Wealthy Recluse Dies From Wound; Thought Suicide

Dying from a gunshot wound through the head, H. R. Bocott, 80-year-old civil war veteran and wealthy recluse of Benson, was found early last night about fifty feet from the county road, near Chris Lyck's saloon, 5202 Military avenue. Apparently the aged man had shot himself, as the bullet entered through his mouth in which the muzzle of a new revolver had been placed. The pistol was found at his side.

He died at St. Joseph's hospital a few moments after he had been received.

Nels Robertson, brother-in-law, asserted this morning that Bocott had been worrying over financial matters lately, despite the fact that he always asserted that he was worth lots of money. He borrowed $4 from a neighbor with which to purchase the revolver that ended his life. In his effects were found stock certificates and other papers to show that up to a few years ago he had been worth much money. Robertson was at a loss to explain where the money went, as Bocott had lived with him in recent years and had spent little. He was a widower and is survived by a son, Herbert, in Montana, and a daughter, Mrs. Beatrice Shaner of Beaver, Pa. An inquest will be held Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

American Mediators Give in a Little and Agreement Awaited

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 23.—With the announcement tonight that the Mexican-American joint commission would meet again tomorrow, "as usual," the prospects were believed to be better for an amicable agreement.

It became known tonight that the commissioners have considered a slight alteration of the American proposal, which, if agreed to, would make probable an agreement. The suggested alteration would not change materially the real meaning of the program submitted to the Mexican commissioners but would save them the humiliation of signing a document in which there appeared the formal consent of the Mexican government for the violation of its territory by troops of the United States.

West Side School District Patrons Form Organization

A largely attended meeting was held at the West Side school on Tuesday evening by the parents of pupils, and friends of a movement to further social, business and educational features in this district.

Paul McAuley, probation officer for many years past, presided and explained the objects of "The Community Center Work."

The large delegation of women present indicated that they desire to co-operate, although apparently somewhat timid to begin with.

Officers as follows were elected: Judge George Collins, president; vice presidents, A. J. Bandola, Walter Furlong and Mrs. H. O. Wilson; John J. Nightingale, secretary.

The vice presidents elected were delegated to act as a committee of three on entertainment.

The appointment of committees on publicity and on other business pertaining to the welfare of the organization was left over. Business meetings are to be held every Tuesday and entertainment sessions every Friday.

Judge P. C. Caldwell and other speakers spoke briefly.

OMAHA LAD KILLED IN ROBBERY FIGHT

John Davis Shot in Pistol Battle as He Attempts to Rob Drug Store in St. Louis.

FAMILY LIVES IN OMAHA

John Davis, aged 24 years, 1512 North Twenty-eighth street, son of Mrs. Hannah Davis of the above address, was shot and killed in a pistol battle with a drug clerk and policeman following an attempted robbery of the Compton pharmacy, St. Louis, Mo., early yesterday morning. A companion was wounded.

Young Davis was born and raised in Omaha and beside his mother is survived by eight brothers and sisters. A telegram was received by Mrs. Davis this morning informing her of her son's death. Surviving the lad in Omaha are Mrs. Charles Klinger, Mrs. A. T. Taylor and Mrs. J. F. Daley, married sisters, and Mary and Veronica Davis, who live with their mother; and two brothers, George, employed in the stock yards in South Omaha, and William, working at the Union Pacific shops. Another married sister, Mrs. Catherine Campbell, resides in Memphis.

Did Not Write Home. John Joseph Davis, the boy who was shot, left home some eight months ago after a little difficulty here. He went to Montana, where he engaged in work on a railroad. From the time of his departure up to a few days ago, when his folks received a postal from him in St. Louis, he had not communicated with his parents.

The wounded bandit, who was shot in the hip, gave his name to the St. Louis police as John Alfred Lewis of Sacramento, Cal.

John Davis of Omaha was identified by means of his name in a coat bearing the stamp of the Glasgow Tailors, 310 South Fifteenth street, Omaha. The date of the suit's sale was December 10, 1915.

The shooting followed a series of holdups and robberies by automobile bandits in St. Louis within the last few days. The men were in a stolen car when the shooting occurred.

Lewis was shot by Francis J. Curran, the drug clerk, and Davis was killed by Police Sergeant John Flaherty.

The automobile bore a Nebraska license 4,435. Secretary of State Pool said the number was issued to J. W. Latta of Clay Center. Inquiry made at Clay Center failed to determine if Mr. Latta's car had been stolen.

Lewis is 25 years old, five feet seven inches tall, weighing 160 pounds, and has a fair complexion and brown hair.

The initials, S. P., were engraved on a watch found on the body of Davis; there also was the date, December 25, 1912.

William Davis, brother of John, was brought before Judge Foster about a year ago in regard to the theft of an auto, but because of his youth was not sentenced to jail.

Joseph Riha, salesman for the Glasgow tailoring establishment, who sold Davis the suit by which he was identified, offered a description that tallied perfectly with that furnished by the St. Louis authorities.

At police headquarters Detective Devereux revealed a photo of the man, which was taken when he was arrested on suspicion last April as being a member of the J. Griffen auto stealing gang. This outfit operated extensively at that period between Omaha and Grand Island, stealing a number of machines. Nothing definite was found to connect Davis with their organization and he was released in a few days. The body of John Davis will be brought to Omaha for interment.

Car Falls on Man, Killing Him at the Union Pacific Shops

A boxcar fell on Tony Verno, aged 25, 2462 South Twentieth street, and instantly killed him. Tony, who was an assistant car repairer at the Union Pacific shops, was working under the car which he had just jacked up off the tracks. The jack slipped and Verno's chest was crushed. Coroner Crosby has the body and will probably hold an inquest.

The dead man is survived by a widow and three children.

MOTHER OF FOUR CHILDREN

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Kept Her Well and Strong.

Lincoln, Illinois.—"I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for ten years with good results and I have four healthy children. This summer I was in a very run down condition and the very best weather seemed more than I could stand, but I commenced taking your Compound in June and from then until September 25th, when my last baby was born, I got along much better than I had before. My baby was a girl and weighed 14 pounds at birth, and I recovered very rapidly which I am sure was due to your medicine. I am well and strong now, nurse my baby and do all my work. I had the same good results with your medicine when needed before my other children came and they are all healthy. My mother has taken your medicine with equal satisfaction. She had her last child when nearly 44 years old and feels confident she never would have carried him through without your help, as her health was very poor."—Mrs. T. F. CLOY, 1355 North Guleck Ave., Decatur, Ill.

Expectant mothers should profit by Mrs. Cloyd's experience, and trust to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Try This If You Have Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This hawking, snuffing, blowing, headache, to fail.—Advertisement.
