Cattle—Receipts were large for a Thursday, 323 cars being reported in. Receipts for the week to date foot up 36,560 head, an enormous gain over election week, but with that exception the smallest of any recent week. As compared with a year ago, however, there is a gain of almost 9,000 head.

The market on all desirable kinds of cattle, feeders as well as killers, was steady, there being a good demand on the part of buyers. Inferior kinds were not much sought after and they closed slow and possibly a little weaker.

Hogs—Hog receipts landed in about the same notches as on the two previous days, the estimate of 173 cars, or 12,300 head, not being quite as large as yesterday's official supply. The four days' run shows continued gains over previous weeks, supplies having been 64,035 head, which is 16,000 larger than a week ago, 13,500 heavier than two weeks ago and fully three times as large as for the corresponding days last year.

Early packer offers here today were as much as 10@15c lower, and with Chicago predicting a fresh break of 15c, or more, early shippers who had large orders were able to fill a good many of them on the opening at figures that were as much as $@10c lower than yesterday. Packers also got some of their first hogs at a $@10c decline, but the combination of the strong shipper request and healthy packing outlet overcame the influence of bear reports from other points. Both packers and shippers steadily raised their offers, and it was not long before almost steady prices were obtainable for nearly everything, while desirable grades looked fully steady, and in some cases stronger at the best time.

Even after the decline had all been made up the trade continued to improve and the close was the best time of the day, being in no case less than fully steady with yesterday, and in many instances quite a little higher. Traders who were on both the early and late markets said the late trade was as much as 15c better than early, and called some of their last hogs $@10c above yesterday.

At any rate the average market was fully steady, despite the fact that a good many hogs sold lower early. Lights that were fat were bought almost as freely as the heavies, and in some cases showed more improvement than anything else, though, of course, the common and thin lights were, as usual, hard to move at any time. Bulk of the sales landed at $9.30@9.60, with several lots as high as $9.70, the top.

Sheep—The fat lamb market was a very uneven affair. Early sales looked generally steady to strong, and in spots a little higher, but there was an uncertain undertone to the trade all through, and some business was done at figures that were actually a little lower. Only about half of the estimated supply had been yarded up to 11 o'clock and this was another factor that made for uncertainty. Among the sales made up to midforenoon were four loads of choice fed lambs that most traders considered in a class by themselves at $12.00, which beats all former figures for this time of year by a wide margin, and is within 35c of the record for the yards. Other fed westerns reached $10.80@10.85, with the bulk scattered on down. Clipped lambs that were mates of yesterday's $10.35 had to go at $10.25. There was no weakness apparent in ewes, a moderate supply finding a ready outlet at figures that were really steady to strong, and were quoted higher by some traders. A new top of $7.85 was established on a two-load bunch, and others equalled yesterday's high market of $7.80.

When the later arrivals began to come up to the barn, packers took hold of them in good shape at prices fully as good as early. Nothing good enough to equal the morning top had showed up at noon, but some reached $11.95, and $11.90 was paid for several bunches. The general market was stronger, with some sales as much as 10c higher, though in a few spots sales figured lower.

Feeders continue to strengthen up, a couple of bands selling today at $10.45, the high mark of the week. Receipts are hardly large enough to make comparisons from day to day, but a big improvement in prices can be seen when they are lined up with quotations of a week ago. This also applies to feeding ewes.

Quotations on Sheep and Lambs—Lambs, good to choice, $11.50@12.00; lambs, fair to good, $11.00@11.50; lambs, feeders, $9.25@10.45; yearlings, good to choice, $8.75@9.50; yearlings, fair to good, $7.75@8.75; yearlings, feeders, $7.00@8.00; wethers, feeders, $7.00@8.50; ewes, good to choice, $7.50@7.85; ewes, fair to good, $6.50@7.50; ewes, plain to culls, $4.00@5.75; ewes, feeding, $4.50@6.25; ewes, breeders, all ages, $6.00@9.50.

Coffee Market.

New York, Nov. 16.—Coffee—The market for futures was fairly active today, but part of the trading was in the way of switching from near to late months, and there was comparatively little change in prices. The opening was unchanged to 3 points lower under offerings which seemed to come chiefly from trade sources and scattering liquidation, probably inspired by the talk of numerous offers from Brazil late yesterday. Houses with European connections were buyers, however, while there was also a moderate demand from Wall street and cotton trade houses on which prices rallied from 8.40c to 8.44c for May. This advance was not fully maintained with the market closing 2 points lower to 3 points higher. Sales, 50,750 bags: November, 8.04c; December, 8.08c; January, 8.14c; February, 8.21c; March, 8.28c; April, 8.34c; May, 8.39c; June 8.45c; July, 8.51c; August, 8.55c; September, 8.60c; October, 8.66c. Owing to the holiday there were no official quotations from Brazil and no fresh offers were reported in the cost and freight market here from Santos.

