Iowa City, Ia., Nov. 25 .- (Special Telegram.)-Exhibiting a driving attack that completely swept all before it. "Doc" Stewart's Cornhusker machine came back here this afternoon and soundly trounced the Hawkeyes, 34 to 17. The Huskers easily outclassed Iowa and shortly after the second quarter started it was evident that Stewart's men would annex a near the cadet rooters.

Nebraska easily played its best game of the year today. The back-field, which had heretofore exhibited Nebraska easily played its best game of the year today. The back-field, which had heretofore exhibited such a woeful lack of driving power and punch in the pinches, was almost irresistible. It ripped the Hawkeye defense asunder apparently whenever it pleased and the lowa line crumbled like paper when the Husker forwards charged.

The Nebraskans outclassed the lo The Nebraskans outclassed the locals in the open style of play and in the aerial game but on hitting the line Sioux City was the equal of the visiting team. Both teams were penalized frequently but Omaha sucred the greatest loss. Sioux City was penalized a distance of 85 yards while the boys from Nebraska were set back a total of 125 yards.

Omaha Leads in Scoring.

Omaha scored four minutes after the start of the game. End runs interspersed with line plunges and off tackle plays carried the ball through steady gams to the eight-yard line. Here it was that Quarterback Maxwell used his head and called for a pass. Morearty made a beautiful throw across the goal line, eighteen yards away and Smith took the ball on the dead run, planting it behind the locals' goal posts for the first score. Maxwell kicked goal.

The second touchdown came a few minutes later when Morearty intercepted Sioux City's first attempt at a forward pass on his own 20-yard line and dashed the full length of the field for a touchdown. Maxwell again kicked goal.
