TRUMBLE IS OUT FOR SPEAKERSHIP

Sherman County Member Only One So Far to Oppose Jackson.

PHIL KOHL IN SENATE

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, Dec. 2.—(Special.)—Members of the coming session of the legislature are here searching for apartments in which they may live during the session.

Representative C. W. Trumble was here today. Mr. Trumble is a candidate for speaker. So far he is the only one who has come out in opposition to Speaker George Jackson of the last session, who is understood to be a candidate for reelection.

So far there has been no announcement respecting president pro-tem of the senate, but it is expected that Senator Phil Kohl who got only one chance to preside as president at the last session will be a candidate.

However, it is not expected that the draft will have to be resorted to in order to get enough officials and employees to fill the various places.
