

ST. LOUIS BANDIT'S CAR BELONGED HERE

Was Property of City and Was Stolen from in Front of City Hall Three Weeks Ago.

WAS USED BY J. J. PARKS

Information was received at the city hall that the automobile found in front of the St. Louis drug store, where J. J. Davis was killed, and his companion, John Alfred Lewis, was wounded, was stolen from in front of the Omaha city hall at noonday three weeks ago.

The car was a new Buick and used by City Commissioner Parks of the street department. The factory engine number, 225,155, was wired from St. Louis by the American Automobile Insurance company to the local Buick people, who traced the sales through the Holmes-Atkins company of the South Side.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 24.—(Special Telegram)—Mrs. C. E. Klinger, wife of a business man of Omaha, today identified at the morgue the body of a man shot and killed in a revolver duel with Police Sergeant Fleeharty in a drug store hold-up as her brother, John Joseph Davis. The slain bandit was a railroad brakeman.

Mrs. Klinger said Davis was apparently not financially embarrassed, as he had departed from Omaha nine days ago with $1,000 of his own money. She declared that so far as she knew her brother never before had been implicated in a criminal act. She was accompanied by her husband.

A verdict exonerating Sergeant Fleeharty and declaring Davis' death a justifiable homicide, was returned by a coroner's jury.

The dead man's partner, Charles Alfred Lewis, Kansas City, is in a serious condition at the city hospital. Mrs. Anna Doyle Davis, 24, who made the trip, from Omaha with another woman and the two men, and who was arrested after the holdup, was released by the police after the inquest.

Judge Leslie Says South Side Parents Too Lax With Boys

Judge Leslie of the juvenile court read the riot act to parents of several South Side boys who were arraigned for breaking into freight cars in the railroad yards and stealing merchandise. He told the parents that they were more to blame than the boys, charging several with aiding and abetting the lads in their thefts.

About twenty boys were in court, several of whom had been arraigned the previous Saturday and given suspended sentences to the state industrial school at Kearney. Judge Leslie paroled ten of the lads to Kearney, and released the remainder on their promises to "be good."

Want Place Set Aside for Docks on the River Front

A suitable place on the river front for docks and terminals in the future as river navigation grows at Omaha is what is now desired by the Missouri River Navigation league. The league has asked the city commissioners to set aside what is known as the Wind-spring Triangle at the bend in the Missouri river east of the Union Pacific shops for a municipal terminal. The commissioners referred the matter to the legal department.

Coal Dealers Battle in Court Over The Present and Past Prices of Fuel

The H. C. of K. W. (high cost of keeping warm), or how much is the difference between coal prices now and last summer, is to be determined by the district court; at least, a plaintiff has filed a petition with the clerk in which he asks to have the question settled.

David Gerber deals in coal. He has a number of regular customers whom he supplies with the commodity taken from the bowels of the earth which has come to be regarded as in the same class with diamonds, rubies and precious stones.

Now Gerber claims that Sidman delivered only 425 of the 1,500 tons ordered. Gerber complains that he is unable to supply his customers and as a result should be recompensed to the amount of $4,225, many tons of the black stuff that burns. The plaintiff explains that coal of the same grade as was contracted for last summer is now selling for $6 and $7 a ton.

Making Plans to Speed Up the Mints; Small Coins Scarce

New York, Nov. 24.—Plans for increasing the output of the United States mints were discussed at a conference held here by director of the mint F. J. H. Von Engelken, Vernon M. Bovie, superintendent of the New York assay office, and Superintendent of Philadelphia, Thomas Annear of Denver and T. W. H. Shanahan of San Francisco.

"Although the mints are turned out an average of 3,000,000 quarters, dimes, nickels and cents per day," said Mr. Von Engelken, "they are unable to supply the ever-growing demand due to the wave of prosperity. The conference was held for the purpose of speeding up the different mints to maximum capacity."

From July 1 last to November 21 the three mints turned out 173,688,000 coins of different denominations.

THANKSGIVING IN BUSINESS

Dresher Brothers, Cleaners, Show Spirit of Thanks for Success Given Them.

In Return for Favors, Will Render an Exceedingly Prompt "Thanksgiving" Cleaning Service.

Of course, Thanksgiving day rewards will not be thrust upon those who will not make proper efforts to deserve them.

Dresher Brothers, the Dry Cleaners and Dyers, at 2211-2217 Farnam street, have been accorded a brimming-over success because of the numerous years of study and effort they have put into the business.

Just think: Dreshers' plant has gotten to the point where 100 employees are necessary (exclusive of the force at Dresher The Tailors, 1515 Farnam street). And nine automobiles are required to deliver the clothes that are put in order for Omahans each and every working day.

They, too, Dreshers have those busy branch offices at the Brandeis Stores, at the Burgess-Nash Co.'s, and at the Harney street office directly in the rear of the Dresher plant. Add to this the thousands of packages that are received right along from all parts of America. Dreshers pay express or parcel post charges one way on any sized shipment, and for that reason have been accorded a mail order patronage second to none in the land.

The Dresher plant today represents an investment of $150,000, but it has taken eighteen years of study and six years of actual practice to bring this immense industry about.

Now, then, in order to show an appreciation of this success, Dreshers feature the "Service, Not Sell," idea. Dreshers will call for your work any time Monday and agree to have the clothes back to you, in superb condition, by Wednesday evening in plenty of time for Thanksgiving day wear. Just phone Tyler 345 for a Dresher Auto and the Dresher workers will do the rest.

As repeatedly told you, Dreshers will do much towards reducing the H. C. O. L. for you (High Cost of Living). For a modest sum Dreshers will place your last season's garments into a spick and span condition, plenty good enough and plenty stylish enough for this season's wear.

Run this all through your mind—Then phone Tyler 345.
