Republican Chairman Reiterates His Confidence That Republicans Will Elect Hughes.

ILLINOIS SAFE FOR G. O. P.

One of Heaviest Votes Ever Cast in Ohio Expected Today.

WARM FINISH IN INDIANA

New York, Nov. 6.—The national chairman of the democratic and republican committees were both busy today, receiving final reports on the results of their respective campaigns.

Illinois Safely Republican.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Alvin T. Hart, manager of western republican national headquarters, said today:

"I am confident that Illinois is safely republican. There has been a great sweep to Hughes and Fairbanks in this state in the last ten days, and as a result I believe Illinois will give a plurality of between 100,000 and 300,000 to the republican national ticket."

Expect Heavy Vote in Ohio. Columbus, O., Nov. 6.—One of the heaviest votes ever recorded is expected to be cast in Ohio at tomorrow's election.

W. L. Finley, democratic state chairman, issued a statement saying President Wilson and the entire ticket will carry Ohio by 100,000 votes, while Charles Hatfield, republican state chairman, predicted that Hughes, Governor Willis and Myron T. Herrick will carry the state by "from 60,000 to 100,000."

Both campaign headquarters were agreed that there is seemingly more interest in Ohio over the election of a president than of the state ticket.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 6.—Activities at the republican and democratic Indiana state committee headquarters here continued on this, the last day of the 1916 campaign, while J. Frank Hanly, the prohibition presidential nominee, started this morning on a whirlwind trip through the state with thirteen speeches before him.

Leaders of the two major parties, while they labored over plans to get out the vote tomorrow, reiterated their claims that victory would come to their respective parties in both the state and nation.

Hard-Fought Campaign In New Hampshire Ends Manchester, N. H., Nov. 6.—The campaign just closed was the hardest fought in this state in a decade and tonight both parties claimed victory here as assured.

The democratic state committee expressed confidence for John E. Hutchinson as governor and two democratic candidates for senator.

Whitman and Seabury Make Final Appeals to the Electorate for Aid.

DEMOCRATS MAKE CLAIMS

New York, Nov. 6.—With Governor Whitman and Samuel Seabury, republican and democratic candidates for governor, respectively, making final appeals to voters of this city, the New York campaign closed tonight, only a few hours before the polls opened.

Because New York is regarded as a pivotal state in the presidential election, chief popular interest in tomorrow's voting centered in the contest between President Wilson and Charles E. Hughes.

Forecast tonight of the result depends upon whether the person making the prediction is a democrat or republican. Both sides agreed that the tide will be turned on the national ticket by those who voted as progressives four years ago.

While the republicans contend the greater part of those who supported Roosevelt four years ago will swing to Hughes this year, the democrats scoff at their claims.

New Jersey.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 6.—With both democratic and republican state chairmen expressing entire confidence in the outcome tomorrow the New Jersey campaign ended late tonight.

On the eve of tomorrow's election the chairmen of both the republican and democratic state committees claimed victory by at least 100,000.

Each side predicted tonight that it would make gains in the congressional delegation and in the state senate and assembly.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 6.—Preparations were completed tonight to handle the election in Michigan tomorrow, which is expected to bring out the heaviest vote in the state's history.

It is expected that at least 120,000 persons will vote here.

Republican and democratic state leaders reiterated previous claims that their presidential candidate would carry Michigan.

St. Paul, Nov. 6.—Old-fashioned rallies closed the campaign in Minnesota tonight and both democratic and republican leaders reiterated predictions of victory for their ticket.

Minnesota. St. Paul, Nov. 6.—Old-fashioned rallies closed the campaign in Minnesota tonight and both democratic and republican leaders reiterated predictions of victory for their ticket.

Montpelier, Vt., Nov. 6.—Estimates that Hughes would carry Vermont by 170,000, and that Horace R. Graham, republican candidate for governor, would win by 20,000, were made tonight by Stanley S. Wilson, chairman of the republican state committee.

