Sloan Finishes Campaign With Rally at Aurora

Aurora, Neb., Nov. 6.—(Special)—Congressman Charles H. Sloan finished his campaign Saturday night with a great rally at the opera house in Aurora. The building was crowded with men and women and their address of nearly two hours' duration was listened to with great interest and much enthusiasm.

Mr. Sloan delivered five addresses in Hamilton county Saturday. At Phillips, Gilmer, Stockham and Hampton, large crowds of voters listened to the congressman.

Mr. Sloan declared that it was congress and not the president that has kept us out of war with European nations.

"Congress restrained the hand of the president in his dealings with Europe," he said, "and we have at all times been at peace with the nations across the water. Congress gave free hand to the president at Vera Cruz and we have ever since been at war with Mexico. The president's own judge advocate general has just recently decided that we are now at war with Mexico. The democrats cannot get by the American people with the slogan 'He has kept us out of war.' The American people have analyzed that slogan and they know it is not the truth."

Kennedy, in Pulpit At Lincoln, Speaks

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 5.—(Special Telegram.)—At the St. Paul's Methodist church tonight the theme was "Nebraska's Going Dry." John L. Kennedy of Omaha, republican candidate for United States senator, occupied the pulpit at the invitation of Rev. T. W. Jeffrey, the local pastor, and spoke at considerable length on the change of conditions accompanying the advance of the world in enlightenment and the reaction which this change bears to the present great moral question of whether the state shall favor the dry amendment to the constitution at the polls next Tuesday.

Senator Norris Makes Address at Lexington

Lexington, Nov. 5.—(Special)—United States Senator George W. Norris, addressed the largest political gathering of any political speaker this season in Auble's hall Friday night. The closest attention was paid to him by the hearers, while he showed the fallacies of free trade as put out by the democrats. He also answered the questions as to what he would have done on the war matter, and especially so on the Mexican trouble, to the satisfaction of the people that heard him. He likened the democrats in congress to a football team, that when the signal was given by President Wilson, they moved as he said. The people that heard him were more than satisfied with the address.

Mr. Bryan Refers To Defeat as Delegate

Crete, Neb., Nov. 6.—(Special)—W. J. Bryan addressed an audience of nearly a thousand voters at the Sokol theater Sunday evening, under the auspices of the Crete Dry Federation. The only mention of politics came toward the close of his lecture, when he pleaded for the democrats to free the party from the influence of the liquor element, and come out for prohibition, for sooner or later both parties would have to do so. He stated that an evidence of the hatred of wet democrats for him was shown when their tool in this state refused to tell the people that Wilson wished him to be elected to the democratic convention, and he was defeated.
