Thursday Theda Bara in "Her Double Life." Friday, "Dorian's Divorce," featuring Lionel Barrymore. A Sidney Drew comedy will be shown, too. Saturday "The Crimson Stain Mystery," and General program.

Charlie Chaplin in His Funniest Film at Empress
Charlie Chaplin will appear at the Empress starting Monday this week in his seventh two-reel comedy releasing through the Mutual. Ordinarily the Chaplin comedy should have been presented last week, but Mr. Chaplin, actor-author-director, refused to hear anything of it. He demanded ten days more for the delivery of his brain child, "Behind the Screen." "It's the best idea I ever had," wired the clever comedian of the popular feet. "Give me ten more days and I can make it the funniest comedy I ever appeared in." They gave Chaplin thirteen more days. See the result on the Empress screen.

Liberty Serial Featured At the Hippodrome Today
At the Hippodrome today "Liberty" is a feature of live interest. "The Angel of the Attic," a drama is also shown, and two comedies, "In Onions There is Strength" and "A Charming Villain."
