

Good Old Home-Made Family Cough Remedy

Much Better than the Ready-Made Kind—Easily and Cheaply Prepared.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you would hardly have in them all the curative power that lies in this simple "home-made" cough syrup which takes only a few minutes to prepare.

Get from any druggist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents) and pour into a bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. The total cost is about 84 cents and gives you a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.50. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and sugar syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the inflamed throat, tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes that line the throat, chest and bronchial tubes, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with guaiacol and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, be sure to ask your druggist for "50" ounces of Pinex with full directions, and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Thousands of Families Rely On This Kidney Remedy

I suffered for three months with what the doctors called Malaria Fever, but I believe it was kidney trouble. Three different doctors were unable to help me, all giving me up and I would have died only for your Swamp-Root. My mother read one of your advertisements that fitted my case, and before I used four bottles of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root I was entirely cured. My Mother and Husband both are using your Swamp-Root and have been greatly benefited by it. I always have Swamp-Root in the house and can't say enough for your wonderful remedy, as it has saved my life.

MRS. DORA RYAN,
1105 N. Sheridan Ave., Tacoma Wash.
Personally appeared before me this 5th day of May, 1915, Mrs. Dora Ryan, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance in an fact.

HERE'S A NEW WAY TO RELIEVE ACHING FEET

Everyone who has to spend many hours standing up on hard floors or walking long distances suffers more or less from hot, tired, aching, burning, sweaty feet. To all these feet is a message of cheer. They can get rid of the trouble in a few minutes—and get very slight relief. Buy a package of Wa-Na-Ta from your druggist and when you get home bathe your feet for a few minutes in warm water in which two or three tablets of this preparation have been dissolved. The aches and pains will vanish like magic and the feet will be cool, comfortable and happy. Wa-Na-Ta added to your bath is a delightful cleanser and disinfectant, removing impurities and banishing body odors. Wa-Na-Ta is on sale at nearly all drug stores for 25 cents. If your druggist hasn't it and you want to test this preparation, send us 10 cents to cover cost of packing and mailing and we will forward a sample package to your address prepaid. L. T. CHANTICLEER AND BIDDY AT THE SHOW

Honored Guests of the City Are These Most Industrious Celebrities.

HEN IS GREAT ADVERTISER

By A. R. GROH.

Mr. and Mrs. Biddy Rooster are our honored guests this week. The artists of the poultry family are on exhibition at the Auditorium, some 12,000,000 of the rest of the family remaining "on the job" in the coops and chicken yards of the state. For the chicken family is too industrious to "lay off" of laying merely to go and pose idly before admiring humans in a show.

What an admirable creature is Biddy, the hen! And her brave mate, Chanticleer! What models of industry, thrift and sobriety!

Did anybody ever see a lazy hen? Never! She is up with the dawn, up and hunting food; intent upon laying an egg. It would be the easiest thing in the world for her to sneak off somewhere and lie down all day, lazily enjoying the sunshine. Nobody would know, when she returned to the roost in the evening, whether she had done an honest day's work or not. There is no clock for her to ring.

She Is No Shirker.

But Biddy is not a shirker. Generation after generation for many centuries she has gone her honest, industrious way. And today she has her reward, for she is held in the highest esteem. We couldn't get along without her. She produces more wealth than all our mines of gold and silver and copper and coal.

And Chanticleer, her chivalrous mate, whose morning duty it is to summon the orb of day from beneath the horizon, what praise can be too extravagant for him? How cheery sounds his crow! (Provided it isn't too near your window when you want to sleep till 8 a. m.) How bravely he fights any intruder in his domain! How lustily he joins Biddy in announcing to the world the birth of each new egg!

Thoughtful of Wife.

"The bravest and the tenderest" and so it is with Chanticleer. No selfish bird is he. Watch him in the barnyard. His scratching feet lay bare a choice fat grub. Does he gobble this himself? Not he. A peculiar call summons his beloved wife to his side. She swallows the morsel and then hurries on about her business while her brave mate goes off, satisfied with his good deed, not even expecting a "thank you."

Even the little chickens are industrious. Biddy doesn't have to call them more than once in the morning. They're up early, bright and early, not a single sleepy-head among them.

Hen Good Advertiser.

It has been remarked that the hen is a great advertiser. So she is. But there is no egotism in her advertising. She simply proclaims to the world that a new egg has been produced, not that she produced it. You can plainly hear her say: "See, see, see, the NEW egg; see, see, see, the NEW egg." She repeats this, perhaps a dozen times and then goes right to work on the next egg. She doesn't stand around bragging to Chanticleer and the other hens about the egg she has laid.

There are about eight times as many chickens in Nebraska as there are human beings.

I would propose a toast to Biddy and Chanticleer, but I know they wouldn't appreciate it. "More eggs and less hot-air," they would probably say, and go right on industriously about the serious business of life.

Fake Five-Dollar Gold Piece Costs Zager a Hundred

Stanley Zager, saloonman of the South Side, was fined $100 and costs and remanded in the custody of the marshal for one hour by Federal Judge Joseph Woodrough for giving out a counterfeit $5 gold piece to one of his patrons. Zager asserted that he received the money from one of his customers and that he was trying to pass it off in order not to be the loser. Instead of asking him to make the gold piece good, the patron took the matter up with the federal authorities.

