

Council Bluffs Social Notes

Last Sunday morning Rev. D. I. Hower officiated at the marriage of Miss Leeta Roach and Mr. Henry Verpoeten.

Monday Mrs. A. Dorn and Mrs. L. G. Merrill of Neola spent the day with Mrs. R. S. Palmer.

Mrs. H. A. Bellinger left Tuesday for Indianapolis, Ind., as Iowa delegate to the national convention of the Women's Christian Temperance union.

Mrs. R. S. Palmer entertained the music and drama department of the Council Bluffs Woman's club Monday afternoon.

Miss Winifred Leahy acted as leader. The program opened with a piano solo, a McDowell number, by Miss Florence Senior.

For an encore she gave an arrangement of Stephen Foster's "Old Black Joe," and later in the program she gave a reading, "The First Call."

Mrs. A. B. Sipherd briefly reviewed the play, "The Servant in the House," reading several selections from it.

A double number, two songs by William Hawley, "A June Marigras" and "The Song that My Heart's Singing," was charmingly rendered by Mrs. John Vitavas.

Miss Fern Baker told something of the life of Brackett, the writer of church music, and played several of his hymns.

George E. Walker gave a sketch of the life of George B. Nevin, the composer, and Miss Edith Wright gave his popular song, "The Rosary," as a violin solo.

A piano solo by Mrs. Edith Wright completed the program.

Mrs. G. S. Ackerman of Portland, Ore., was the guest of honor at a 1 o'clock luncheon given by Mrs. Fred Sheeley Tuesday.

Other guests were Mrs. Frank Drummy of Omaha, Mrs. Chester Wilson of Fremont, Neb., Mrs. C. T. Haynes of Kokomo, Ind., Mrs. Fred Witherspoon and Mrs. A. T. Hitchcock.

Tuesday afternoon the Atlas club held a postponed meeting at the home of Mrs. F. T. True.

The study of Turkey in Asia was continued. An excellent paper on "Armenia—Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow" was given by Mrs. J. T. Hamilton.

Mrs. R. H. Bloomer told of Mount Ararat and read selections of Armenian verse. The next regular meeting of the club will be held November 28.

The ideal club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. S. Terwilliger.

The program opened with a discussion of current events, led by Mrs. Will Pyper and Mrs. W. A. Southard.

The study of Poland, in connection with the study of the Slav people, occupied the afternoon.

Mrs. Freeman Reed told of the national characteristics of the Polish people. Mrs. George Davis gave a very entertaining and instructive sketch of Tadeusz Kosciuszko, the real Thaddeus of Warsaw.

"The Rise of Polish Nationality and Its Decline" was discussed by Mrs. M. B. Moon. The study of Poland will be continued at the meeting next Tuesday at Mrs. Terwilliger's.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. A. W. Tyler entertained the members of the Tuesday History club at a 1 o'clock luncheon.

Mrs. Painter Knox, Mrs. C. G. Saunders and Mrs. J. C. Pryor were the assistant hostesses. Covers were laid for sixteen at one long table, decorated with chrysanthemums.

The afternoon's entertainment consisted of an informal program, the most attractive feature being several songs sung by Mrs. D. J. Adams of Omaha.

November 28 the club will hold its regular meeting with Mrs. J. J. Spindler.

The annual election of officers was the most important event at the meeting of the Garden club at the home of Mrs. F. H. Hill Tuesday afternoon.

SHE WILL TALK SUFFRAGE TO OMAHA WOMEN.

Mrs. Nellie L. McClung

Mrs. Nellie McClung, who will speak at the Blackstone hotel on Wednesday, November 29, at 4 o'clock under the auspices of the Equal Franchise society, opens the 1918 suffrage campaign in Nebraska.

Ms. McClung is known as the foremost suffragist in Canada. To her goes a large share of the credit for the enfranchisement of the women of the three provinces, Manitoba, Alberta and Saskatchewan, all of which have granted equal suffrage during the last year.

Mrs. McClung organized the Political Equality league of Manitoba, which became the Political Educational league after the franchise was won.

With the two fold object of education and legislation in view, the Political Educational league is now deep in a campaign for better laws for women and children in West Canada, giving special attention to the present unsatisfactory laws concerning inheritance, dower, and guardianship.

Besides being a suffragist, Mrs. McClung is a writer of some note and has a husband and five children.

Mrs. O. J. Mitchell, secretary, Mrs. Knute Holmes, "The Top and the Bottom of the United States" was the subject of an excellent paper given by Mrs. H. H. Larson.

A two-course luncheon was served. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Chris Peterson.

Mrs. S. A. Beason, 212 Turley avenue, entertained the D. G. A. D. club Thursday afternoon.

The time was spent playing "500," Mrs. Beason winning the prize for high score and Mrs. Henrietta Siberts the "cut for all."

Mrs. C. L. Laonson entertained the members of the Helping Hand Kensington club Tuesday afternoon.

They spent several hours sewing for the needy families of the city. Next Tuesday they will meet at the home of Mrs. M. Arthur.

She Always Seconds the Motion at Sessions of Omaha Woman's Club

"I second the motion, Madam President!"

The woman who is credited with having uttered the above formula more times than any other member in the Omaha Woman's club is Mrs. Thomas Brown, treasurer of the social science department.

"Our official seconder," the other members call her. "Whenever a motion is made, we listen for Mrs. Brown's second," said one of them. It is because Mrs. Brown is deeply interested in all the proceedings at the Woman's club and has her opinion formed almost immediately as to the best course of action to pursue.

Mrs. Brown boasts membership in fourteen different women's organizations and finds time to attend meetings of them all, besides looking after her own property interests. She is an active suffragist and churchwoman and a sturdy campaigner, either for suffrage, temperance or school board members.

Mrs. Brown headed the Woman's club committee for the Syrian Flower day benefit which netted over $1,200 the month, when the two will leave for a trip to California.