North Dakota.

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 6.—The campaign of John Burke, democratic candidate for United States senator, has attracted most attention in North Dakota.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 6.—Both republican and democratic campaign managers tonight reiterated their claims of victory tomorrow by wide margins.

Connecticut. New Haven, Conn., Nov. 6.—Both republican and democratic campaign managers tonight reiterated their claims of victory tomorrow by wide margins.

Wall Street Trying to Save a Senator

This telegram went over the wires yesterday to 1,000 Nebraska bankers: "Omaha, Nov. 6.—The strong fight made by Senator Hitchcock when the Federal Reserve banking act was being framed greatly improved that bill. We hope you can join others in helping to re-elect Senator Hitchcock. His position on the committee of banking and currency is of great value to the west."

C. T. KOUNTZE, Vice President, First National Bank of Omaha. Mr. Kountze is also a member of the Wall street banking firm of Kountze Brothers, New York.

OMAHA TEACHERS ALREADY ENROLL

Convention of Nebraska State Teachers' Association Will Open Wednesday.

LIST ROOMS FOR VISITORS

Teachers of the schools in Greater Omaha are registering this afternoon for the convention of the Nebraska State Teachers' association. Treasurer J. F. Matthews of the state association has installed a desk at the Hotel Rome, where he is receiving the registrations of a lot of the local teachers.

Election Ballots.

Delegates when enrolling get a ballot on which they vote to the various offices of the association for the ensuing year. This is merely a primary election for the nomination of officers.

Little activity has been noted thus far in the politics of the association, except the candidacy of Miss Ruth Pyrtle of Lincoln for president of the association, backed by an organization of women teachers from over the state.

J. F. Matthews, treasurer of the association for the last several years, is a candidate for re-election to that position.

Demand for Rooms.

Rooms for the visiting teachers are going to be in great demand. Arrangements have been made to have the Young Men's Christian association handle a rooming bureau this year, and persons who have good rooms for teachers on car lines not too far out are reporting the fact to the Young Men's Christian association, where the rooms are listed.

Four Killed as Jitney Is Struck by Train

Camden, N. J., Nov. 6.—Three men and a woman were killed by a Pennsylvania railroad train which struck a jitney bus in which they were riding at Freeman station, near here, today.

One of the passengers was identified as Edward Stahlknecht, an insurance inspector of Philadelphia. The other men and the woman have not yet been identified.

Once More, Lest We Forget

Once more, lest we forget, let the people of Omaha be reminded of the losses sustained by this city under the present democratic administration at Washington.

The army quartermaster's department has been removed to Chicago.

The Indian supply depot has been sent to San Francisco.

The signal service school has been transferred from Fort Omaha to Fort Leavenworth.

The food inspection department, that had its headquarters here, has been taken away.

The Federal Reserve bank, that by rights belonged to Omaha, was handed to Kansas City, even though it put two of the twelve banks in the one state of Missouri.

The balloon aviation station, recommended for Omaha by the chief signal officer, has been held up by the Ohio secretary of war as a promised bribe to Akron on condition that Ohio go democratic.

Lest we forget, let it be recalled that when Omaha wanted to present its claims for the Federal Reserve bank, asking the aid of Senator Hitchcock was out of the question, because he was then so deplorably "in bad" with the Wilson administration that his attempt to help would have been a hindrance.

Hart, manager of western republican national headquarters, today received telegrams from national committee men, state chairmen and local leaders from every state in the jurisdiction of the western campaign committee predicting victory for Hughes and Fairbanks at the polls tomorrow.

"I see no reason for changing my forecast of the election issued last Saturday except to add to the republican column several states which in my first statement I said might be doubtful," said Mr. Hart.

"We are advising women to vote the straight republican ticket tomorrow to avoid the possibility of making a mistake if they undertake to scratch their ballot," said Miss Vittum.
