Harry Buford Proves To Be Some Persuader Little Harry Buford, patrol chauffeur at central police station, rivalled Billy Sunday in effectiveness yesterday when he preached a heart-to-heart sermon to Richard Bennett, porter at the B. F. Goodrich Rubber company. The rubber company reported the theft of several hundred dollars' worth of merchandise and a valuable watch stolen from the desk of an employe. Buford came in to make a purchase, while detectives were on the way up, and he was told about it.

Suspicion was directed toward Bennett, and Buford questioned him and learned that he had been gambling. The sermon commenced immediately, and soon Bennett confessed to stealing the watch and the money he had peddled it. He stood pat on the theft of the merchandise, however. By the time the detectives came, he was willing to accompany the officers to the pawnshop, where the watch was subsequently found.

Bennett was arraigned in police court and sentenced to thirty days in the workhouse.

Unable to Tell Who Put Bullet in Jaw How Eric Fredrickson of Archer, Neb., came to be shot through the fleshy part of his jaw last night is a mystery which even he cannot solve, he says.

He walked into a cigar store at 1402 Farnam street last night and asked for a doctor. When Police Surgeon Kully came, he exhibited a small caliber bullet hole in his cheek. He says he was standing in front of a saloon near the postoffice when a man came up to him and shot him, and then ran away. He said he did not get a good enough look at his assailant to give a description. He is being detained at headquarters for investigation.

DINNER REWARDS HUNT FOR MEMBERS

Ninety-Five Commercial Club Hustlers Spend Day in Scout Work.

GOOD HAUL THE RESULT

The ninety-five men who hustled for more Commercial club members yesterday afternoon dragged themselves into the club rooms at 6:30 o'clock last night, washed up their faces and brushed their hair for the dinner.

H. O. Wilhelm, captain of the crew that set out to drag in the 100 new members in a single day, headed the table and managed the evening's entertainment. A little hot coffee, a few slices of hot bread and some good steak brought new life to the faded comrades.

Many of the men who signed up for membership during yesterday's campaign were at the tables. Every man signed was invited to attend the dinner and get acquainted and be initiated.

The band played ragtime, the colored boys danced southern plantation clogs and the workers delivered impromptu speeches.

A few weeks ago Wilhelm and his hosts attacked the city with a view to bringing in 100 members in a three-day campaign. This time they went out determined to bring in 100 in one day. The task was almost too much for them, but they came with a good day's kill just the same.

Now that the work of the various teams hustling Commercial club membership yesterday has been checked up, it is found the committee brought in sixty-seven memberships actually in the game bag in the evening of a single day's work, and that some fifteen others promised to send their checks in by mail at once. Others are contingent upon this or that so that it looks as though the 100 mark for the single day, which was the goal set, will probably be practically reached when all the results of yesterday's work are finally in.

Concert at Gretna by Creighton Glee Club

Last Saturday evening Prof. Henry Beck, musical director at Creighton university, and sixteen members of the Glee club went to Gretna, where they helped make up a program arranged in honor of Father Wallace of that place. A home talent play was the main feature, yet the club successfully entertained between the acts. Joseph Ostidick gave a violin solo. John Ferris rendered a well received violin solo, while two numbers which will be used in this year's concert, were staged some time in February, were rendered by the club.

It is planned to stage a light opera as part of this season's concert and already practice is being held each Tuesday and Saturday.

YOUNG WORKERS FOR HUGHES DINE

High School Students Who Backed Candidate Addressed by F. S. Howell.

BE AMERICANS FIRST

Thirty-nine young high school Hughes workers who helped reduce the Wilson majority in Nebraska held a banquet at the Rome hotel last evening.

F. S. Howell, chairman of the republican county central committee, gave them a short talk.

"I regret that the latest returns from our recent election have somewhat cooled the ardor of the pre-election republican spirit," said Mr. Howell, "but a lesson is to be learned from one of these campaigns. After the heat of the battle has passed we settle back into an American spirit."

"The campaign was a partisan one where we chose our would-be standard bearer and followed the best fight that we could to take him to victory."

"We have in this room a type of the American citizen and when you are grown to manhood the future of the United States will rest in you."

"We sometimes lose dignity in political discussion, but when the election is over and our president is chosen it is the duty of every patriotic citizen, regardless of preference or for whom he may have worked, to assist that president so far as it is in his power so to do. If he then does not measure up to your ideal, cross swords with the party that put him there, four years hence."

The boys showed their appreciation and republican spirit by giving Mr. Howell three cheers, followed by their high school yell. The following were in attendance:

Fred Hammel, Wesley Ruemel, Robert E. Hanna, Ralph Kohn, Green Porter, Weber Olson, Edward Munroe, George Read, Milton A. Nelson, James Preisbitt, L. M.
