't agree with Justice Hrinker; and that, unless he found move evidence, the Hodge case

These Men Are Involved in Booze Cases which warned employee of the pressure of the pressure of police.

Dry squad officers claimed to have seen Margett, and grappled Margett and his confederates were taking a farry boar across lake taking a farry boar across lake

Ex-Policeman Margett was all he had heard rumors that Margett lowed to resign from the poince description of the dry squad charged him with "I don't doubt but what some of trying to tip off a raid on Clarence Gerald's cafe, last spring.

When the dry squad investigators, in plain clothes, entered the place, Margett was stunding near Cache Access Last.

Sheriff Bob Hodge

Tells Court Rich Owner

SIX WEEKS: EX-COP IS

That graft of from $50,000 to $80,000 a month in protection money paid by bootleggers, gamblers and rooming house proprietors will be exposed if the dry squad is again given a free hand to follow up the arrest of ex-Policeman Margett, made in a raid early Wednesday at 5500 First ave. S. was the statement of Sergeant Putnam.

"At least 300 hotels, rooming houses, soft drink establishments, negro clubs and gambling houses are operating in defiance of the law," he declared Wednesday.

A month and a half age the dry squad had the houer situation pretty well in hand.

"Today, with all these places running, it is certain that the police, or at least members of the department, know about them and are not trying to suppress them.

"Any citizen can figure out what amount of protection paid by these 300, or more, places must be if only as little as $100 a month is paid by each. Twenty-five dollars a week is not excessive, considering the high price of booze.

"If the dry squad had not been hampered in almost every conceivable way, its raids tipped off, its telephone tapped, and threats of personal violence circulated—many of these from within the department-conditions couldn't have become as thoroly rotten as

If Prohibition Carries CAN OMAHA HOPE TO ESCAPE THE APPALLING CONDITIONS Prevailing in Seattle? MR. VOTER, THINK!

Polls Will Be Open Till 8 P. M.

Seattle is the metropolis of the State of Washington. The people of that State adopted prohibition January 1, 1916