BLIND PIG GAME IS TOUGH ONE TO PLAY

fost Dry States Provide Pretty Stiff Penalties for Running "Alley Joints."

IS NOT SO BAD HERE NOW

By A. R. GROH.

If any enterprising gent is figuring n setting up a cozy little "alley joint" "blind pig," now that Nebraska is ut to go dry, let him pause a monent and consider that this course is safety first." They have an annoyng habit of putting such enterprising nts in prison, fining them heavily, saking them work on chain gangs and otherwise interfering with their ersonal liberty.

BROWNELL HALL TO LAUNCH CAMPAIGN

Effort to Be Made to Raise a Quarter Million for New Home in Fairacres.

MANY BACK OF THE MOVE

To raise $250,000 in ten days for the building of a new Brownell Hall, men and women of Omaha will enlist in a campaign beginning Monday, December 4. This is the announcement made men who, though not on the official board of trustees of the school.

The $250,000 sought in this campaign will be used to erect a group of buildings on a new site, in Fairacres, given for the purpose by Messrs, Charles C. and J. Edward George. The group of buildings planned for the Fairacres campus will provide, it is declared, for double the present number of students.

Under the direction of Frederick Courtenay Barber, head of Frederick Courtenay Barber and associates of New York City, will be assembled a volunteer organization of twenty-five teams, twenty of men and five of women. Each team will consist of eight workers, headed by a captain. The total working force, therefore, will number 200.

Committee in Charge.

Heading the movement will be an executive committee, seven of whose members have been chosen from the Brownell Hall board of trustees. Other members of this committee include men who, though not on the official board of the institution, are deeply interested in the school and in the plans for its enlargement. Representatives from the trustees on this committee are:

Fred H. Davis, president First National bank; Charles C. Gorge, president Gorge & Company; Barton Millard, vice president Meriam & Millord, vice president Meriam & Millard, vic