Shoop Finds Man Who Pawns False Teeth

Officer Shoop, who makes the rounds of the pawnshops, occasionally finds the routine day's work broken by an observation of unusual interest.

His latest experience was to find a set of false teeth, gold-filled. They had been owned by a man who was advanced $2.75 on this artificial part of his being.

"Tough luck when a man has to pawn his teeth," remarked Mr. Shoop.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE

Demand for Lower Grades of Wheat is Slow, but Price Advances a Cent.

CORN MARKET IS ACTIVE

Omaha, November 16, 1916.

The cash grain situation was very quiet today and although the run was fairly good, only a small part of the samples were disposed of before noon. There seemed to be a pretty good demand for the better grades of wheat, but the demand for the lower grades was very slow and most of the No. 4 hard sold at $1.81½@1.82 and the sample grade around $1.79. No. 2 hard wheat sold at about 1c advance, the bulk of today's sales being made at $1.86¼@1.87, while the bulk yesterday sold at $1.86. No. 3 hard wheat also sold higher, but the sales of this grade were very light, the general run of samples going at $1.86.

The corn market was fairly active and with increased receipts and a fairly good cash inquiry, this cereal ruled from ½c lower to 1c higher.

The demand for oats was considerably better and while the trade in this cereal during the early trading hours was slow, the situation improved somewhat and a goodly portion of the samples were disposed of at a ½c advance. The standard grade of oats and the No. 3 white sold at about the same price and the bulk of the No. 3 white offerings brought 55¼c.

There was a pretty good inquiry for yellow corn and the better grades of this cereal sold at a good premium over the other varieties. The bulk of the yellow corn sold at 92½c and the white brought from 93c to 95¼c.

Receipts of rye and barley were fairly good, but the demand for these cereals was rather slow.

Rye sold about ½c higher and barley was quoted nominally unchanged.

Liverpool close: Wheat, unchanged; corn, 1d to 1½d higher.

Primary wheat receipts were 1,347,000 bushels, and shipments 1,265,000 bushels against receipts of 2,360,000 bushels, and shipments of 961,000 last year.

Primary corn receipts were 572,000 bushels, and shipments 287,000 bushels against receipts of 544,000 bushels, and shipments of 242,000 bushels last year.

Primary oats receipts were 655,000 bushels, and shipments 511,000 bushels against receipts of 844,000 bushels, and shipments of 1,104,000 bushels last year.

Local Range of Options.

The local future market was very quiet today and the early in December and May wheat was mainly the result of the unfavorable Argentine news and covering by the shorts.

There was very little export business yesterday and it is the opinion of many of the traders that foreigners are waiting for a break in wheat before placing any large orders, but will eventually take all the wheat that can be shipped.

Foreign cables on corn were very bullish and the situation was helped considerably by the fact that Argentine reports on corn are very unfavorable and only timely rains in that district will prevent a total failure in the corn crops.

The seaboard reported a good export inquiry for corn and oats, but there was not much of a demand for these cereals in the local pit.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Early Bulge in Wheat Followed by Reaction and Second Upturn.

Chicago, Nov. 16.—Apparently unfounded assertions that President Wilson would make recommendations to congress relative to an embargo on foodstuffs did a good deal today to weaken the price of wheat. Closing quotations were heavy at 1c to 2¼c net decline with December at $1.85½ to $1.85⅝ and May at $1.90⅝ to $1.91¼. Corn finished ⅝@⅞c off to ⅛@⅜c up; oats, unchanged, and provisions varying from 5c loss to a rise of 45c.

Denials said to be from the White House that the president would favor an embargo on wheat came too late to act as a check today on the bears. Besides, the fact, that British buyers seemed to be out of the market and had done nothing in the last few days, counted seriously against the bulls, and so also did rumors that much British vessels tonnage had been switched to Australia and to India. In this connection stress was laid on announcements that the India government had sanctioned exporting to England, France and Italy in November, December and January, 12,000,000 bushels of wheat. The result was that an early bulge in prices was much more than offset, especially toward the last of the session, when the embargo talk was rife.

Willingness that holders evidenced to take profits was a notable factor throughout the day in the wheat pit, even during the first couple of hours, notwithstanding that prices then were on the upgrade. The early strength was due chiefly to advices that hot winds were damaging the crop in Southern Argentina, and that yields there were light.

Corn finally weakened with wheat. For the greater part of the day, however, the corn market was higher, influenced by reports that the new corn crop in Argentina was a complete failure. Oats held within a comparatively narrow range. Seaboard handlers figure that oats from the United States can be laid down in London, 30 cents a bushel cheaper than shipments from Argentina.

Signs of Belgian relief buying made provisions average higher. Declines in the hog market were virtually ignored.
