

STORAGE HOUSES MUST GIVE LISTS

Harman Orders Them Up for Aid of Federal Investigation.

NEW BANK AT MILLARD

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, Nov. 24.—(Special.)—Cold storage houses will be required to furnish at once the pure food department of the state the quantity of cold storage eggs and other necessities of life which they may have in their establishments, according to orders sent out this morning by Food Commissioner Harman.

The reports will be used to assist the federal government in an investigation of the shortage and high prices on butter and eggs.

New Millard Bank.
The Farmers State bank of Millard is a new institution which was granted a charter at a meeting of the State Banking board yesterday.

The capital of the bank will be $15,000 and the officers are: John C. Bull, president; Ben Schomer, vice president, and Elliot H. Frahm, cashier.

John G. Mallalieu, Former Nebraskan, Is Dead in Idaho

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 24.—(Special Telegram.)—Miss Elizabeth Mallalieu, assistant state librarian, last night received a telegram announcing the death of her father, John G. Mallalieu, in Idaho Springs, Idaho.

Mr. Mallalieu, who was prominent in affairs in Nebraska, moved to Idaho a few years ago. He was secretary of the republican state central committee in 1901 and 1902 and was superintendent of the State Industrial school at Kearney for four years. He was born at Millington, Md., sixty-four years ago.

The body will be brought to Kearney, his former home, for interment Sunday.

One-Minute Store Talk

"I see you're showing about twice as many suits and overcoats as you did last year. Don't seem to be any scarcity of clothes here," said a customer yesterday.

That's as far as he thought about it. Little he knew that more than $100,000 additional early purchases were made to insure sufficient merchandise for this season's requirements.

Three great floors are devoted to men's apparel here today. If you're unacquainted with a greater Nebraska service, then, even as a matter of curiosity, you ought to visit this metropolitan store Saturday.

JOHN A. SWANSON, President. The Nebraska WM. L. HOLZMAN, Treasurer.
