HAPPENINGS IN THE MAGIC CITY

Heaviest Vote in History of South Side Cast in the Recent Election.

CLARK MAKES BIG RUN

The funeral of Michael Gillen, late veteran detective on the local police staff, will be held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Mary's church. Corrected announcement was made this morning by Funeral Director Bernard Larkin, who will have charge of the services.

Election Gossip.

There are just 1,448 drys in the South Side, according to yesterday's record count in the city, county and state election; correspondingly there are 4,557 wets in the district. As predicted, the heaviest vote in the history of the city was cast Tuesday. A total of 5,805 votes were cast on the amendment pro and con, accounting for the largest vote in the history of the South Side.

The next highest voting was for sheriff. McShane skinned through the eighteen precincts with 3,095 votes or a plurality of 660 votes over Mike Clark, who drew 2,435. Presidential electors next came in for count, with a total of 5,400. Wilson getting a majority of a little over 2,000 over Hughes. The town went strong for Neville, democratic candidate for governor, the majority being 1,600.

Race for Police Judge.

In the race for police judge, Harvey Reed, present incumbent, ran a wide third with Fitzgerald and Madden, leading with 3,000 votes and his co-partner next with a little more than 1,000 less. Reed drew a ballot of 2,100 or nearly 800 behind McMadden. The present judge carried but four of the seventeen voting precincts. Judge Foster polled a vote of 1878, according to the last returns and had majorities as second man in three precincts.

West L. and West Q street precincts returned overwhelming majorities for the democratic candidates. It was apparently plain in all districts that the democratic candidates were carried, weight, fifth and all, on the shoulders of the wet forces, which insured their election. Governorial returns corresponded almost in detail with the presidential count. Neville was an easy leader.

The knifing that was given Henry Murphy, erstwhile popular city attorney of South Omaha, was the talk of the city. The fierce fight waged by personal enemies and the open turnout against him at the polls on election day, are held as accountable for his weak showing. According to the count he carried but one precinct, and that by a majority of less than twenty votes, the district being his residence territory.

Mike Clark's splendid showing was cause for much conversation. The street car inspector won overwhelming majorities in five South Side precincts and played an even count in one with his opponent, McShane.

To Play Council Bluffs.

South High and Council Bluffs will clash in one of the premier football battles of the local season tomorrow afternoon on the Luxon foot ball lot at Twenty-fourth and Vinton streets. Coach Patton's team is in a weakened condition, due to the loss of players who are down in their studies, but will put up a hard fight.

The Bluffs eleven is generally conceded as an exceptionally strong team. Central defeated this combination three weeks ago by a score of 7 to 0.

Joe Dworak, fast halfback on the local eleven, is the banner product of the team. He is expected to star with Ruge and Corck, tackle and end, also in the lineup. Patton's team averages less than 145 pounds in weight since several regulars have been dropped from the lineup. The game will be called at 3 o'clock.

MOTHER WEEPS AS SHE TELLS TRAGEDY

Dispute Over Little Daughter of Dead Woman is Dramatic Court Scene.

GRANDPARENTS IN FIGHT

Mrs. Mary Mynter of Council Bluffs, mother of Mrs. Thomas Swift, a member of the ill-fated party that plunged into the Missouri river in the Sappy county automobile tragedy several months ago, broke down on the witness stand in Judge Wakeley's court when attorneys cross-examined her as to her daughter's death.

She was testifying in her own behalf in the legal fight being waged for the guardianship of 7-year-old Lillian McEldon, daughter of Mrs. Swift.

The former husband of the automobile tragedy victim seeks to get his daughter away from the grandparents in Council Bluffs. The father, Byron McEldon, was granted joint-guardianship of the child when he and his wife were divorced. Now that the mother is dead he wants full guardianship of his daughter.

Grandmother Wants Her.

The grandmother is making her fight for the little girl on the grounds that practically since Lillian's birth she has made her home with the old folks in Council Bluffs. Mrs. Mynter contends that the child has come to look upon the Mynter home as her own.

It was brought out in the testimony that Lillian is being educated in the Bluffs at the expense of the grandparents. The grandfather is an artist.

To Get Rid of Wrinkles and Bad Complexions

It is more important now than during the period of profuse perspiration, to keep the pores clean. All cosmetics clog the pores in cool weather; this interferes greatly with elimination of waste material, injuring instead of aiding the complexion. Ordinary soaps used serve all the purposes of creases, powders and rouge, giving far better results. It actually does not act on the skin, at the same time unobscuring the pores. Minute particles of soap skin come off day by day, causing not the least discomfort. Gradually the healthy younger skin beneath peeps out, and in less than a fortnight you have a better complexion than you ever dreamed of acquiring. Merely wash with this soap, and your complexion is spread on nightly like cold cream and washed off morning. One ounce usually suffices.
