

Nebraska RAIL BOARD LOOKS INTO DEMURRAGE

November 24 Is Date Set for Hearing on Proposed Increase.

TRAIN SERVICE AN ISSUE

Lincoln, Nov. 11.—(Special.)—The Nebraska Railway commission today set a hearing on the elevation of demurrage rates by railroads on freight cars. It is claimed that some roads appropriate cars of other roads, which on agreement they are to pay 45 cents per day for using.

Julian Complains. A complaint comes from Julian that the Missouri Pacific Railroad company refuses to install a telephone in the depot there and has refused for six years. The commission will take the matter up.

The United Commercial Travelers and Travelers' Protective association have filed complaints against the rule of the Union Pacific which compels passengers to cross tracks and take trains on the far side, many times inadequate facilities for protection from the weather being provided.

Train Service Cut. F. J. Nutzman of Berlin makes complaint that the Missouri Pacific has reduced its train service on the Talmage branch of that road, taking off the daily freight train and running it down one day and back the next, thus inconveniencing the shippers of stock.

Kick on Connections. J. H. Linderman, a traveling man, makes complaint that the train from Sioux City on the Minneapolis & Omaha road does not make connections at Norfolk with the Union Pacific at all times and as a consequence travelers are compelled to wait in Norfolk for some hours before going south.

POLITICS BREAKS LAW COMBINATION

J. C. Snyder of Adams Doesn't Return to Nebraska Legislature.

TWO JOHNSONS IN ADAMS

Lincoln, Nov. 11.—(Special.)—The Greenwalt-Snyder combination which was always in evidence during the last session has been broken by the unrelenting hand of politics.

George Greenwalt of Custer, one of the live wires and leading orator of the last session of the legislature will be seen again in a legislative role, but J. C. Snyder of Adams has been defeated. They were inseparable companions and when one left his seat on the floor, the other was sure to follow.

Republicans in Adams. Mr. Snyder was defeated for re-election by Eric Johnson, a republican, and it is an interesting situation when it is discovered that Adams county elects two republicans in place of the two democrats in the last session and both bear the name of Johnson, the other being Fred Johnson.
