

WAR OF NATIONS AS WELL AS OF ARMIES

Germany is Considering Elaborate Plan of Mobilizing and Systematizing Labor.

AFFECTS MEN 17 TO 60

London, Nov. 24.—The German auxiliary service bill is considered by Secretary of the Interior von Loebell as surpassing in importance all previous war measures...

Positive Lack of Labor. Explaining that the object of the bill was the mobilization of labor, the minister declared that instead of the lack of employment which prevailed at the beginning of the war...

General Grouner pointed out that the exertions of the British ministry of munitions necessitated a considerable increase in the manufacture of munitions in Germany.

Second Examination in France. Paris, Nov. 24.—The minister of war has introduced a bill in the chamber of deputies by which all persons exempted from military service or mustered out as physically unfit prior to April 1, 1916, must submit to a further medical examination.

Cropsey Case to Come Up at December Term. Fairbury, Neb., Nov. 24.—(Special Telegram.)—Judge Pemberton of Beatrice held a short session of district court for the eighteenth district Thursday afternoon and this morning he adjourned court until December 4, which will be a jury session.

In the case of Catherine Swihart against the Oberhelman estate the court decided the property involved in the litigation to Mrs. Sophia Oberhelman. The court listened to arguments in three divorce cases and continued them over to the December term.

Judge Pemberton will return to Fairbury December 4 and hold one of the largest terms of court of the entire year. At this session the case of the Jefferson county commissioners against County Treasurer D. B. Cropsey for retention of clerical fees will be tried to a jury.

Condition of Mrs. Tanner Reported as Serious. Mrs. J. M. Tanner, 333 Pine street, is reported in a serious condition. She was burned Thursday morning when her dress caught fire while she was telephoning with her back near a gas stove. She did not sleep Thursday night.

BANDITS RENEW ATTACK ON CITY OF CHIHUAHUA

impossible to estimate the number of dead on the field, as the attention of the Carranza hospital corps and civilian helpers was directed toward ministering to the wants of the wounded.

Take Wounded to Hospitals. Relays of workers were working tonight removing the wounded to the military hospitals and private homes in Chihuahua City, where they are being cared for by the women of the volunteer Red Cross organization.

At dawn tomorrow a careful search will be made of the battlefield for dead Villa officers. It was announced in Juarez tonight, where it was said there was a possibility that many of Villa's officers may have been killed by the heavy artillery and rifle fire of the Carranza forces.

Villa withdrew his surviving forces in defeat from Chihuahua City at 6:25 o'clock, after a battle of seven hours, during which he made fruitless attempts to carry General Trevino's protecting works by assault.

Trevino repulsed a fourth mass attack by Villa forces late today, the bandits being driven from their temporary entrenched positions with heavy losses, it was announced in Juarez.

Juarez, Nov. 24.—Among the Villa dead picked up on the battlefield to the west of Chihuahua City was found the body of General Julio Acosta, one of Villa's principal commanders, it was announced here at 2 o'clock.

General Acosta was with Villa when the bandits occupied Parral and is said to be one of Villa's chief lieutenants.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 24.—Carranza officials in Juarez are watching the military telegraph wire closely for news of General Murguia's approach to Chihuahua City from the direction of Santa Rosalia. General Trevino is said to be in communication with General Murguia by wireless to Mexico City, the messages being relayed back by telegraph to General Murguia south of Chihuahua City, as it is believed in Juarez Villa has cut the telegraph line south of the state capital.

FINISH CONQUEST OF LITTLE WALLACHIA

Berlin Announces Capture of Orsova and Turnu-Severin, On the Danube.

RUSS MOVE IN DOBRUDJA

London, Nov. 24.—Virtual completion of the Teutonic conquest of Little Wallachia is announced today by Berlin. Orsova and Turnu-Severin, on the Danube, have been captured by the Austro-German forces which have broken the resistance of the Roumanians in this section of west Roumania.

No mention is made of the fate of the Roumanian forces which were defending the Orsova region. The retreat of these forces is assumed to have been cut off with the recent capture by General von Falkenberg's army of Craiova and with it the only main line railroad leading eastward.

Approaching Alt Valley. Pushing eastward from the Jiu valley after their capture of Craiova, the Austro-German forces are now announced as approaching the Alt valley. It is along this valley that the Roumanians apparently have elected to make their next stand.

Americans here today claimed to have information that the Villa forces have reached Nombre de Dios, a small river which parallels the Mexican Central railroad to the northeast of Chihuahua City. The fighting is said to have become general outside the city. The same Americans claim to have information that Villa is gaining ground and that the attack of yesterday was a feint to draw out the Carranza garrison in that direction in order that the attack from other directions could be made.

LANDERS AVERS JONES IN HOUSE

Real Estate Man of Shenandoah Says Saw Him Enter About 8 O'clock.

HAD NOT TOLD IT BEFORE

Red Oak, Ia., Nov. 24.—(Special Telegram.)—Edward H. Landers, a real estate dealer of Shenandoah, was on the witness stand all morning today in the Jones-Wilkerson damage suit for $60,000. He stated that he was visiting his mother in Villisca at the time of the Joe Moore murder, and that on the night of the murder he and his wife went past the Moore home about 8:15 o'clock and saw a man go in the house.

Upon repeated urging by Attorney Mitchell, he finally said, "I thought this man to be Albert Jones." On cross-examination he stated that so far as he was concerned he was on friendly terms with Albert Jones at the present time. He said also that he was a witness at the inquest over the murdered victims, but that he did not, at that time, relate the incident of seeing Jones enter the Moore house, giving as his reason that he was not at that time certain about it.

Detective J. H. Wilkerson went on the stand when court convened this afternoon and the entire afternoon was taken up with his recital of the story of the murder plot, as told by Mrs. Vina Tompkins on the stand last week, the story of the murder and the arrest of William Mansfield.
