American Consul And Wife Insulted By German Officials

Amsterdam, Nov. 22.—(Via The Hague to London, Nov. 22.)—Dimitrie I. Murphy, American consul general at Sofia, Bulgaria, arrived here today through Germany from Stockholm, where he went recently with his wife to visit their daughter. Despite the fact that Mr. Murphy had a special pass from the German legation at The Hague, it is stated that the German authorities at Warnemunde treated the couple with incivility on their way to Stockholm and again on their return. The second incident occurred, it is said, notwithstanding the intervention of Dr. Maurice F. Egan, American minister to Denmark, and also of the German minister, who had assured Mr. Murphy that the treatment given him and his wife would not occur again. Mr. Murphy will leave for Sofia Wednesday.

Mrs. Borglum's Hands Modeled by Solon

The expressive hands of Madame August M. Borglum, an Omaha woman and his sister-in-law, were modeled by Solon Borglum, the celebrated artist, in his sculpture "The Gentle Closing of Two Lives," known as the Schieren memorial, which stands in the lobby of the Hotel Fontenelle during the Fine Arts exhibit there. Madame Borglum was visiting at the home of her sister, who is Mrs. Solon Borglum, in Norwich, Conn., last summer when the artist was at work on this subject. "I watched the evolution of the sculpture for about a month. The model used for the central figure had not beautiful hands and Solon asked to use my hands for that part of the work," said Madame Borglum, a chance remark to a friend while viewing the statue disclosing this information. "On the Trail" and "New-Born," two bronzes by Solon Borglum, have been purchased by C. N. Dietz.

Swedish Inventor Will Be Honored

Thorson of Omaha is a member of the committee, appointed by John Sharp Williams, Congressman James L. Slayden and Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy, to tend to the business of building a monument to perpetuate the memory of the man who invented and constructed the "Monitor," the little wonder boat of the civil war. Congress, in its last session, appropriated $35,000 to construct a monument in Washington, D. C. Mr. Thorson will take part in the council to decide just what sort of a memorial will be built.