Many at Funeral Of Mrs. J. M. Tanner

Mrs. J. M. Tanner, who was fatally burned at her home, 3333 Pine street, last Thursday morning, was buried Tuesday morning from her late residence. Services were held in St. Peter's church at 9 o'clock. A profusion of flowers and the attendance of many friends marked the obsequies. The deceased was the wife of State Senator John M. Tanner.

The Nebraska Press association sent a large basket of American Beauty roses. A casket-ajar came from the Omaha Fire department. The Ladies' Afternoon club sent a huge floral sheath, and similar tokens came from the Junior Bridge club, the Omaha Elks and the Monday Night club. The printers' club night chapel of the World-Herald sent a large offering, and the Dahlman club sent a large harp. Another striking offering came from the Willard F. Bailey employees of Kearney. A huge basket of roses were sent, together with a heartfelt note, from a group of old neighbors in South Omaha. Employees of the national revenue office sent a large contribution.

The active pallbearers were C. J. Cullen, J. M. Hogan, F. T. Ransom, J. A. Cavers, E. O. Mayfield and J. C. Walker. The honorary pallbearers were:

Edgar Howard, John Wall, C. A. Melchior, John Bush, R. L. Stearns, E. E. Sauer, Alfred Rosenbaum, George Shields, Al Powell, George Parks, J. B. Warkles, Thomas Heister, N. M. Eckman, H. C. Richmond, E. W. Miner, John Miller.

Burial was in the Holy Sepulcher cemetery.

Youthful Heir To Brandeis Millions and Coming Head of the Big Stores Brings Portrait of His Beautiful Bride-To-Be

John Ervine Brandeis Says that He Will Settle Down and Make City of Omaha His Home.

BRIDE-TO-BE IS ATHLETIC

Also Takes Leading Part in Charity Work in San Francisco, Where She Will Wed This Winter.

WILL LIVE AT BLACKSTONE

"I intend to make Omaha my home town and settle down," said John Ervine Brandeis, only son of the late Arthur D. Brandeis and heir to all the Brandeis interests, just returned from New York following the announcement of his engagement to Miss Madeline Frank, a well known and popular San Francisco girl. He brought with him the first portrait of the young woman to be seen here.

The son of the Brandeis family said he was tired of traveling around and now that he was to be married on a short while he had an incentive to take personal hold of the Brandeis Omaha interests.

As a start to taking hold, the young man was elected president of the Brandeis Realty company a few days ago. George Brandeis, general manager of the Brandeis Stores, was elected vice president, and G. H. Malchien, secretary and treasurer. The Brandeis theater building, the Brandeis store building, American theater building and the Empress theater building are some of the holdings which the young man has been elected to manage.

Miss Madeline Frank, his fiancée, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Frank. Her father is head of the S. H. Frank Tanners company, one of the largest leather goods concerns on the Pacific coast. Miss Frank is only 18 years old, but has already taken a very active interest in charity work in San Francisco. As an amateur on the stage, she took one of the leading parts in a playlet given for the benefit of the Children's hospital several weeks ago. She is also described as an outdoor girl, excellent horseback rider and adept at golf, tennis and other athletic games. While she has traveled around the world several times and has visited nearly every section of the United States, she has never been in Omaha.

It develops that the young couple met in San Francisco first more than a year ago when the young Mr. Brandeis was en route to Japan with his father. The acquaintance was re-

The South Side Balkan club, organized for "athletic, social, political and educational purposes," has filed articles of incorporation with the county clerk. The capital is $1,000. Tom Erca, president; John Mescharka, vice president; and James Thomas, secretary and treasurer, are the incorporators and officers.

Amended articles of incorporation of the Omaha Automobile Show association, filed by the Omaha Automobile Trade association, show a capital of $10,000. The corporation terminates November 17, 1920. The incorporators, officers and directors are: J. T. Stewart, 2d, president; Guy L. Smith, vice president; Clark G. Powell, secretary and treasurer; and George F. Regm and Lee Huff.

The incorporators of the LeBron Electric works, capitalized at $25,000, are Lawrence LeBron, Harry M. Binder and Bert LeBron.

The Fontenelle Feature Film company, a local motion picture producing concern, has a capital of $25,000. Max Wintroub and Paul LeMarquand are the incorporators.

nexed this summer when Mr. Brandeis went west with his cousin, Walter Colm.

Plans are being made for a wedding in San Francisco at the home of the bride's parents the latter part of January or early in the following month, with a honeymoon at Palm Beach.

John Ervine Brandeis is now located at the Blackstone and will be joined in a few weeks by his mother, Mrs. Arthur D. Brandeis, and sister, Miss Leola, who are still in the east.

After the honeymoon the young couple will make their home at the Blackstone pending the building of a home in the western part of the city. Mr. Brandeis had little to say about the plans of the house, declaring that it would be built entirely to the wishes of his fiancée.
